HIGHER EDUCATION

MEMORANDUM

Campus Safety Baseline Report

S.B. 80, Campus Safety Amendments, requires the Utah Board of Higher Education to study and make recommendations for providing public safety services on college and university campuses. The study and any recommendations are due on or before the November 2021 Education Interim Legislative Committee meeting. The Office of the Commissioner commissioned an outside consulting firm, Cicero Group, to begin a baseline analysis of the public safety organization, policies, relationships, and processes at all sixteen Utah System of Higher Education institutions. Institutions individually participated in interview sessions from August–October. Over the past two months, Cicero Group met with the campus safety team at each of the 16 higher education institutions. While each campus safety team looks different at each institution, common roles include Director of Campus Safety/Security, Campus Chief of Police, Director of Emergency Management, Title IX Coordinator, and Vice President of Student Services. Additionally, specialists interviewed the Chief Diversity Officers at USHE institutions as well as students from several institutions.

The objectives of this analysis are:

1. Document and contextualize the campus security structure for each USHE institution.
2. Identify key points of transition and coordination for each campus, including incident response and dispatch procedures.
3. Identify the benefits of an institution employing campus law enforcement, and examine best practices/current priorities at other institutions.

In each interview, the campus safety teams were asked to detail their policies and procedures relating to campus safety. The four key areas of discussion included:

- Operating and communication structures
- Law enforcement and security presence
- Incident reporting and response
- Hiring, onboarding, and training

Attached is a summary and expanded analysis of the key findings. In addition, information regarding each institution's organization, processes, and information flow are included.

Commissioner's Recommendation

The Commissioner recommends that the Student Affairs Committee, together with his staff and other student affairs and diversity leadership at USHE institutions, review the Campus Safety Baseline Report with institution public safety chiefs and officers to identify the major policies and strategies to address the findings in this report in relation to S.B. 80, Campus Safety Amendments. In the near term, the Commissioner recommends public safety chiefs and officers begin meeting regularly under the direction of the Chief Public Safety Officer of the University of Utah, Marlon Lynch, to undergo this review.

Study Overview

Background

The Utah Board of Higher Education has been tasked with studying and providing recommendations for public safety services on colleges and university campuses through S.B. 80. To begin this task, USHE collaborated with Cicero Group to conduct a baseline assessment and cataloguing of campus law enforcement policies and procedures.

Objectives

- 1 Document and contextualize the campus security structure for each of the institutions
- 2 Identify key points of transition and coordination for each campus, including incident response and dispatch procedures
- 3 Identify the benefits of an institution employing campus law enforcement, and examine best practices / current priorities at other institutions

Methodology

Over the past two months, Cicero met with the campus safety team at each of the 16 higher education institutions. While the team looks different at each institution, common roles include:

- Director of Campus Safety/Security
- Campus Chief of Police
- Director of Emergency Management
- Title IX Coordinator
- VP of Student Services

In each interview, we asked the campus safety team to detail their policies and procedures relating to campus safety. Our four key areas of discussion included:

- Operating and Communication Structures
- Law Enforcement and Security Presence
- Incident Reporting and Response
- Hiring, Onboarding, and Training

Key Learnings | Within this baseline report, there are several key insights that need to be kept at the forefront as stakeholders consider future actions

RESOURCES

Campus police at each institution support bolder plans and want to do more, but resources are limited and often overburdened

CONTINGENT DESIRE FOR SYSTEM-WIDE STANDARDS

Many institutions would appreciate standardization across the system but caveated that those standards need to be supported with funding (e.g. standardized police officer pay, officers per 1000 students).

FEELING OVERBURDENED AND UNDERSTAFFED

Most institutions with campus police feel that they are understaffed and overburdened, and have difficulty recruiting officers due to the low pay. Adding more training, reporting requirements, or other requirements will result in less time interacting with and supporting students.

TRAINING

Campus police meet training requirements, but completion does not necessarily equate to effectiveness and discretion lends itself to inconsistencies

ROOM FOR TRAINING COORDINATION / PRIORITIZATION

While campus police officers are mandated to have 40 hours of training, the type of training provided is up to the discretion of the police chief. The quality and frequency of training can vary greatly.

D.E.I. A PRIORITY BUT A STRONGER, MORE UNIFIED VISION IS NEEDED

Most institutions are prioritizing diversity, equity, and inclusion, though each institution is going about it in a different way and campus safety is not always involved.

STUDENTS

Improving campus safety will require stakeholders to look beyond campus policing and understand the unique needs of students

STRONG NETWORKS REQUIRED ACROSS CAMPUS

In addition to campus policing, campus safety incorporates emergency management, mental and emotional health, victim advocacy, and equity and inclusion, which are all often managed in disparate departments.

PUTTING STUDENTS FIRST WITH VICTIM ADVOCACY

Campuses with internal victim advocates are better equipped to meet the unique needs of students – students face a wider array of challenges and more complexity than the general population when incidents occur, lending the need for resources to support victim advocacy.

Campus safety organizations have an appetite for some level of standardization from USHE to create more consistency in terms of resources and funding

USHE and the state have no guidance and requirements at the state level for campus safety and security...it's left up to the institution to decide what the priorities are and what the funding is.

Campus police at each institution support bolder plans and want to do more, but resources are limited and often overburdened

We all have a desire to improve...The issue is how do we obtain the funding that we need? We try to keep our campus safe, but we are underfunded.

Campus police meet training requirements, but completion does not necessarily equate to effectiveness and discretion lends itself to inconsistencies

“

The state requires a minimum of 40 hours, but I have complete flexibility [as the Chief of Police] to train how I want. Implicit bias [training] is my personal ethos, for example.

D.E.I is a priority across institutions, but a stronger, more unified vision is needed

“

With the civil unrest that we are dealing with, our team is working on building relationships and helping students to know that we are listening and supporting the student mission.

Improving campus safety will require stakeholders to look beyond campus policing and understand the unique needs of students

Yes, policing is the most impactful part of the public safety...but we can't use police to fix every problem. We want a mobile team with social workers and emergency medical response that can respond to a number of issues.

Campuses derive value from in-house victim advocacy solutions as a way to provide better experiences for students

“

We have an advocate in our office...our advocate has a better understanding of law enforcement, which helps create more trust and continuity across organizations.

Key Learnings | System-wide Vision and Requirements

	 CONTINGENT DESIRE FOR SYSTEM-WIDE STANDARDS	 FEELING OVERBURDENED AND UNDERSTAFFED
Learnings	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Institutions with campus police express frustration that the level of funding and support varies so widely across the different institutions.• Smaller technical colleges as well as rural universities express the desire for more professional development at the state level. Some leaders are still unsure of their specific responsibilities when it comes to Clery and Title IX.• There is a desire for some system-wide standards, but others are wary of unfunded mandates from the state.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Many institutions see hiring additional officers or increasing pay as top priorities for campus safety. A major concern for many police chiefs is turnover and the potential need to staff inexperienced officers on a college campus.• Campus police often feel overburdened, especially when it comes to juggling law enforcement with administrative responsibilities.• Even if they have the funding to hire additional officers, the low pay makes it very difficult to recruit high-quality officers, and, again, with the unique student needs, chiefs are hesitant to hire ‘fresh’ recruits.
Quotes	“There is no guidance on the state level; it’s left to the institution to define the funding. We need to create uniform USHE-wide standards. We have 0.3 officers per 1,000 students and the U has 1.5. We need a standard here.” “Another idea is having a USHE-wide police department. Then you have deputy chiefs on each campus that report up. I see where that could be viable but may not be the preference. If it results in more experience and quality, that is a good thing. Otherwise we just sit and battle to see who can pay the most.” “A standardized pay scale [for campus police] across the state would help.” “It would be nice if there were some professional development opportunities statewide.”	“I hope the message comes through that we value good officers who create safe environments...in order to preserve that we need to pay our officers more.” “We are severely understaffed. When it comes to safety...everyone wants safety, but nobody is willing to fund it. We try to keep our campus safe, but we are underfunded.” “[Recruiting officers] is a nightmare. I would like to see more uniformity in pay. We spend a lot of time recruiting. I don’t even get applications...it is either people I recruit or people that are fired.”

Key Learnings | Training Variety and Prioritization

	ROOM FOR ADDITIONAL TRAINING COORDINATION AND PRIORITIZATION	D.E.I. A PRIORITY BUT A STRONGER, MORE UNIFIED VISION IS NEEDED
Learnings	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Police officers are mandated to have 40 hours of training, but the types of training provided are decided by the chief of police.• Budgetary constraints also affect the types of training provided, especially for rural institutions that need to travel to Salt Lake City or out of state.• While some training is common across all institutions (e.g., firearms), more specialized training (e.g. racism and bias) is desired, but with the recognition that more training time equates to less time in the field with students.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Across most institutions, diversity and inclusion is being reviewed and discussed. Many even recognize that it is a priority and additional work needs to be done.• However, the level of coordination with public safety varies widely across the institutions. In some cases the department of public safety is an integral part of the diversity and inclusion committee, in other cases they have no involvement, and police officer training around racism and bias varies significantly.• Given the discussions, there is a need for a clearer, more established vision for what success looks like across the system.
Quotes	“Training is dependent on budget, which is small. We try to get as much specialized training as possible, but I think, for us, we would love to have money to send people to specialized trainings. Racism and bias would be fantastic. Having those trainings would be helpful.” “Caliber Press is a leading trainer; we had them come to campus several weeks ago to help us with implicit bias and community integration training.” “40 hours is the bare minimum. I want them to get close to 100 to 200 hours in a year.” “Financial burden is high; we use online resources to meet needs. Specific training for officers is minimal and it costs a lot of money.”	“We cover diversity and equity [in our training] a lot. We met with the Black Lives Matter group on campus and everything that was asked was already being done. We just focused on showing students what we train on.” “Our officers get some [racism and bias] training as a part of that 40 hours. There is a video training. We can and/or will get this.” “I was just made the Diversity Coordinator...it’s brand new for me and for the college. No training or initiatives have been set up for that until now.” “We have one diversity and inclusion coordinator. She reports to the VP of student services. We have an annual diversity training.”

Key Learnings | Strong Networks and Victim Advocacy

	 STRONG NETWORKS REQUIRED ACROSS CAMPUS	 PUTTING STUDENTS FIRST WITH VICTIM ADVOCACY
Learnings	<ul style="list-style-type: none">On campuses, it is recognized that campus safety is more than law enforcement; it encompasses emergency and risk management, security, mental and emotional wellbeing, diversity and inclusion, and general community-building.In order to facilitate this coordination, many institutions have a committee (often called BIT or CARE team) with various stakeholders across the institution, and any potential improvements or recommendations for campus security need to incorporate the fact that each function is in a disparate departments.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Students have unique needs relative to the general population, and they have additional considerations when reporting incidents due to Clery Act and Title IX – navigating this is difficult (socially, mentally, and from a system complexity standpoint).Because of this, timely access to campus-based victim advocates can really benefit students.At nearly every institution, campus police look to meet these needs by placing an emphasis on being in the community and getting to know the students (the extent to which this happens is not currently known, and is a clear next step for additional research)
Quotes	“Yes, policing is the most impactful part of public safety. But there is also emergency management, security, and community work that all supports the larger puzzle. We can’t use police to fix every problem.” “I think it is important that culturally we create a sense of safety. We need to create a culture where if there is something going on, our community knows where to report.” “We [as campus police] engage in any type of event we are invited to. Black lives matter, defunding discussions...we are invited to almost weekly activities.”	“Victim advocates will stay with the person through different parts of the journey, no matter where they go department wise....Having a victim advocate in house is very helpful; she knows people and helps us stay connected.” “We provide crisis response and victim advocacy 24/7. We are mobile victim advocates; we go where they are.” “We’re looking to get an office manager hired that can help with victim advocacy. Right now we get them in touch with victim advocates in the community, but we’re not sure what happens after that. I want [a victim advocate] in my office for that reason.”

Key Learnings | External Perspectives | Students and Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Leaders

Topics		Key Findings	Example Quotes
1	Perceptions of Campus Police	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Campus police is preferred to municipal police; negative feelings towards law enforcement are towards police in general, not necessarily the campus police specifically There is always a need for more personalized relationships with police officers and increased feelings of trust Desire for more community integration from the police (as civilians, instead of as officers) 	"Students understanding that they might be responded to by municipal police instead of campus police may effect how likely they are to call in." "Majority of international students like campus police because they help to explain US law and that is helpful" "I do have concerns about city police more than campus police. Feel like there is some racial profiling of athletes" "[Community events] doesn't mean being at an event in uniform with guns...it is having officers do things in normal clothes to build relations"
2	Campus Safety Resources	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Student leaders are relatively aware of resources and relevant departments, but the average student likely is not aware of resources on campus, how to contact the police, etc. 	"Especially lately with the discussion on race; students don't know where to go and how to fix it" "Most people know that [campus resources] exist, but not the details"
3	Feelings of Safety	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Certain student groups (BIPOC, women, LGBTQ+) may feel less safe on campus Feelings of safety seem to differ by institution, with unique challenges being faced on different campuses with different geographical layouts There are different levels of safety worth considering based on relationships: student vs. institution, student vs. students, student vs. staff, staff vs. leadership, etc. 	"We have gathered a bunch of stories from women or students of color...there are concerns about not being taken seriously or things getting done" "I would say that when students need help and need to go to police...but they are entering into a police office and see a blue lives matter flag...it's difficult to even approach the officer for help"
4	Being Heard	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Students struggle to feel heard when desired actions are not taken – leadership may "listen" but doesn't take action Barriers exist to students being heard such as communication fall off in middle management, trust issues, experiences of hate or profiling, etc. 	"Sometimes there is a disconnect between being heard and having the action that you want" "Sometimes middle level management is the barrier...stuff gets stuck there and not filtered up."

Key Learnings | External Perspectives | Higher Education Best Practices

1

ELEVATING DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY TO THE CABINET

Many campus safety departments report through business affairs rather than directly to the president; how deep within the organization the department lives can be indicative of its relative importance

2

MOVING CLERY ACT OUT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY

As long as the Clery Act lives in the department of public safety, it will be treated like a police issue; in reality, the Clery Act requires involvement from a number of different departments

3

UNIQUE LEADERSHIP REQUIREMENTS FOR HEAD OF PUBLIC SAFETY

Leaders must be able to navigate complex organizations and build relationships with stakeholders across multiple departments; the traditional skillset of a Chief of Police may not be fit for this role

4

STANDARDIZING CAMPUS SAFETY ACROSS THE SYSTEM

Many university systems (e.g., UT System) have system-wide leadership, policies, trainings, reporting procedures, meetings, etc.

Key Learnings | Immediate Next Steps (1 of 2)

1

Improve Collaboration Across USHE Institutions

- Outcome: Elevate the ongoing coordination of public safety activities and resources across all sixteen institutions similar to other system affiliate groups. Utilize this group as a primary voice in addressing campus safety policy issues
- Potential Approach: Commissioner's Office can leverage resources and expertise systemwide on behalf of the Board under the leadership of the state's flagship institution by formalizing a shared contract with its Chief Safety Office similar to the Chief Information Officer who commits a percentage of time to the Board

Conduct System-wide, Comprehensive Evaluation of Student Perceptions

- Outcome: Clear understanding of student perceptions of campus safety at each institution, including awareness of campus security resources, accessibility of resources, and perceived effectiveness of resources (including resources for mental/emotional safety), to ensure student voices are incorporated into any future campus security initiatives
- Potential Approach: Qualitative and/or quantitative research with students at each institution, emphasizing key student populations such as BIPOC, LGBTQ, DREAMers, and others, and utilizing this report as a foundation and testing what is perceived as happening vs. what is described as happening

3

Develop USHE Unifying Vision and Mission of Campus Security & Safety

- Outcome: A substantive vision for all that should be incorporated into “Campus Safety” that will be used as a foundation to improve consistency across each institution, expand the definition of campus safety and security to more appropriately reflect the broader needs of students, and provide a guiding light for future training priorities, resource allocation, and other strategic initiatives
- Potential Approach: USHE and its Board of Higher Education leverage internal resources and work with institution leadership to draft, revise, and finalize a vision and mission statement, as well as a set of standardized priorities

Incorporate Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion in the System-wide Vision

- Outcome: The ability to lead out on key diversity, equity, and inclusion topics that are prevalent across today’s college campuses and be known for strongly prioritizing and allocating resources to issues that deeply matter some of the most vulnerable students at each campus
- Potential Approach: Utilize the committee of diversity, equity, and inclusion experts from each institution to not only listen but take action on the needs of vulnerable student populations, and by clearly incorporating the needs of these students into the Campus Security Unifying Vision and Mission

Org Structure – Key Learnings

NEWLY FORMED DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY

With the hiring of a chief security officer, the U flattened its org structure into different operational verticals including campus police, campus security, compliance, emergency management, and community services ; many of these operational divisions are led by brand new leadership

CLERY AND TITLE IX ARE SEPARATED

The Clery Act and Title IX live in different departments; the Clery Act lives under the director of campus security while Title IX lives in the Office of Equal Opportunity (OEO)

INTENTIONAL FOCUS ON STUDENT AND UNIVERSITY INVOLVEMENT

A variety of different committees at the University of Utah have been created to cover topics from title IX to incident review; these provides opportunities for a variety of university departments and student voices to be heard

NARROWER POLICE ORG FOCUS

Campus police is now part of a larger ecosystem instead of the primary operational authority, which enables this operational division to put increased effort into community relations, officer training, etc.

Reporting & Incidence Response – Key Learnings

GEOGRAPHIC JURISDICTION IS FIRST LENS OF RESPONSE

All 911 calls are directed to the SLCPD dispatch center. If the incident is within the jurisdiction of campus police, the call is then routed to the University of Utah dispatch center. Campus police, campus security, and/or municipal police will then respond to the incident based on the level of threat and emergency.

CAMPUS POLICE SUPPORTS MUNICIPAL POLICE

Even when a crime is committed outside of their geographic jurisdiction but involves students, campus police may respond instead of or alongside municipal police if appropriate. This is primarily because non-emergency situations may be a low priority for municipal police, whereas campus police can respond promptly.

INTEGRATED SYSTEM OF EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT

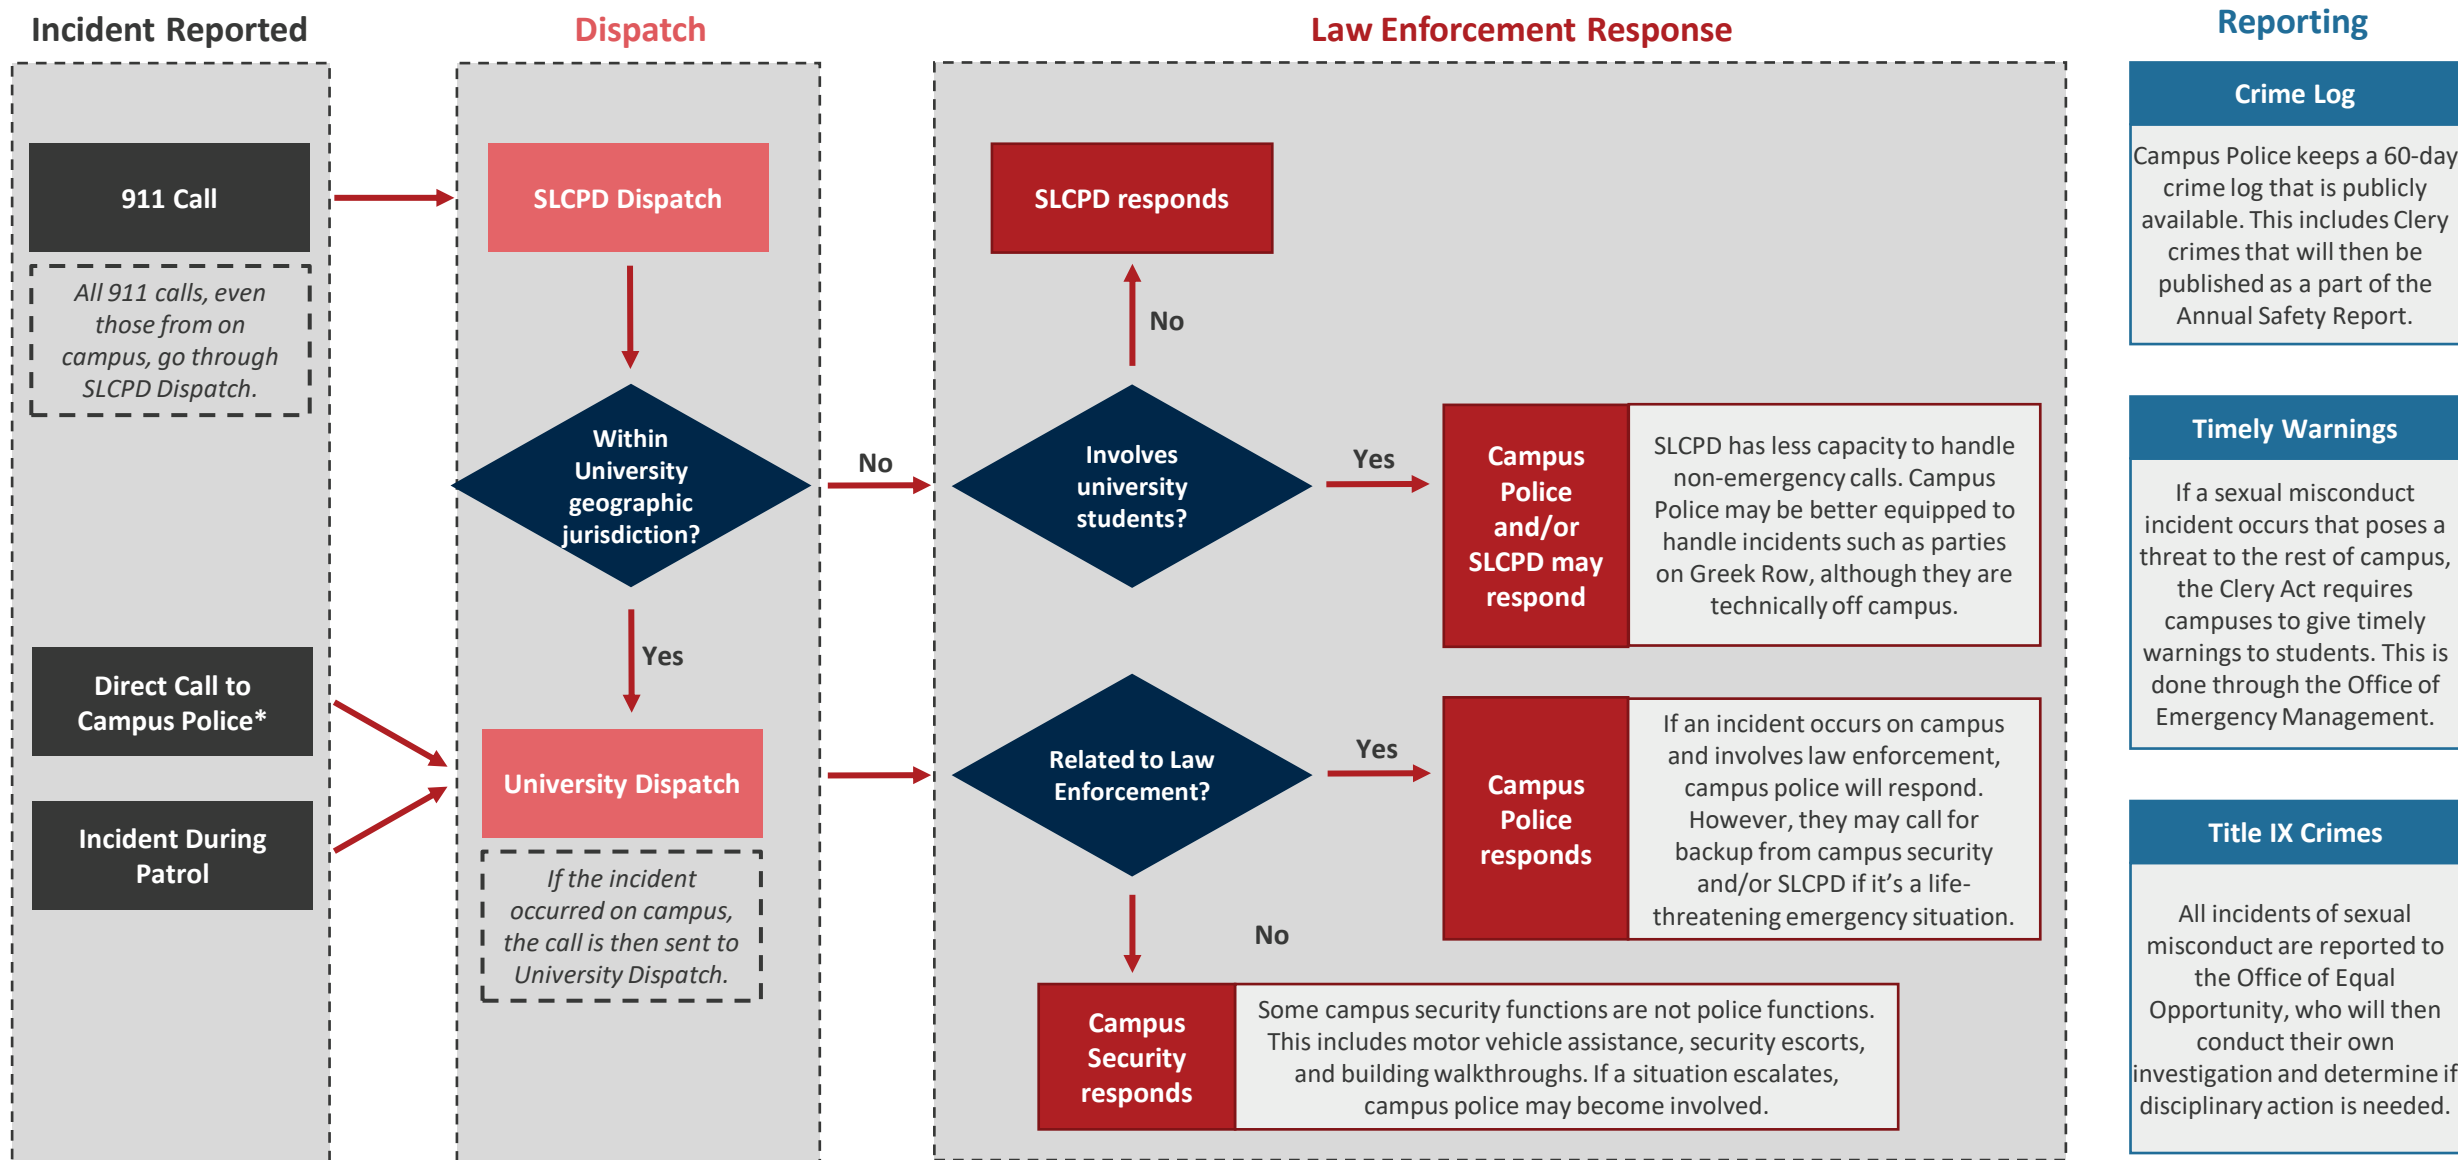

The Office of Emergency Management manages the University dispatch center, a coordination center, operations, finance, and coordinate timely warnings. They are constantly at a Level 3 state of emergency, which consists of constant monitoring, but no need for additional resources.

OFFICE OF EQUAL OPPORTUNITY INVESTIGATES TITLE IX CRIMES

Under university policy, most University employees are required to report situations involving sexual misconduct and discrimination to the Office of Equal Opportunity (OEO). OEO will conduct its own investigation, while the victim can decide whether they want to pursue criminal justice through the campus police.

Reporting & Incidence Response – Process Map

Office of Emergency Management

Overarching Objective: resources, coordination, managing the oversight of crisis

Communications Center

- Taking a current police dispatch center and growing it into a communications center; campus and hospital will be merging into one
- Realigning campus radio system from several disparate radio platforms to one single platform to improve communication across campus
- Technology developments are underway with next gen 911 and computerized dispatch and record management systems
- Have dedicated coordination center (housed in school of Law) that monitors social media, national news, global feeds, etc.

Emergency Management

- Have 3 levels of activation (Level 1, Level 2, and Level 3) that are used when responding to all types of emergencies
- Operationalize responses with Level 1 and level 2 situations by bringing in additional assistance through specialized units and coordinated strike teams
- Individuals across many departments (law enforcement, housing, facilities, etc.) are involved with emergency management efforts
- Regularly report back to president on how missions are operationalizing

Travel Safety

- Currently developing strategy and vision for this part of department, but an official plan still needs to be written up
- Give resources to individuals that are traveling in times of crisis with natural disaster or terrorist related (e.g., returning home during COVID pandemic)
- Work regularly with Global Travel department as a strike team and a partner

Reporting & Incidence Response – Title IX Crimes

When a Title IX crime is committed, the victim has the opportunity to pursue three primary areas for support: (1) Campus Police, (2) Office of Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action, (3) Victim-Survivor Advocates. The victim decides who they want to talk to, what they would like to discuss, and what actions they would like to take.

Campus Police

- If the victim decides to press charges, campus police will work with the local authorities to conduct a criminal investigation.
- As a part of that investigation, campus police is required to share all pertinent information with the Title IX office.
- However, Title IX is not required to share information they gather with campus police. For this reason, campus police may need to conduct separate interviews.

Office of Equal Opportunity

- The Office of Equal Opportunity employs 6 investigators who investigate discrimination complaints from students.
- OEO investigations determine whether a student needs to be disciplined from the university perspective (e.g. suspended, expelled, given a warning).
- OEO is a neutral, fact-finding office that conducts its own investigation, even if a criminal investigation is also being conducted.

Victim-Survivor Advocates

- Whether or not the victim decides to press charges or pursue disciplinary action, support services are provided by the Center for Student Wellness.
- The Center for Student Wellness staffs 5 Victim-Survivor Advocates that provide free, confidential and trauma-informed support services to student, faculty, and staff who have experienced interpersonal violence.
- These advocates provide support for the victim, allowing OEO to remain a neutral role.

Hiring / Onboarding / Training – Key Learnings

REVAMPED AND TARGETED TRAINING

The University has focused efforts and money on an updated training curriculum that utilizes external experts, focuses on scenario-based training, and covers topics such as implicit bias and community integration

FLEXIBILITY AND AUTONOMY OVER CONTENT

A high degree of flexibility and autonomy exists in determining the training schedule for police officers and the topics to be covered; as a result, the U is taking a proactive approach to developing its training

INCREASED EFFORTS TO HIRE DIVERSITY

The U has focused on, and seen success in, hiring diverse candidates; efforts include targeting organizations such as the National Association of Woman Law Enforcement Executives, the Hispanic Association of Police Command Officers, and the National Organization of Black Law Enforcement

HIGH LEVEL OF TURNOVER

Over 50% of police officers have turned over in the 18 months; similar turnover is happening with campus security, but hiring efforts have been challenged by perceptions towards policing in general and low pay

KEY INITIATIVES

Title IX Compliance: Due to internal and external reviews, USU began a series of sweeping changes to improve prevention of and response to sexual misconduct, including required student and employee training, as well as a revision to sexual misconduct policy and procedures.

Collaboration with Other Institutions: USU actively coordinates with other Utah institutions to learn about their campus safety initiatives, and frequently incorporates their learnings into their day-to-day practice

LEADERSHIP

- Earl Morris – Director of Public Safety / Chief of Police
- Kent Harris – Police Captain
- Alison Adams-Perlac – Director of Office of Equity
- Mica McKinney – VP General Affairs, Legal Counsel

Org Structure – Key Learnings

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY DOES NOT REPORT DIRECTLY TO THE PRESIDENT

USU's head of department safety reports through the VP of Business and Finance, who then reports to the University president

OTHER CAMPUSES REGULARLY INTERACT WITH LEADERSHIP

USU is a multi-campus university and all campus safety personnel at each campus reports up through the police captain in Logan

THE MAJORITY OF CROSS-ORGANIZATION INTERACTION IS INFORMAL

While a few official committees exist (e.g., Behavior Intervention Team) the majority of cross-organizational interaction takes place on ad hoc basis as needs arise

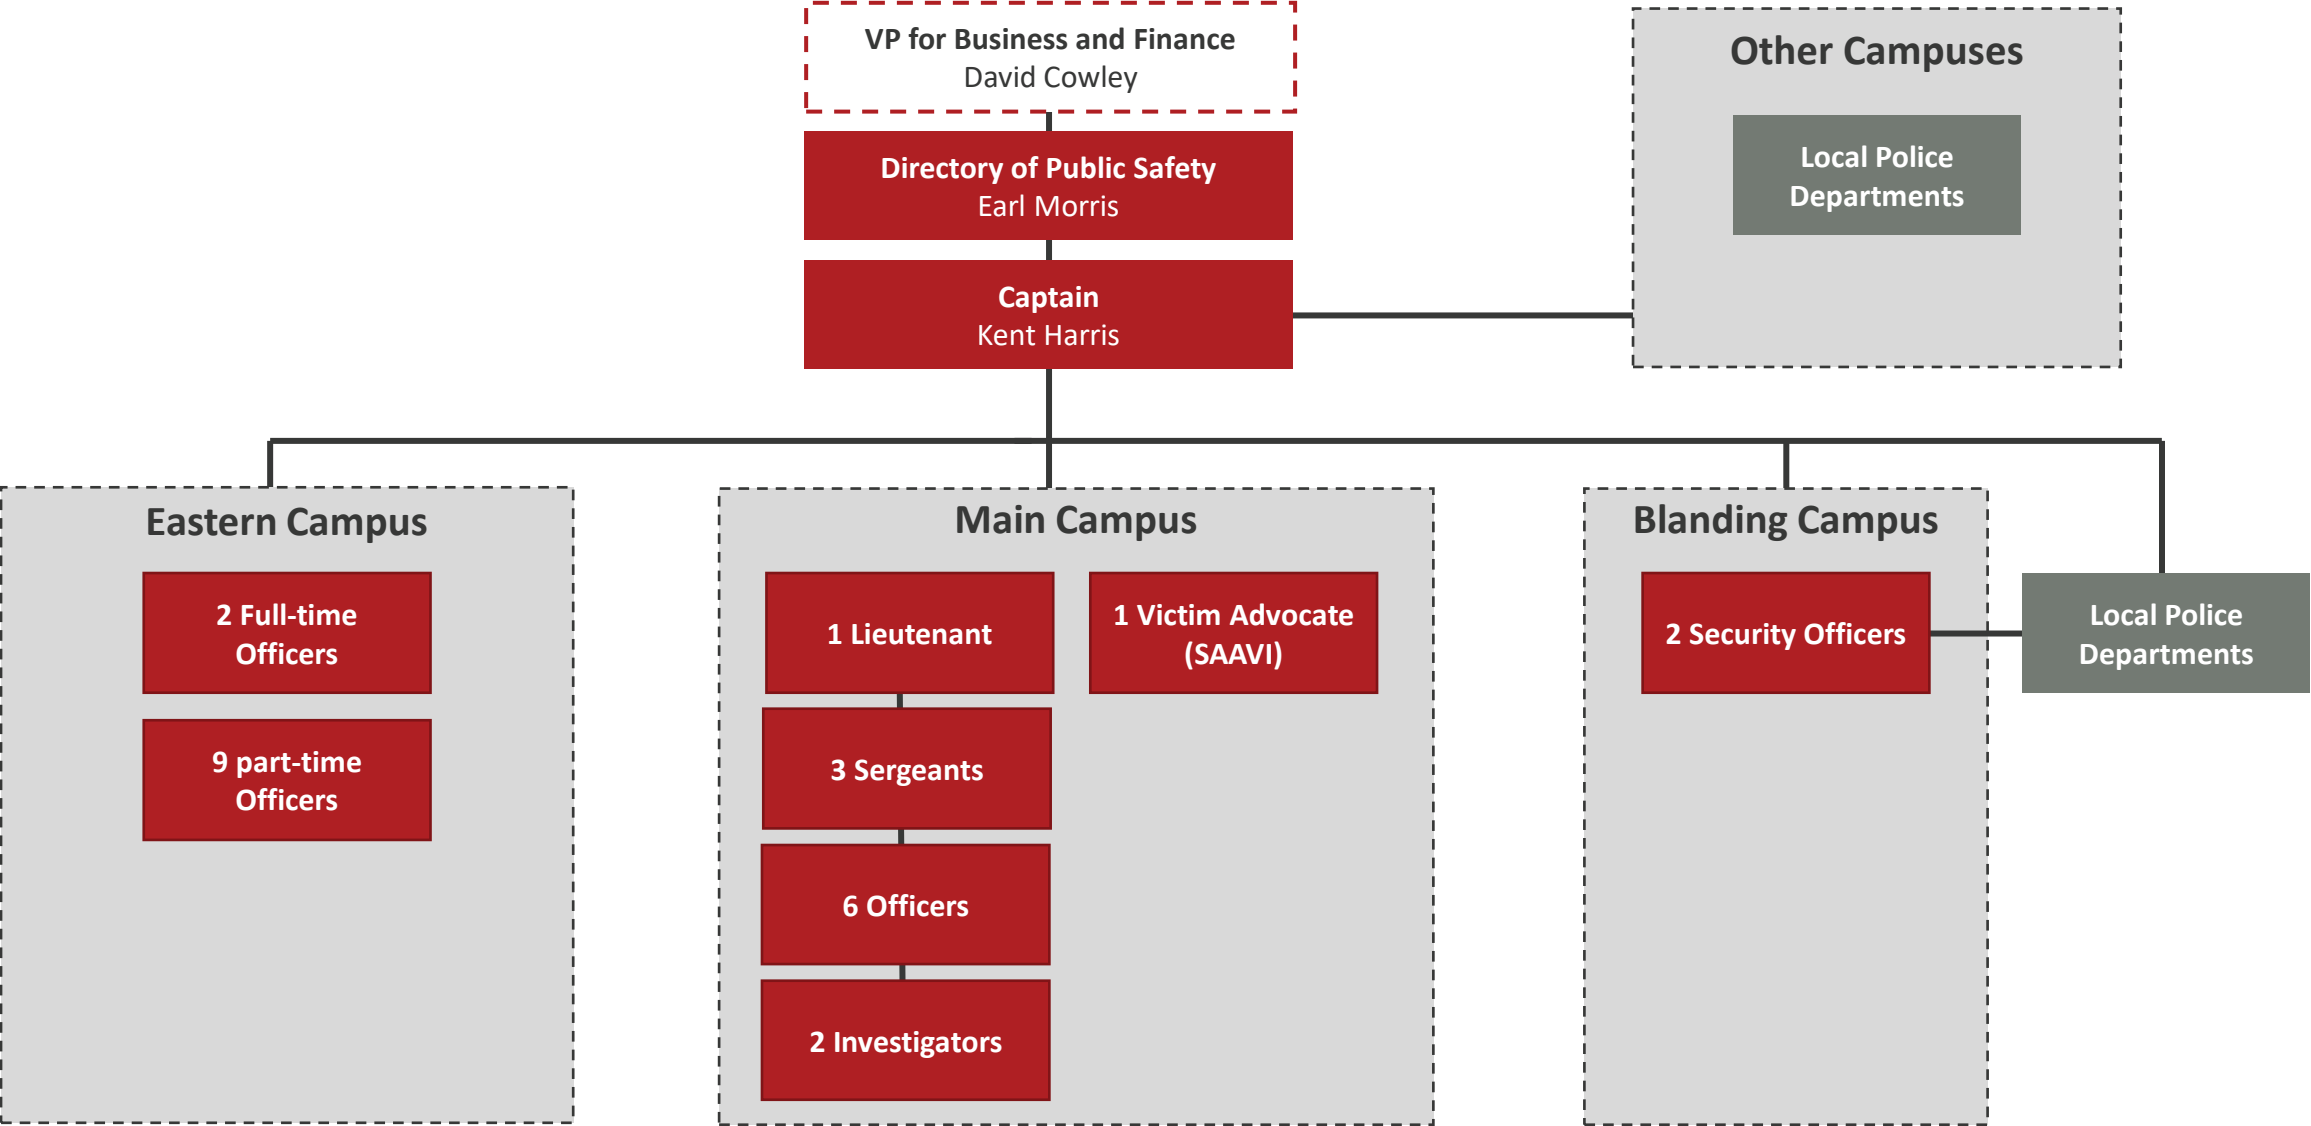

POLICE STAFFING CONSTRAINTS EXIST

Limited police resources leaves the organization very reliant on municipal police for support when needed, which can include multiple local agencies per campus

- Compliance office for handling issues of discrimination and sexual misconduct
- Information about reporting options
- Prevention education for students and employees
- Provide supportive measures (these do not require reporting, but include changes to living situations, no contact order, referrals to other resources)

Reporting & Incidence Response – Key Learnings

VICTIM ADVOCATE SUPPORT COMES FROM SAAVI AND THE DPS

The Sexual Assault and Anti-Violence Information Team has a number of victim advocates who provide 24/7 response; one of these victim advocates sits within the Department of Public Safety and bridges these two organizations

DEEP AND ACTIVE RELATIONSHIP WITH MUNICIPAL POLICE

Larger incidents typically require expertise and staffing outside of USU's capacity; multiple departments regularly work together to help each other regardless of jurisdiction

CONSISTENT REPORTING SYSTEM ACROSS USU AND LOCAL AGENCIES

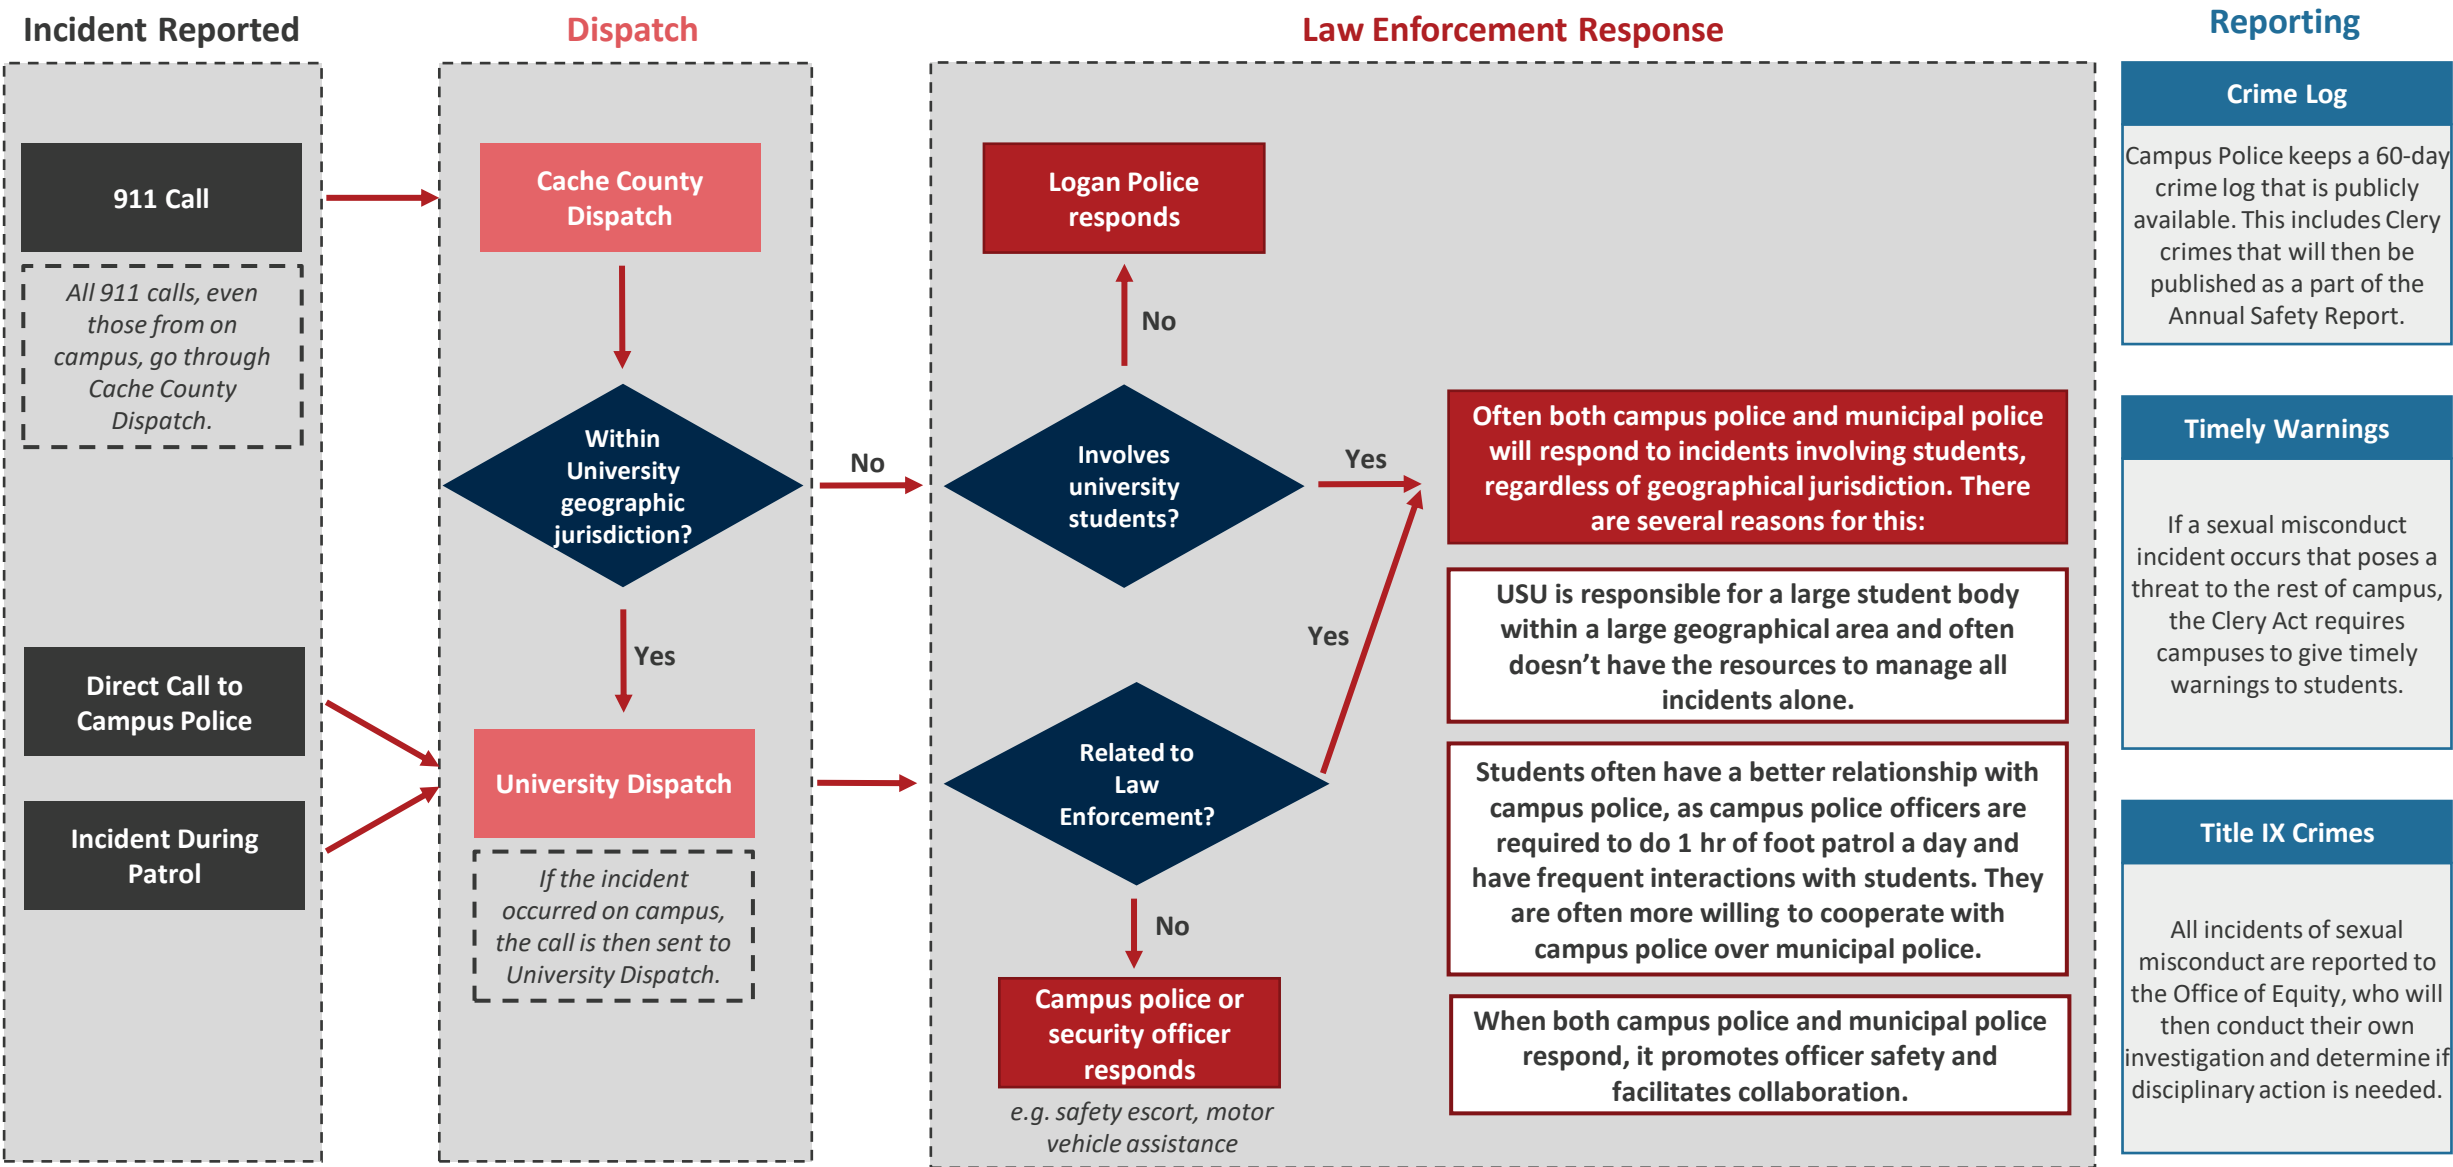

Reporting system that shows cases and jurisdiction is consistent and shared across local police departments as well; this aids in transparency and communication as different agencies work together to respond to incidents

USU MUST BE PROACTIVE WITH EXPERTISE SURROUNDING TITLE IX AND CLERY

Local police department lack awareness and training surrounding Title IX and Clery; as a result, USU takes additional time talking and communicating with victims to build relationships of trust and share campus resources (e.g., SAAVI)

Reporting & Incidence Response – Process Map

Hiring / Onboarding / Training – Key Learnings

REQUIRED SEXUAL MISCONDUCT PREVENTION TRAINING FOR STUDENTS

As a part of a resolution agreement from an investigation conducted by the DOJ, USU has committed to provide mandatory in-person training regarding sexual misconduct prevention for all incoming students attending a residential campus, as well as required annual online training for all undergraduate and graduate students.

MONTHLY DEPARTMENT-WIDE TRAINING

DPS includes training as a part of their monthly staff meetings. This training covers a wide variety of topics, including lethality assessments, stop-the-bleed training, reviewing the state database system, etc.

ANNUAL CAMPUS SECURITY AUTHORITY (CSA) TRAINING

DPS conducts an annual broadcast for CSA's at all USU centers to explain their role and responsibilities. They have also made a goal to do visit each center to provide individual training as well.

SECURITY OFFICERS ARE PRIMARILY STUDENTS

As the majority of security officers are students who are looking to enter law enforcement, DPS has developed a specific security officer training. However, they also attend the monthly trainings at staff meetings.

KEY INITIATIVES

In-house Victim Advocate: UVU recently hired a victim advocate within the police department, which has provided very valuable support

Hiring of Police Officers: UVU faces significant staffing challenges within the police department due to low wages relative to other departments

New Complaint Software: A new software for fielding student complaints is creating a more seamless solution to field and distribute complaints to their appropriate department

LEADERSHIP

- Matthew Pedersen – Chief of Police and Director of Public Safety
- Ashley Larsen – Associate Dean of Students
- Robin Ebmeyer – Director of Emergency Management
- Laura Carlson– Title IX Coordinator

Org Structure – Key Learnings

IN-HOUSE CAMPUS POLICE AND DISPATCH SERVICES

UVU has a dedicated campus police force and dispatch to serve students across campus; there is no on-campus security officer presence, so police serve this role as well

CLERY AND TITLE IX LIVE IN SEPARATE DEPARTMENTS

Title IX responsibility lives in the Office of Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action while Clery lives in the Department of Public Safety under the chief of police; both departments have separate reporting lines to the president

BEHAVIORAL ASSESSMENT TEAM (BAT)

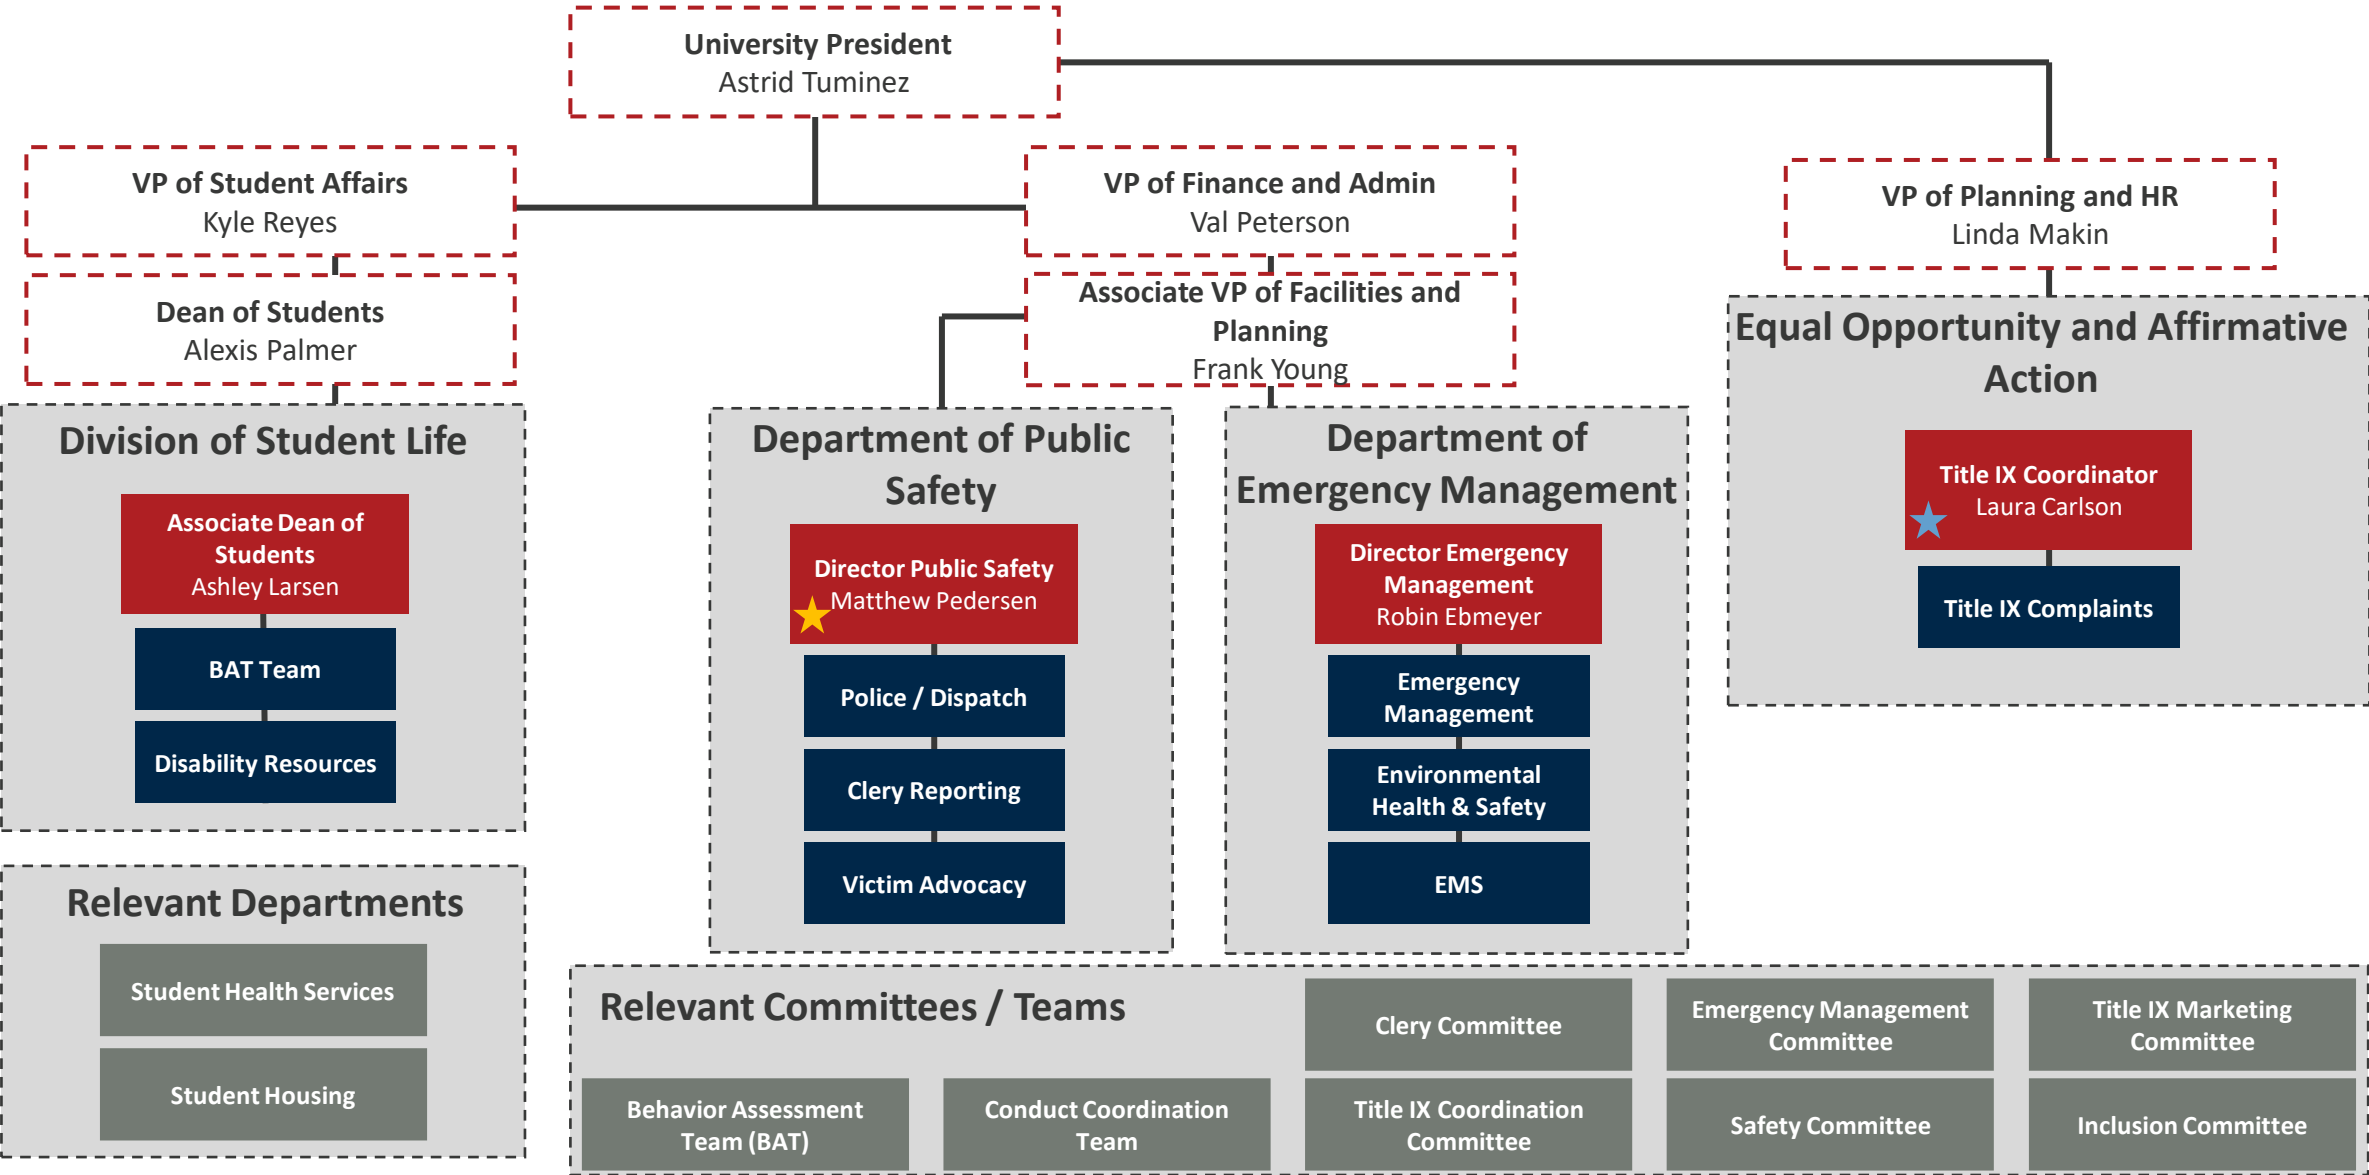

14-member team meets weekly for 90 minutes to discuss and coordinate resources to support, prevent, and intervene with situations involving student distress or other harmful/disruptive behaviors

EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT IS SEPARATE FROM THE DPS

Emergency management responsibilities have a distinct office that falls outside of the campus police chief's responsibilities and reports directly to the VP of Facilities Management

- 2 full-time investigators provide investigative support for evaluating all cases

Reporting & Incidence Response – Key Learnings

FULL-TIME VICTIM ADVOCATE WITHIN THE POLICE DEPARTMENT

UVU recently hired a full-time victim advocate within the police department who provides 24/7 services and meets regularly with other victim advocates within the university; UVU has seen immense value in having this resource internally

HAVE TEAM OF CRISIS THERAPISTS FOR IMMEDIATE MENTAL HEALTH ASSISTANCE

UVU's crisis services is a specific branch of the Student Health Services that provides 24/7 assistance to students experiencing a mental health crisis; police, Title IX, and victim advocacy work with this group when needed

DISPATCH IS VIRTUALLY CONSOLIDATED WITH OREM POLICE DEPARTMENT

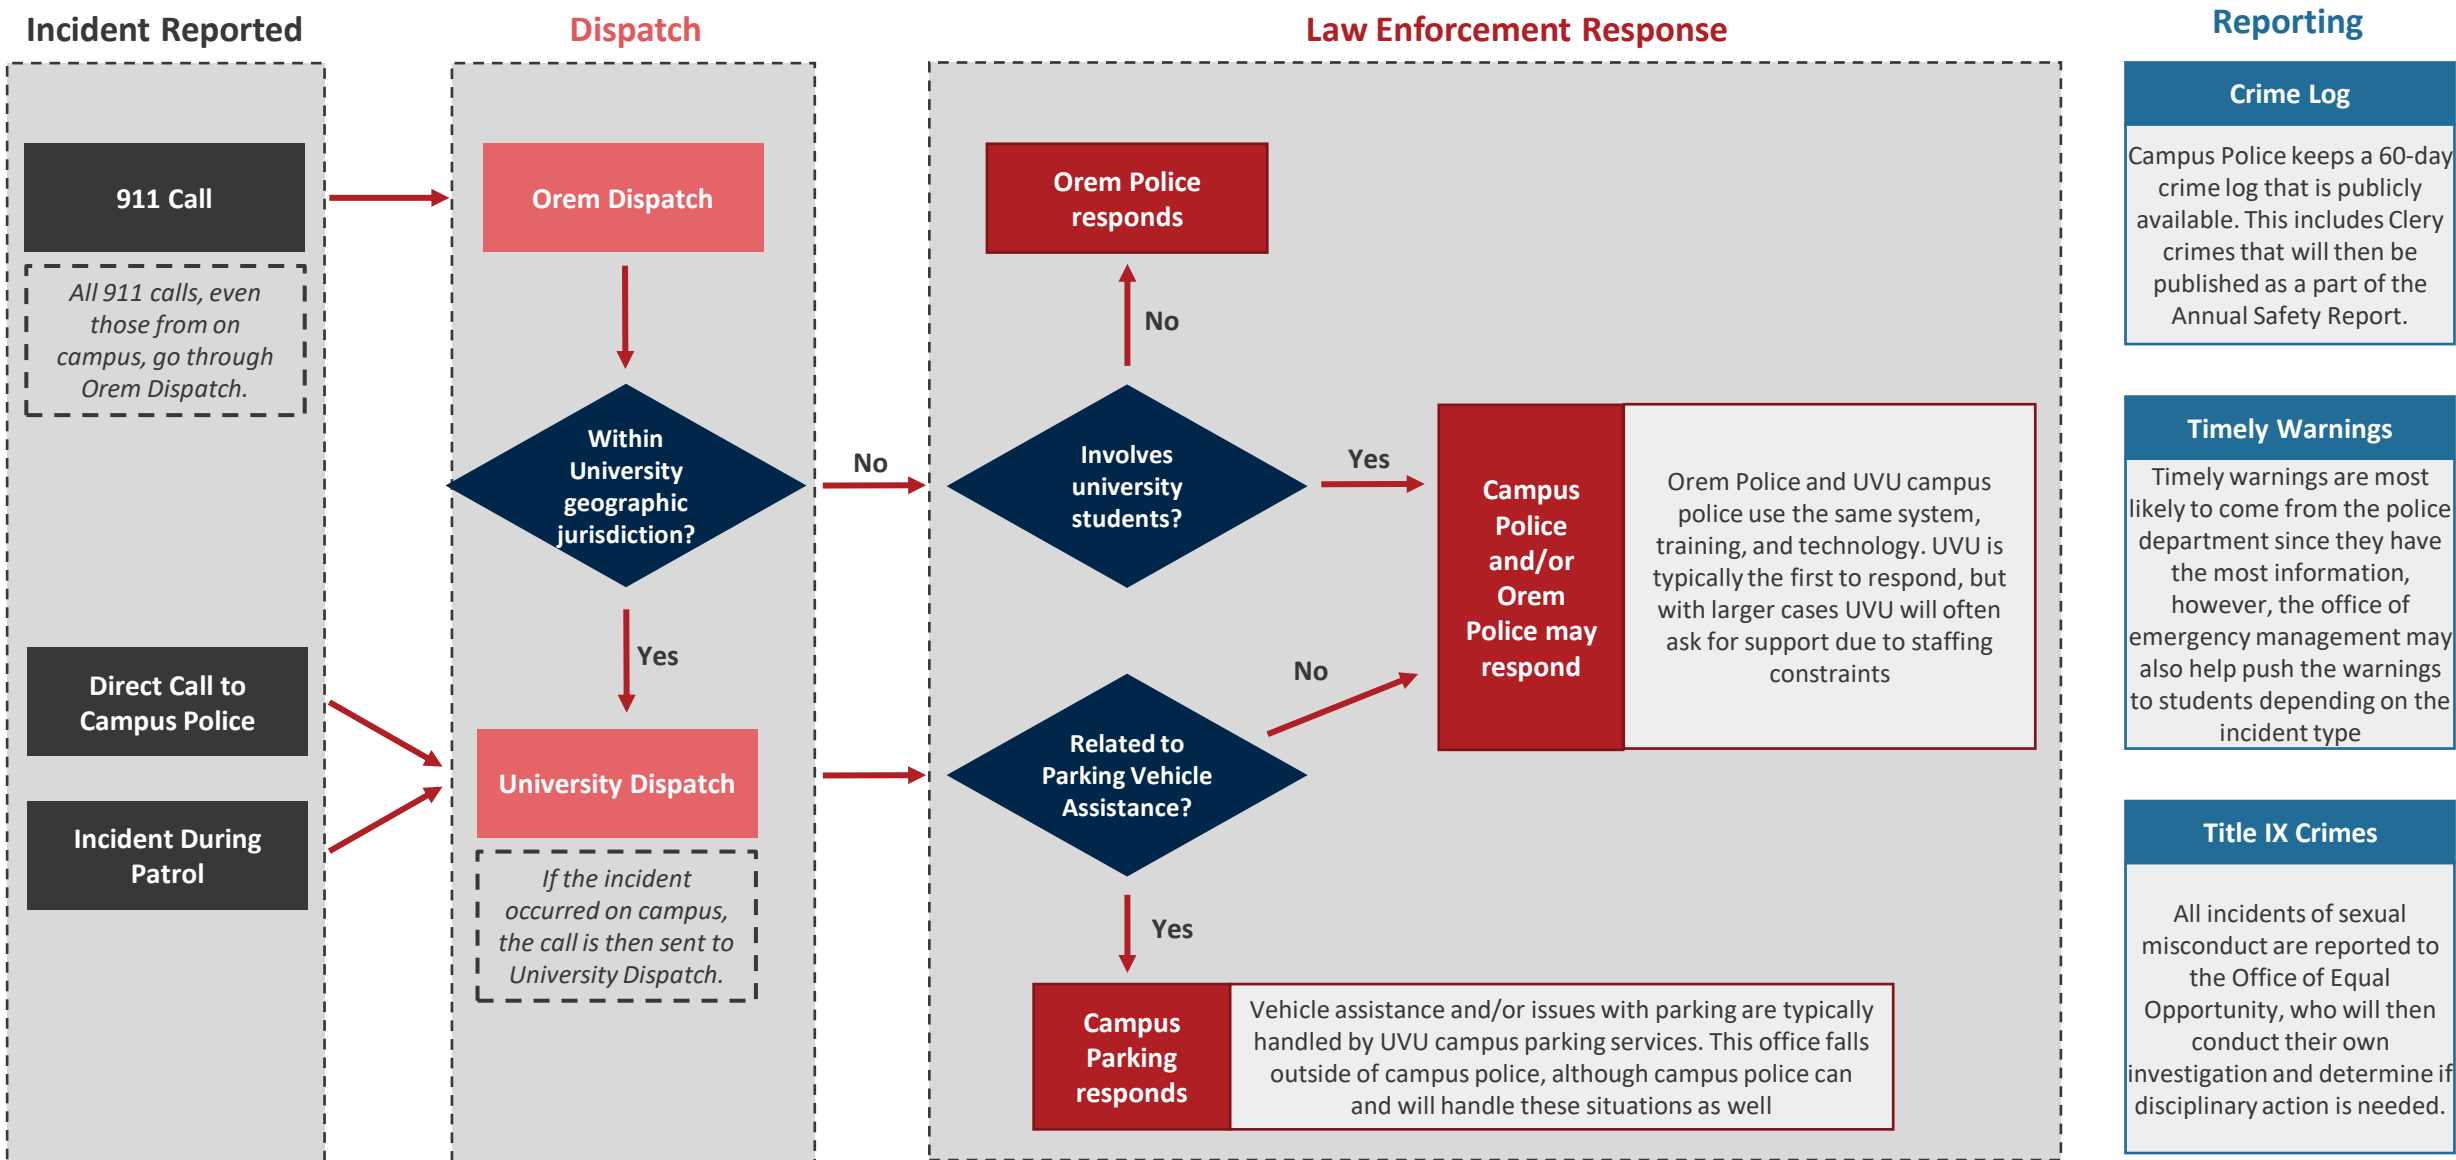

UVU works closely with the local municipal police authority, Orem Police Department, and shares dispatch software, screens, radio, etc. with the agency to provide increased transparency and ease of communication when handling different cases

NEW ANONYMOUS REPORTING SOFTWARE

UVU is shifting to a new anonymous reporting system for student complaints/reports that seamlessly connects the student to the relevant department

Reporting & Incidence Response – Process Map

Hiring / Onboarding / Training – Key Learnings

FOCUS ON HIRING EXPERIENCED POLICE OFFICERS WITH CERTAIN CHARACTERISTICS

Over the past 3 years, hiring focus has shifted from hiring new officers from the academy to hiring more experienced police officers who have children attending UVU and have retirement money coming in; this has drastically improved the relationship between students and officers

DIFFICULT TO HIRE NEW POLICE OFFICERS GIVEN WAGE DISPARITY

UVU police officers make significantly less than other municipal positions, making it difficult to hire and retain talent. Generally only more seasoned officers with children attending UVU are willing to accept the position

POLICE TRAINING INCLUDES A WIDE VARIETY OF IN-DEMAND TOPICS

Police officers have pre-determined trainings covering topics that have been vetted with the university's diversity and inclusion office. After meeting with groups on campus, university police found that they were already providing requested trainings surrounding racism and bias

POLICE DEPARTMENT PROVIDE PRESENTATIONS TO STUDENT CLASSES

Several times per year, the police department provides in-class visits across campus, and where invited, to present to students and build relationships

KEY INITIATIVES

New Department of Public Safety Org Structure: Weber State created a new Director of Public Safety role to separate certain responsibilities from the Chief of Police

Updated Sexual Assault Training: The Department of Public Safety helps fund a victim advocacy position at the women’s center that will be responsible for creating new sexual assault training for students and staff

Lobbying for Additional Funding: Weber State would like additional funding for a dedicated Clery officer, emergency management support, recruiting efforts, etc.

LEADERSHIP

- Dane LeBlanc – Director of Public Safety
- Seth Cawley – Chief of Police
- Michael Davies – Emergency Management
- Barry Gomberg – Title IX Coordinator

Org Structure – Key Learnings

RESTRUCTURED DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY

Weber State recently reorganized its Department of Public Safety by making its Chief of Police the new Director of Public Safety; the reorganization was inspired by the University of Utah and gives the Chief of Police a more dedicated focus on policing

CLERY RESPONSIBILITY RESIDES IN POLICE DEPARTMENT

Weber State's Chief of Police is a certified Clery Compliance Officer and handles Clery responsibilities for the university; a Clery committee exists to provide support and coordination across campus

DUAL TEAM APPROACH TO BEHAVIORAL INTERVENTION

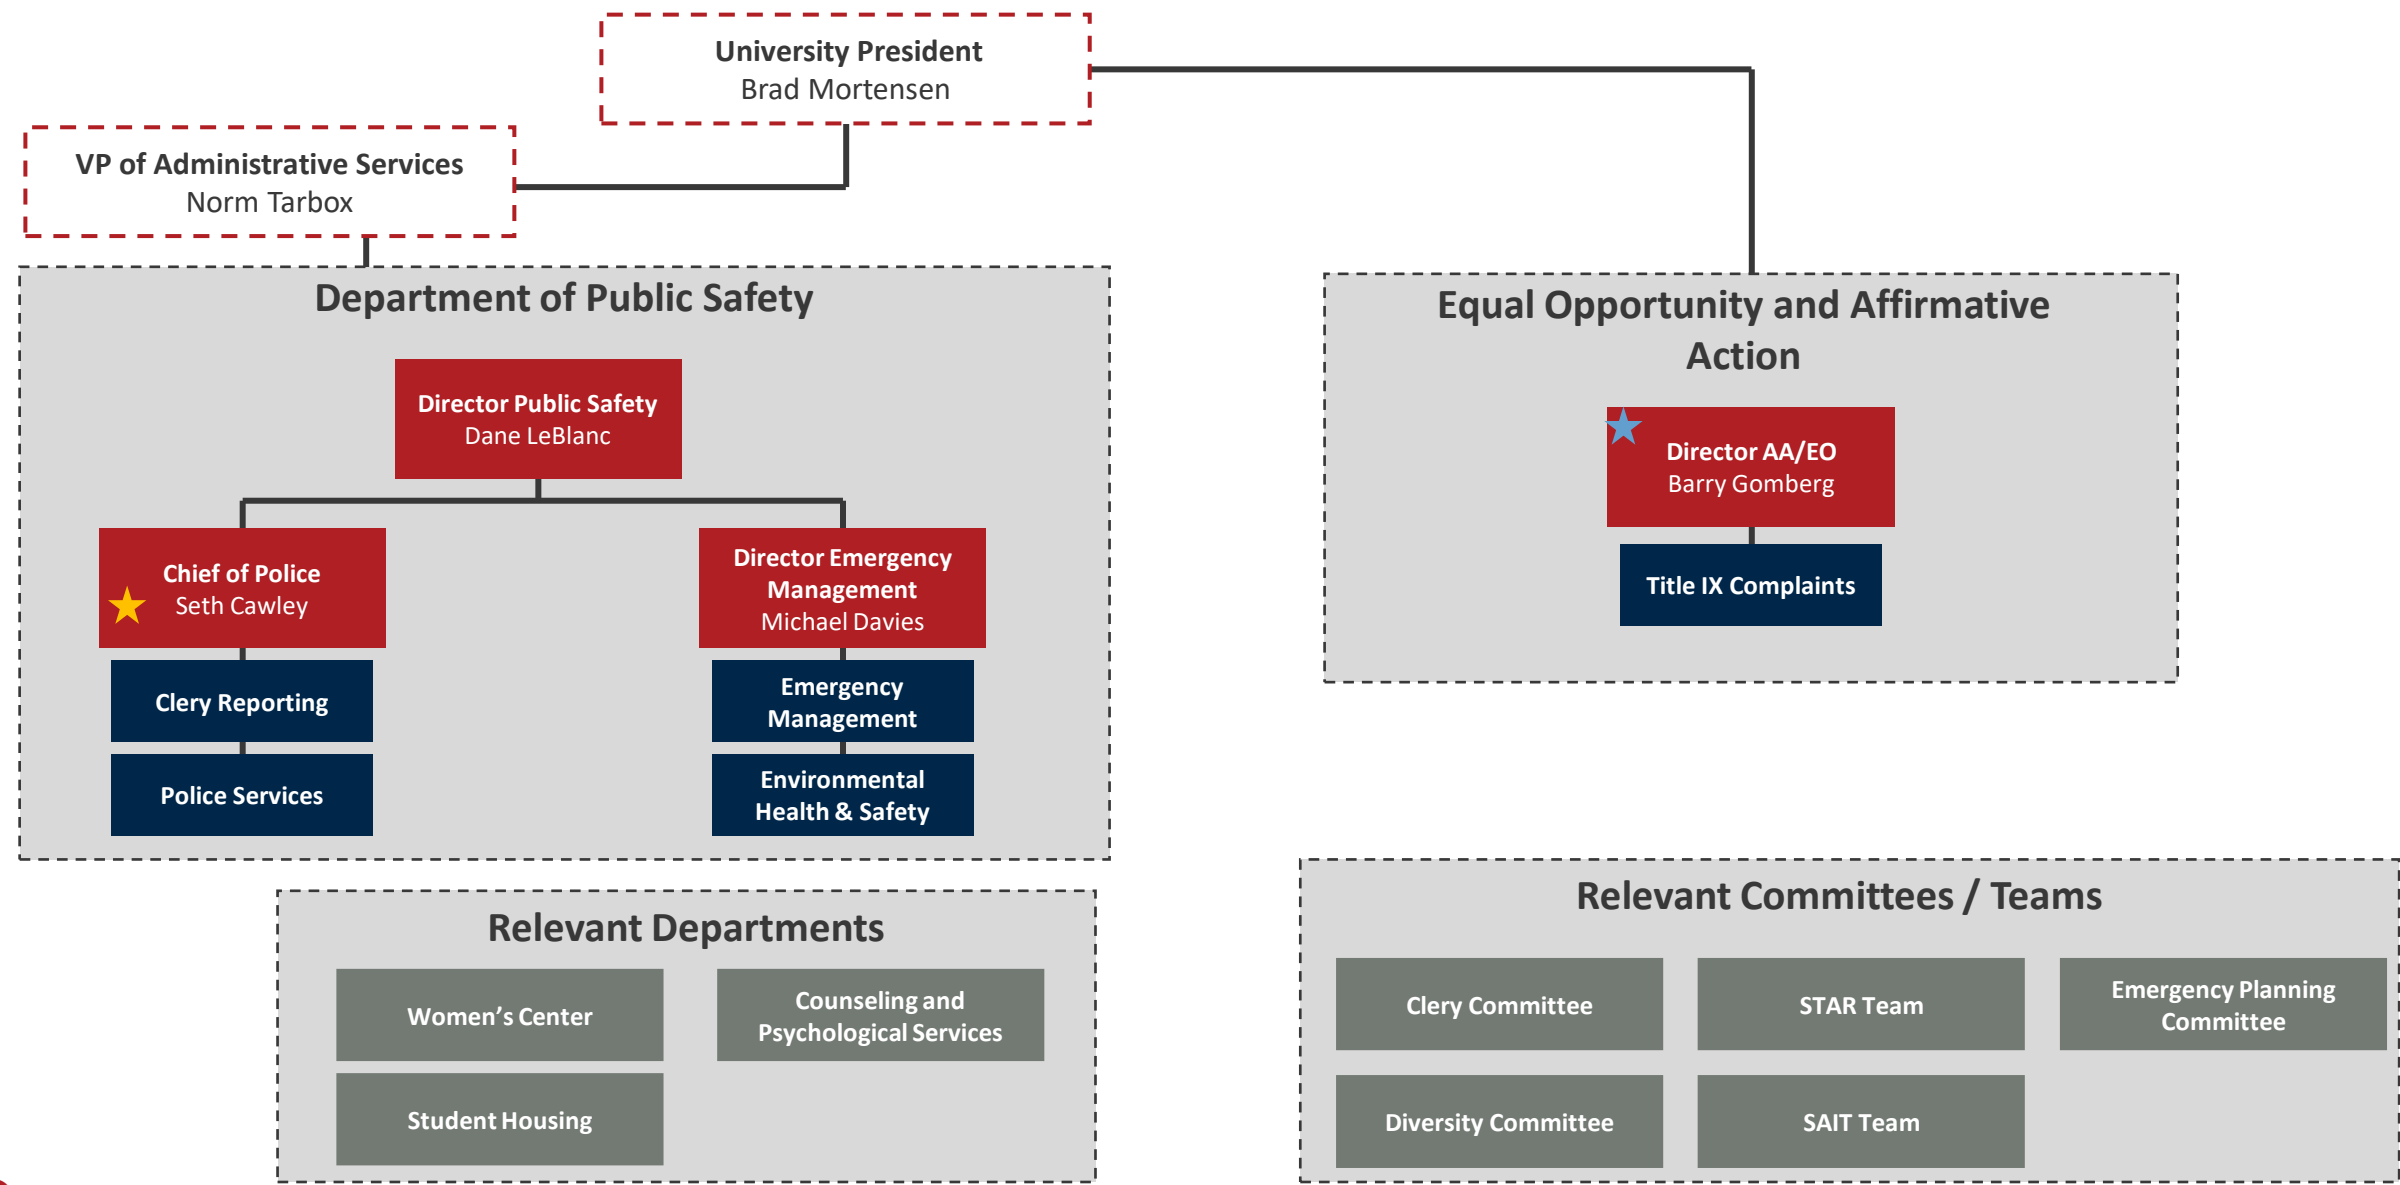

Weber State has a STAR team to handle emergent situations where a threat is posed and a SAIT team to handle less emergent behavioral situations that still call for preventative measures

POLICE ORG HAS DISPATCH CENTER OPERATING DURING CERTAIN HOURS

Weber State's police department has 2 employees who provide dispatch services 5 days a week between 7am and 5pm; outside of these hours, a contract is in place with Weber's local dispatch to provide support

Campus Safety Team – Organizational Structure

Reporting & Incidence Response – Key Learnings

VICTIM ADVOCACY PROVIDED THROUGH THE WOMEN'S CENTER

Weber State has two victim advocates within the women's center on campus; this organization is outside of the Department of Public Safety, but the two organizations work closely together (with one women's center employee being partially funded by the Department of Public Safety)

MOUs IN PLACE WITH LOCAL JURISDICTIONS FOR ASSISTANCE AS NEEDED

Given staffing constraints, Weber State has MOUs in place with local jurisdictions in which both departments are willing to provide support and assistance to the other as needed

SHARE DISPATCH LINE WITH OGDEN POLICE DEPARTMENT

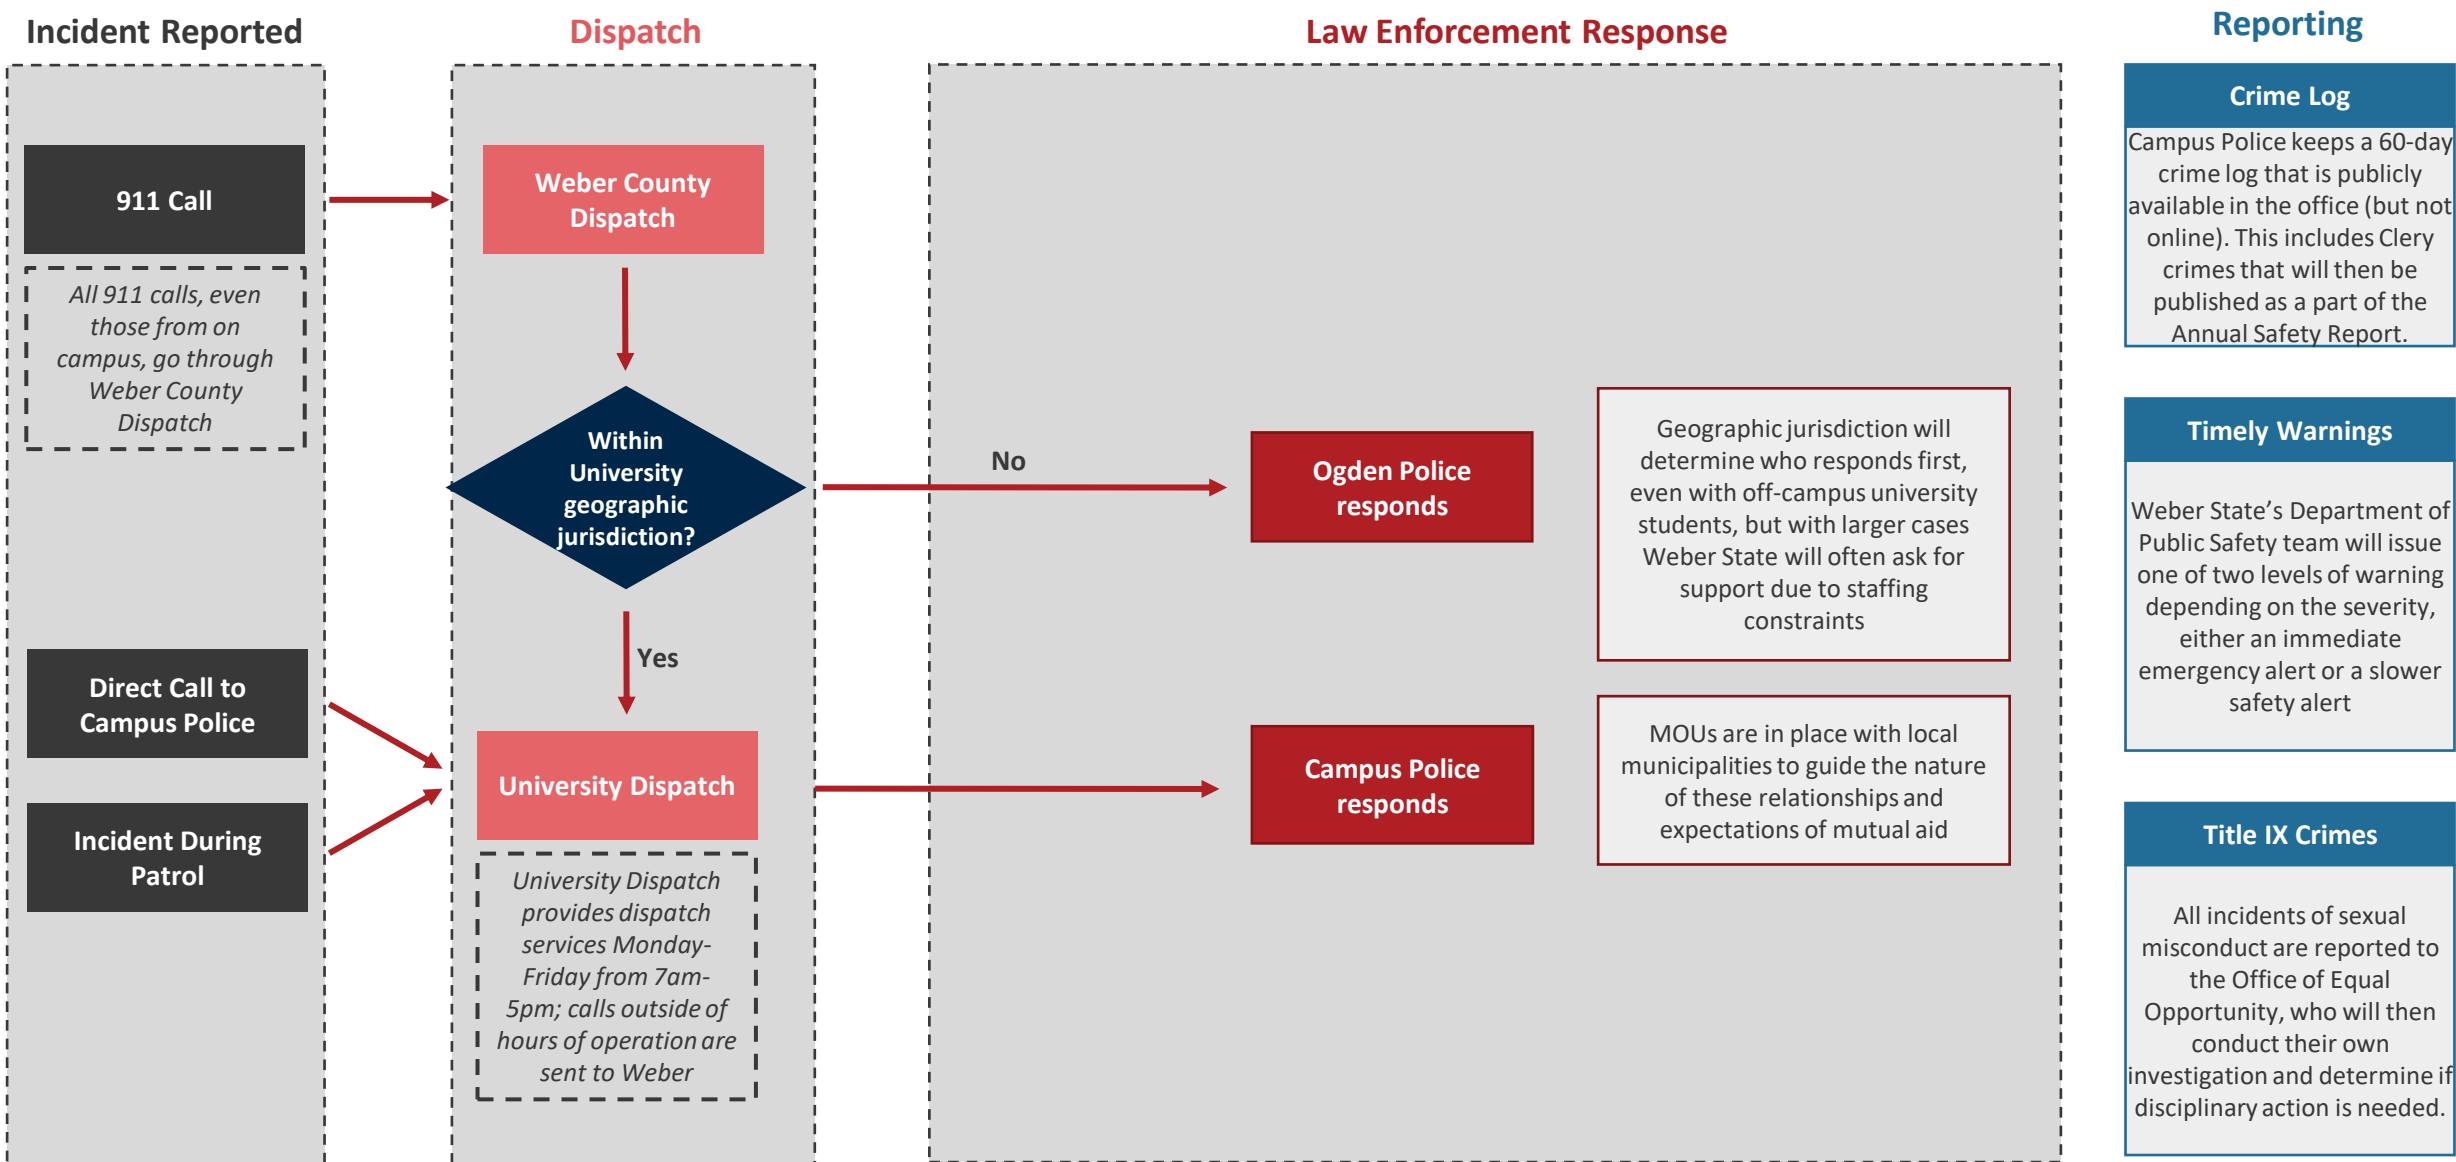

Weber State works closely with the local municipal police authority, the Ogden Police Department, and shares a dispatch line with the agency to provide increased transparency and ease of communication when handling different cases

RELY ON STAFF MEMBERS FOR ASSISTANCE WITH INCIDENT REPORTING

Designated staff members, such as CSAs, are responsible to field reports / complaints from students and report as they become aware; online reporting also exists for CSAs and students to submit reports

Reporting & Incidence Response – Process Map

Hiring / Onboarding / Training – Key Learnings

POLICE TRAINING PLAN DETERMINED JOINTLY WITH LOCAL JURISDICTIONS

Weber State's Police Chief develops 2-year training plans jointly with local jurisdictions to cover required basic trainings as well as topics that may be more relevant in the current climate

DIFFICULT TO HIRE NEW POLICE OFFICERS GIVEN WAGE DISPARITY

Weber State University's police force was down 5 officers last year due in large part to wage disparities with other local agencies; $5,000 signing bonuses and marginally increased pay helped attract more officers

COMMUNITY LIASON OFFICER RESPONSIBLE FOR TRAINING TO FACULTY / STUDENTS

A particular Weber State Police Officer is tasked with the additional responsibility of training faculty, students, and other staff members through student / staff orientations, meetings with Residence Assistants, and other campus events

SEXUAL ASSAULT TRAINING WILL BE UPDATED

Weber State currently uses Haven online training platform to provide sexual assault training, but there is a high price to renew the contract. Instead, the new position at the women's center will be responsible for creating sexual assault training for students and staff

KEY INITIATIVES

Clery Compliance: Responsibility for Clery has recently been transferred back (from General Counsel’s Equity Compliance Office) to the Department of Public Safety under the Police Chief. With this move, the department has put forth extensive effort to expand Clery compliance and reporting (increasing the length of the Clery Report by over 5x)

Community and Student Engagement: Over the past two years, university police has placed increased emphasis on building relationships of trust with students through active involvement in student events and activities

Safety and Security App: New app will be operational by December 2020

LEADERSHIP

- Del Beatty – Dean of Students
- Chief Blair Barfuss – Director of Public Safety / Chief of Police
- Josh Thayn – Director of Event Services & Risk Management
- Hazel Sainsbury – Title IX Director

Org Structure – Key Learnings

RECENTLY REPLACED TITLE IX COORDINATOR

Replaced Title IX Director has been hired within the last 2 months; this role works collaboratively with the Department of Public Safety to support students with issues of discrimination and sexual misconduct

CARE TEAM FOR BEHAVIORAL INTERVENTION

The CARE team meets weekly for 90 minutes to discuss students and situations that pose a risk to campus safety; athletics, housing, general counsel, wellness center, admissions, etc. are all represented in these meetings in addition to campus safety team (police, Title IX coordinator, student affairs, facilities)

VICTIM ADVOCATE SITS WITHIN DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY

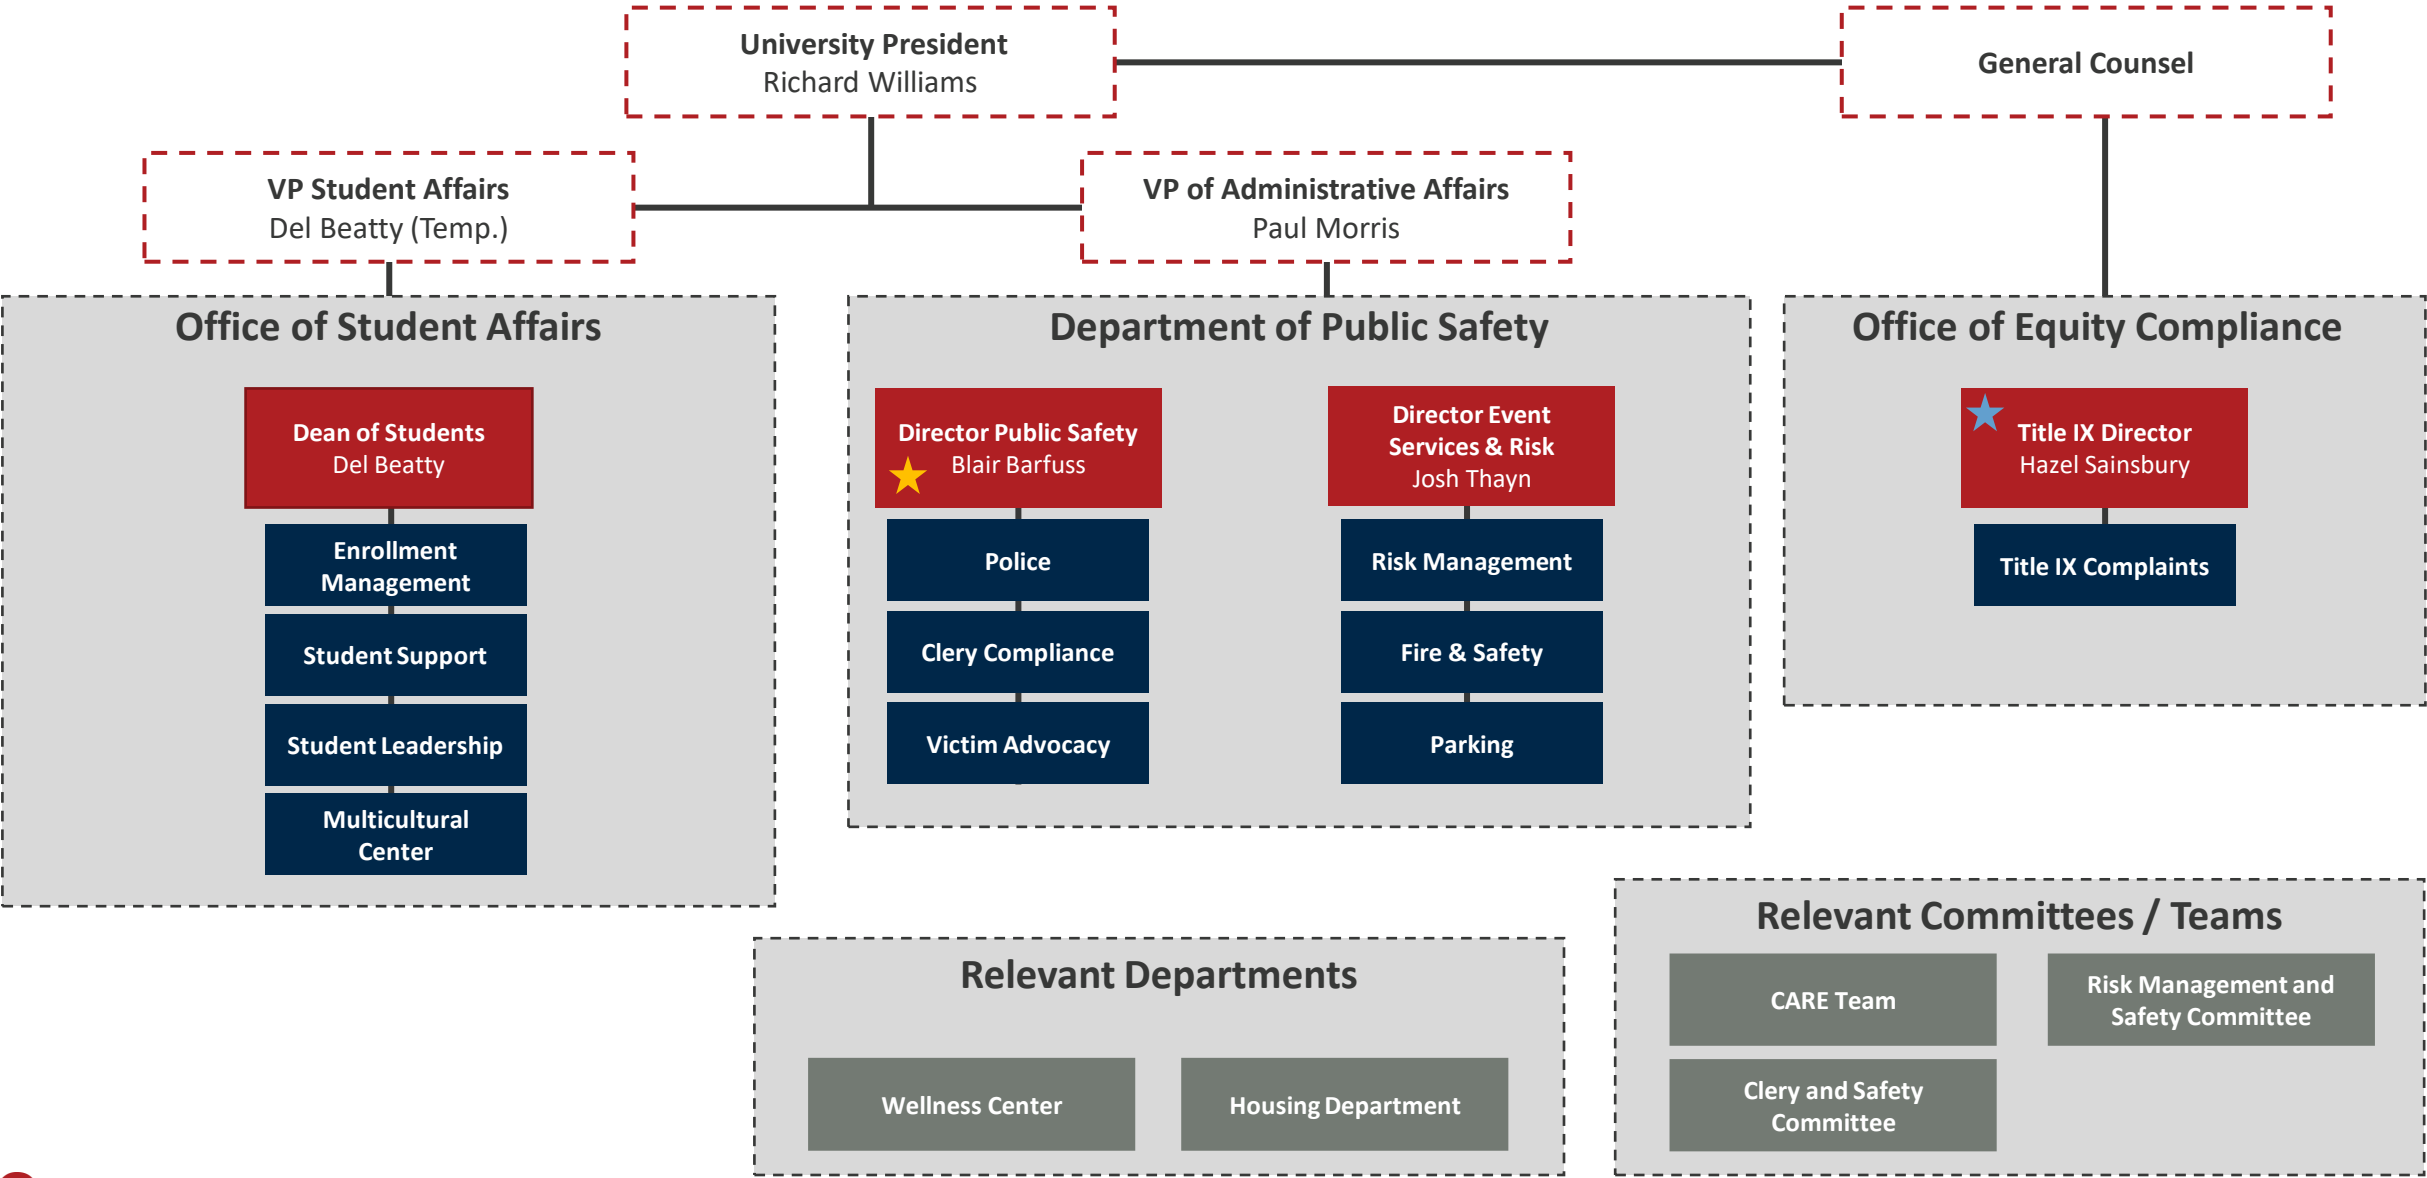

The Department of Public Safety's Police Records and Security Supervisor also functions as the university's primary resource for victim advocacy; other external organizations provide support as needed

POLICE STAFFING CONSTRAINTS EXIST

The campus police force feels understaffed; 2 out of the 7 officers (Chief of Police and Captain) are dedicated entirely to administrative duties given the demands of Clery Act, training, etc. The other five officers handle patrol, with the assistance of hired hourly (reserve) police officers to provide 24/7 coverage.

Reporting & Incidence Response – Key Learnings

PROXIMITY OF AVAILABLE SUPPORT OFTEN OVERRIDES GEOGRAPHIC JURISDICTION

While DSU does have spelled out geographic jurisdictions that guide the county dispatch team, the geographic proximity of available officers often determines who responds first; DSU's relationship with the municipal police is such that both sides are capable and willing to respond on each other's "turf" (DSU officers often handle police calls for service just outside of DSU property when students in off campus student housing are involved)

STUDENT REPORTING FOR NON-EMERGENCIES PRIMARILY COMES VIA PHONE

Students and parents often report non-emergencies to the office of student affairs over the phone. DSU is working to develop a more robust reporting system and webpage that will automatically refer the student to the correct department / resource; this will be a part of the new security app (will be available December 2020)

POLICE OFFICERS ALSO FULFILL SECURITY ROLE

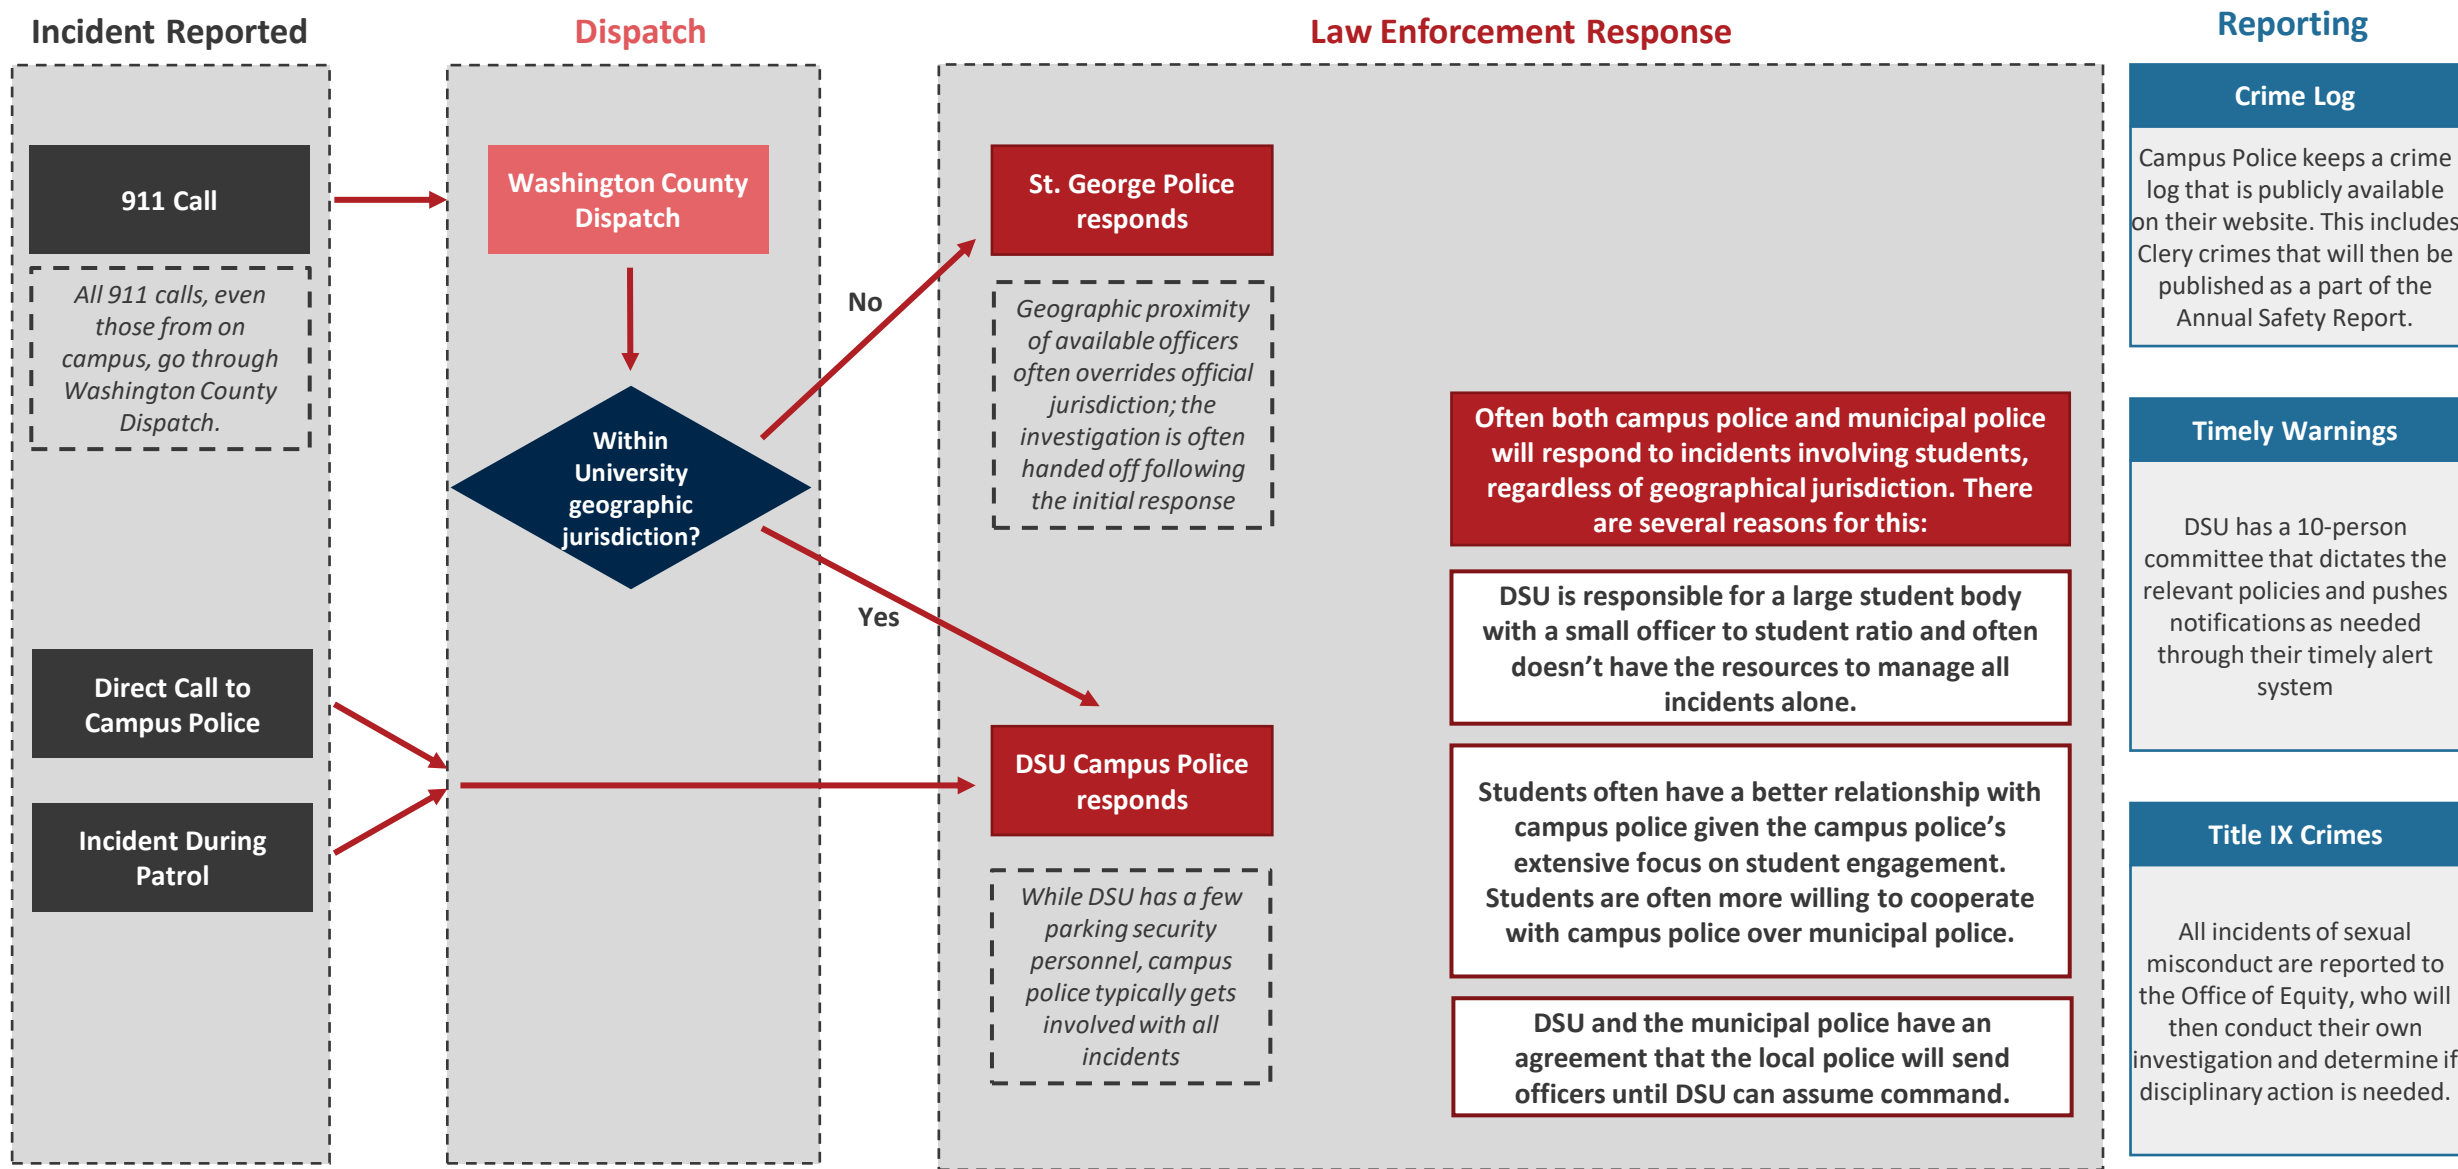

As Dixie State does not have any student security officers, university police responds to all incidents that involve a suspicious person or any kind of security escort. However, facilities personnel that manage parking can help with motor vehicle assistance.

STUDENTS OFTEN PREFER CAMPUS POLICE OVER MUNICIPAL POLICE

Due to relationships of trust, students often prefer to have campus police involved and used as a resource over municipal police; this is particularly true for minority students

Reporting & Incidence Response – Process Map

Hiring / Onboarding / Training – Key Learnings

FUNDING CONSTRAINTS LIMIT TRAINING OPPORTUNITIES

University police primarily relies on online training given the cost of training in-person; as a result, not much training happens beyond the required 40 hours

TITLE IX TRAINING HAPPENS ON INVITATION BASIS

Many departments and organizations within DSU reach out for specific training to better understand updated regulations, policy, where to go, etc.

POLICE FORCE PROVIDES TRAINING ON TOP OF THEIR FULL-TIME RESPONSIBILITIES

Police officers provide training to the campus community in many ways such as assisting Campus Security Authorities, providing Clery training, etc.

LOOK FOR UNIQUE CAMPUS-SPECIFIC SKILLS WHEN HIRING WITHIN POLICE FORCE

The Department of Public Safety sees a particular need for communication and community skills, which limits the number of police officers that could adequately serve in a campus setting

Clery Act Committee: A coalition to support Clery related cases is currently being formed and is expected to be active in the coming months.

Title IX: Four deputy coordinators and eleven investigators provide voluntary support to the Title IX coordinator; goals include eventually having a at least one deputy as an intake officer and two full-time investigators

POLICE CHIEF IS HEAD OF CAMPUS SAFETY

The police chief is responsible for law enforcement, emergency management, student security officers, and general campus safety. He reports to the VP of Student Affairs who then reports to the President.

CLERY AND TITLE IX RESPONSIBILITIES ARE SEPARATE

A campus police officer is responsible for Clery Act compliance and training, while an attorney within the legal department is Title IX coordinator and is supported by four deputy coordinators

SAIT AND TITLE IX COMMITTEES MEET WEEKLY

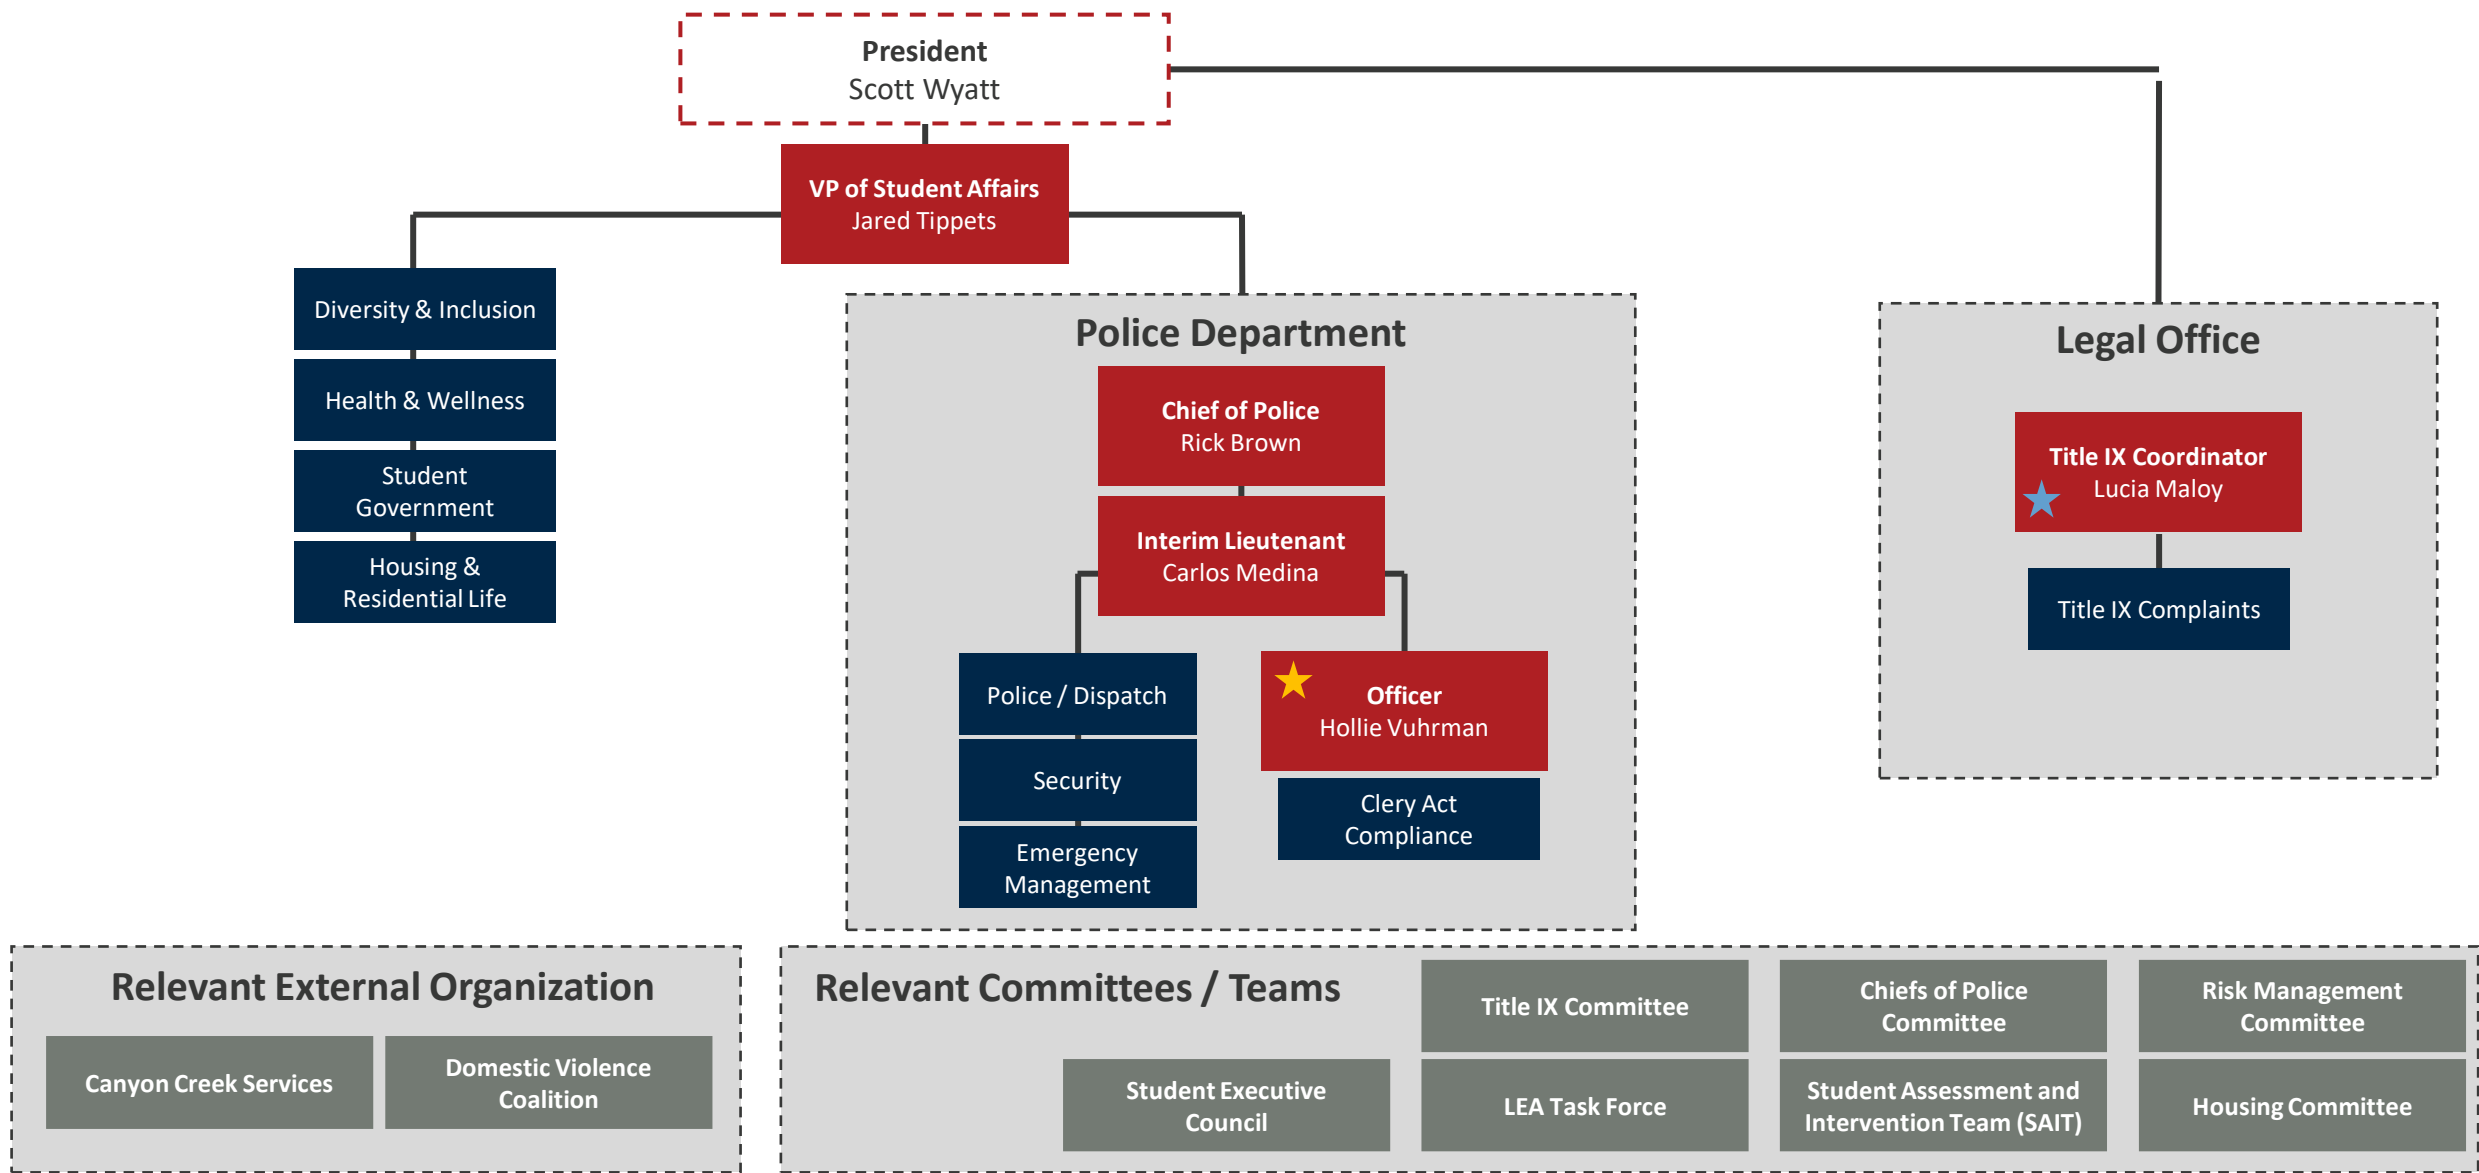

SAIT (Student Assessment and Intervention Team) gathers various stakeholders across the university, including police, student services, CAPS, and diversity and inclusion, to review topics related to student safety. This is separate from the Title IX committee which meets every week to review all Title IX matters

STUDENT OFFICERS ASSIST WITH SAFETY

Approximately six volunteer student officers handle non-law enforcement responsibilities (e.g. escorting students, open and closing buildings, and assisting with phone calls). These individuals are commonly interested in law enforcement as a career

Reporting & Incidence Response – Key Learnings

NO FORMAL MOUs EXIST BETWEEN THE UNIVERSITY AND LOCAL POLICE FORCES

Cedar City PD and SUU have a strong relationship and assist one another on an ad-hoc basis; however, SUU plans to formalize this relationship in the near future

VICTIM ADVOCACY IS PROVIDED BY OUTSIDE ORGANIZATION AND TITLE IX

While the Title IX department offers some victim advocacy, SUU also partners with Canyon Creek Services, a community resource, to provide additional support that is available 24.7.

CEDAR CITY DISPATCH RECEIVES ALL INCIDENTS AND COMMUNICATES WITH CAMPUS

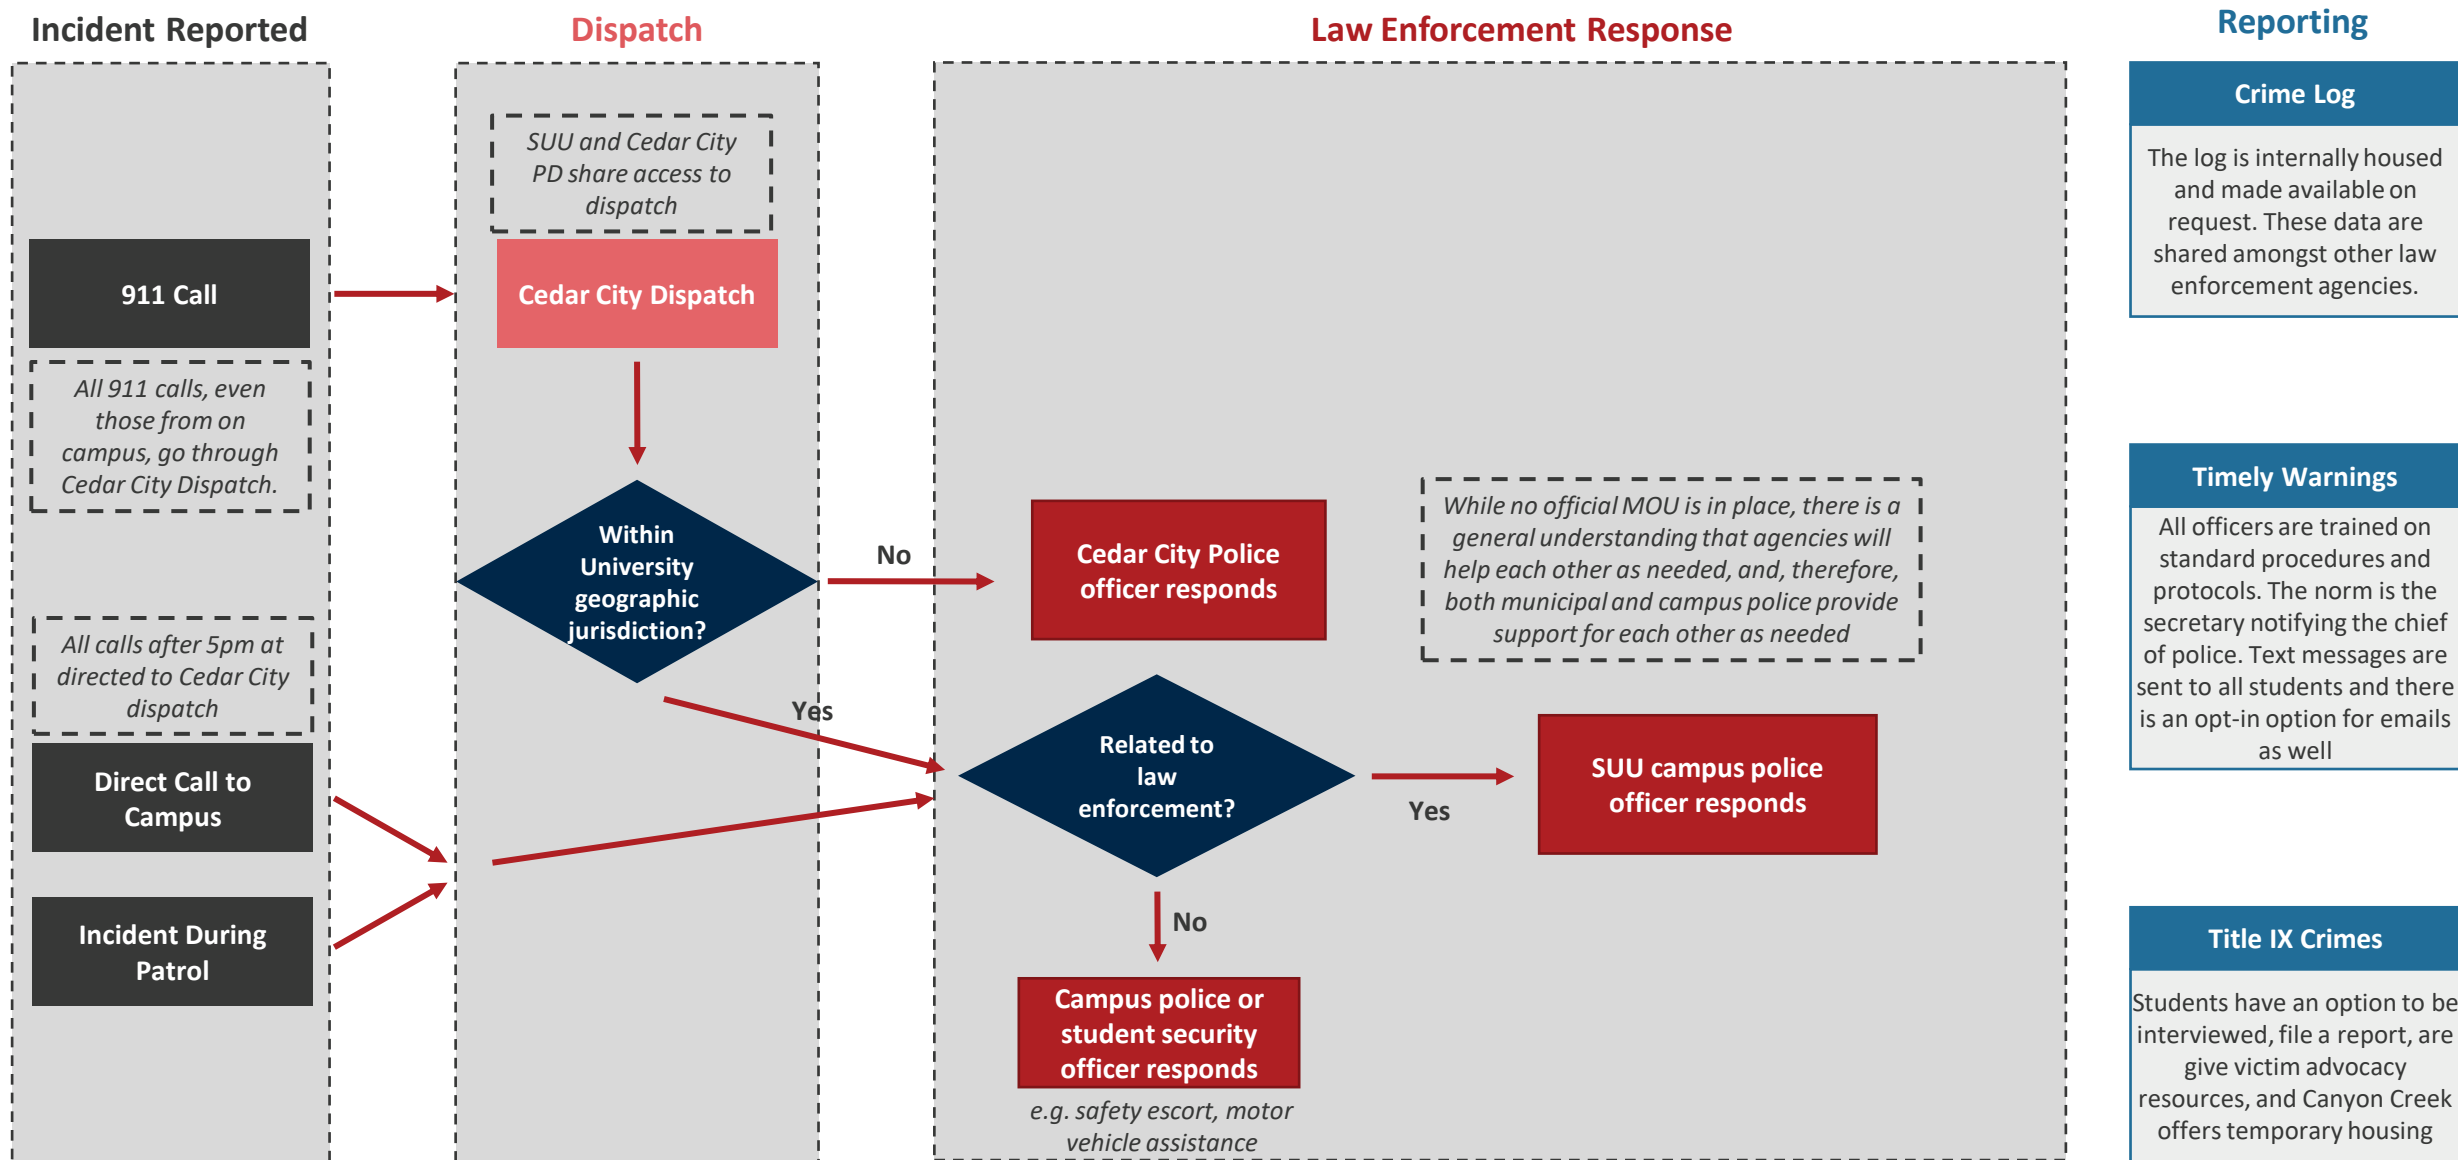

Local police departments have a map of the campus police jurisdiction and will loop in campus authorities by locating calls from the area. The university does have an internal number that is contacted sparingly

TITLE IX REPORTING IS COLLABORATIVE BETWEEN CAMPUS AND CEDAR CITY POLICE

Victims are consistently ushered through the process and provided all of their rights and options; while local authorities and the campus have differing timelines and responsibilities, the two work with one-another

Reporting & Incidence Response – Process Map

Hiring / Onboarding / Training – Key Learnings

CONSISTENTLY ATTRACTING COMPETITIVE APPLICANTS IS A PAIN POINT

The low pay scale makes it difficult to recruit for officer positions within SUU's staff; the applicants generally have very little experience and need to be trained by SUU after joining (at an additional cost)

TRAINING PROVIDED IS CONTINGENT ON ANNUAL BUDGETARY RESTRICTIONS

Due to the constrained budget, officers are not trained on Clery and cannot receive specialized training. These specialized trainings usually require travel and other expenses not allotted for in the current budget

AD-HOC DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION TRAININGS

Diversity and inclusion trainings are provided on an ad-hoc basis through the center for diversity and inclusion. There is an appetite for more racism and bias training for campus police and faculty, but budgetary constraints provide limitations on training.

FACULTY, STAFF, AND STUDENTS RECEIVE ANNUAL VIDEO TRAININGS

Active shooter, lockdown, and sexual assault trainings are required trainings for all university personnel and students. Safe campus and assault trainings are online while the active shooting training is in-person and will become a regular training (post-COVID).

Victim Advocacy Position: Snow College is looking to hire an office manager position within the Department of Public Safety who can also provide in-house victim advocacy services / support

Staffing Support: Many different responsibilities (e.g., Clery, emergency management, policing, etc.) fall on the Chief of Police; handling so many diverse roles can put a strain on effectiveness

4th Police Officer: Specific to the police force, the Department of Public Safety is looking to hire another officer

LEADERSHIP

- Derek Walk – Chief of Police and Director of Public Safety
- Staci Taylor – Title IX Coordinator

Org Structure – Key Learnings

TITLE IX COORDINATOR OVERSEES TITLE IX AND RISK MANAGEMENT

Snow College's Risk Manager is also responsible for Title IX Coordinator duties; she is supported by a full-time investigator as well as 7 volunteer employee Title IX deputies

POLICE CHIEF WEARS MULTIPLE HATS

The Chief of Police functions as the head of public safety and bears responsibility for the police staff, security agents, Clery Act reporting, and emergency management

CARE TEAM HANDLES BEHAVIORAL INTERVENTION

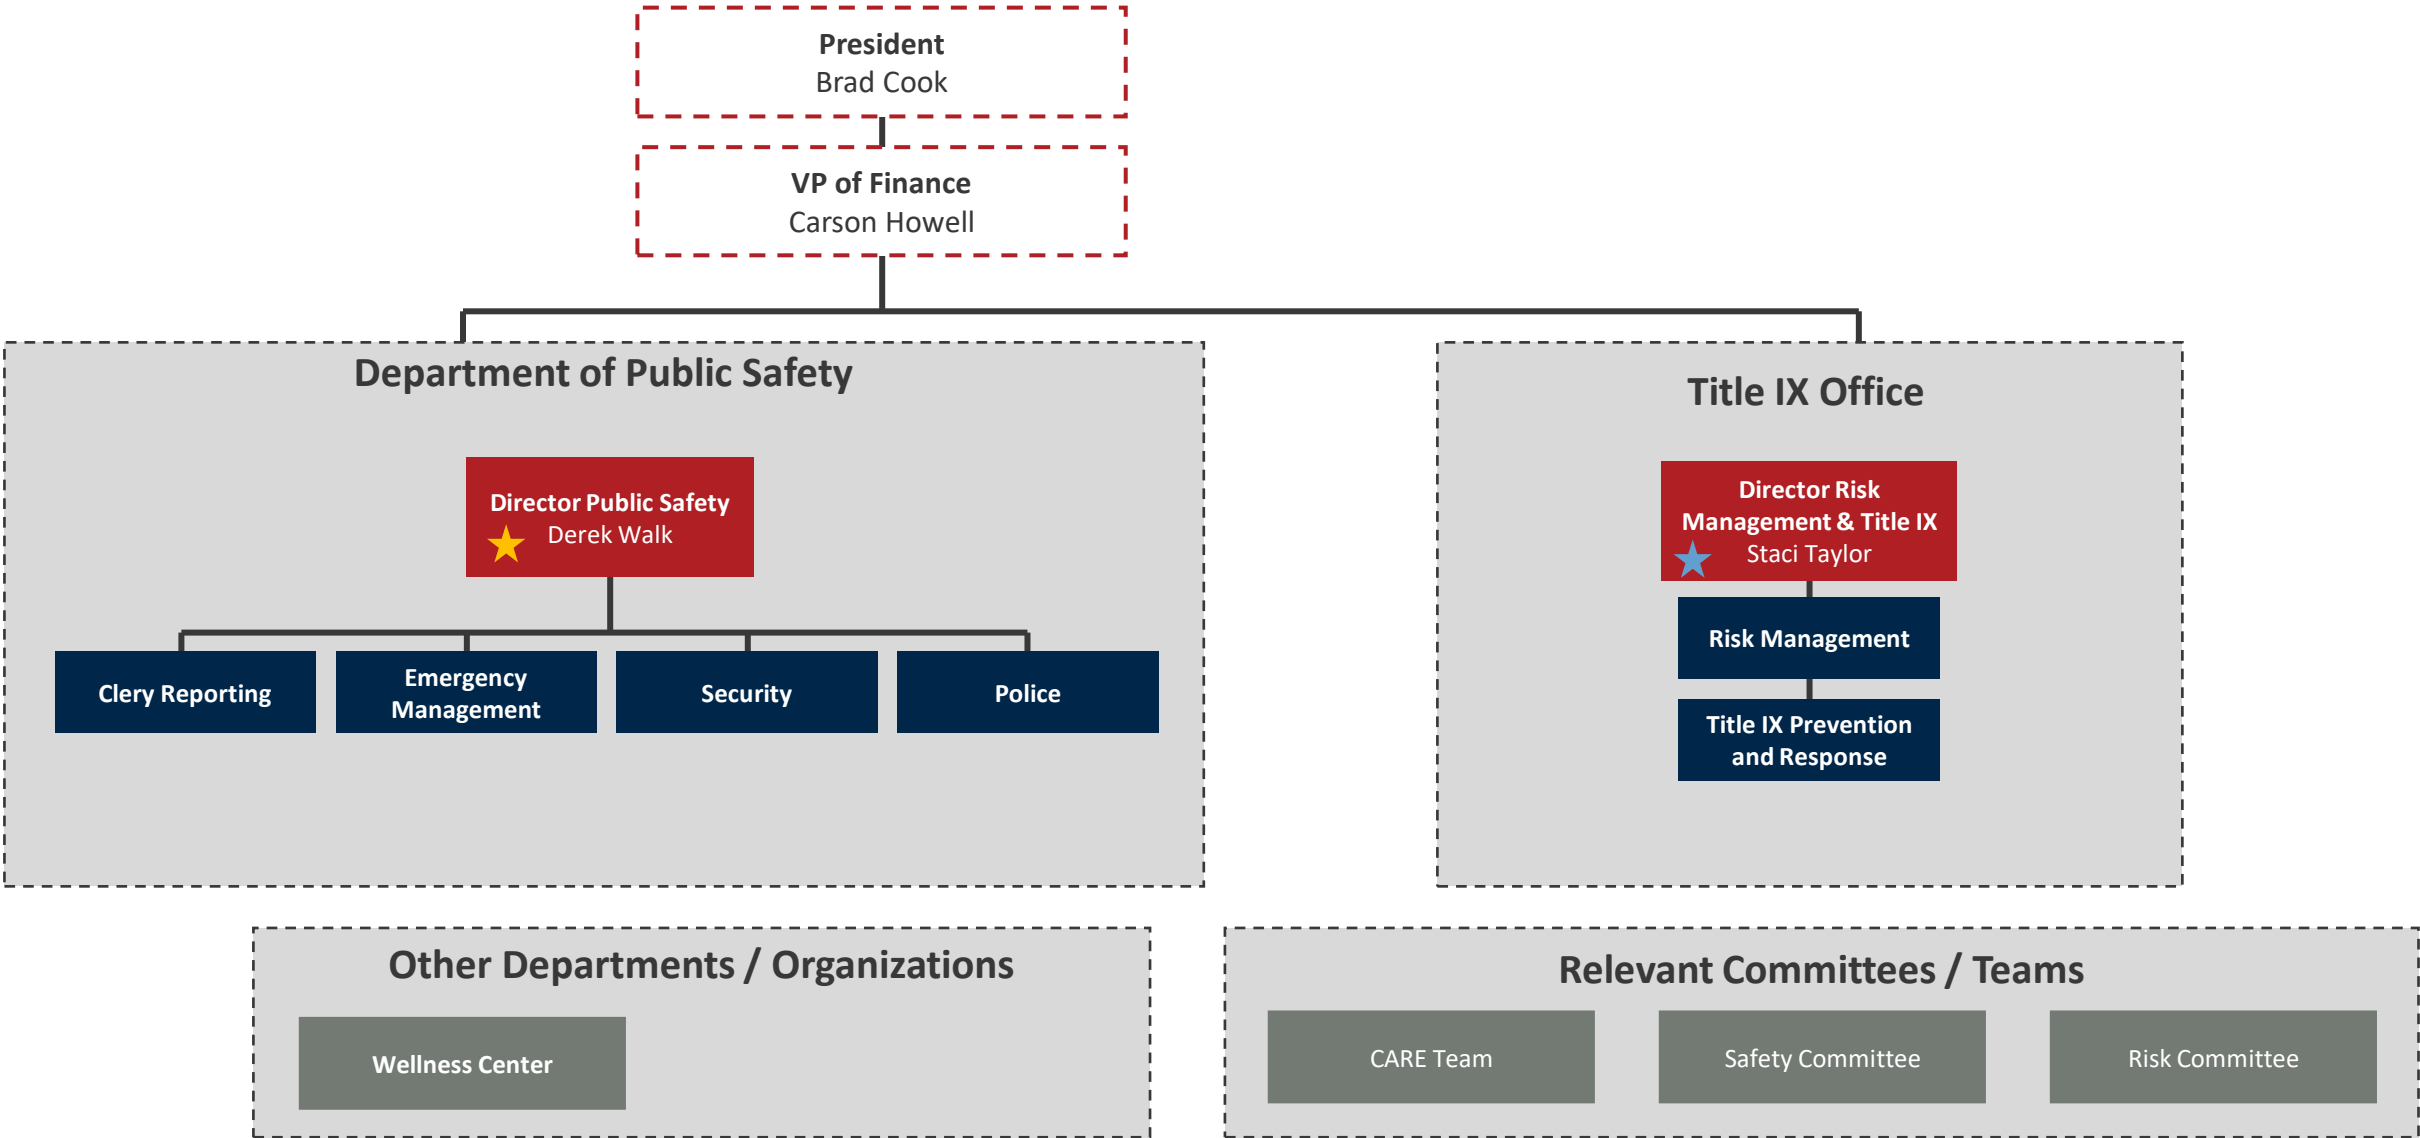

Snow College has a CARE Team that meets once a week to discuss situations requiring support and/or intervention for at-risk students; this team includes different departments and can meet ad hoc as needed

STUDENT-FOCUSED SECURITY AGENTS

Snow College employs 12 student security agents on campus who are primarily tasked with patrolling campus, carrying a phone, unlocking rooms, locking buildings, etc.

Campus Safety Team – Organizational Structure

Reporting & Incidence Response – Key Learnings

VICTIM ADVOCACY SUPPORT COMES FROM EXTERNAL RESOURCES

Snow College utilizes both the county attorney's office and New Horizons to provide victim advocacy support for students as needed; the police chief owns the responsibility of connecting students to these resources

MOU IN PLACE WITH MUNICIPAL POLICE

While incidents are directed to campus police first, Snow College has an MOU with the Ephraim police department for additional support and immediate response if campus police doesn't have availability/capacity

EMPHASIS TO STUDENTS IS TO GO DIRECTLY TO LOCAL DISPATCH

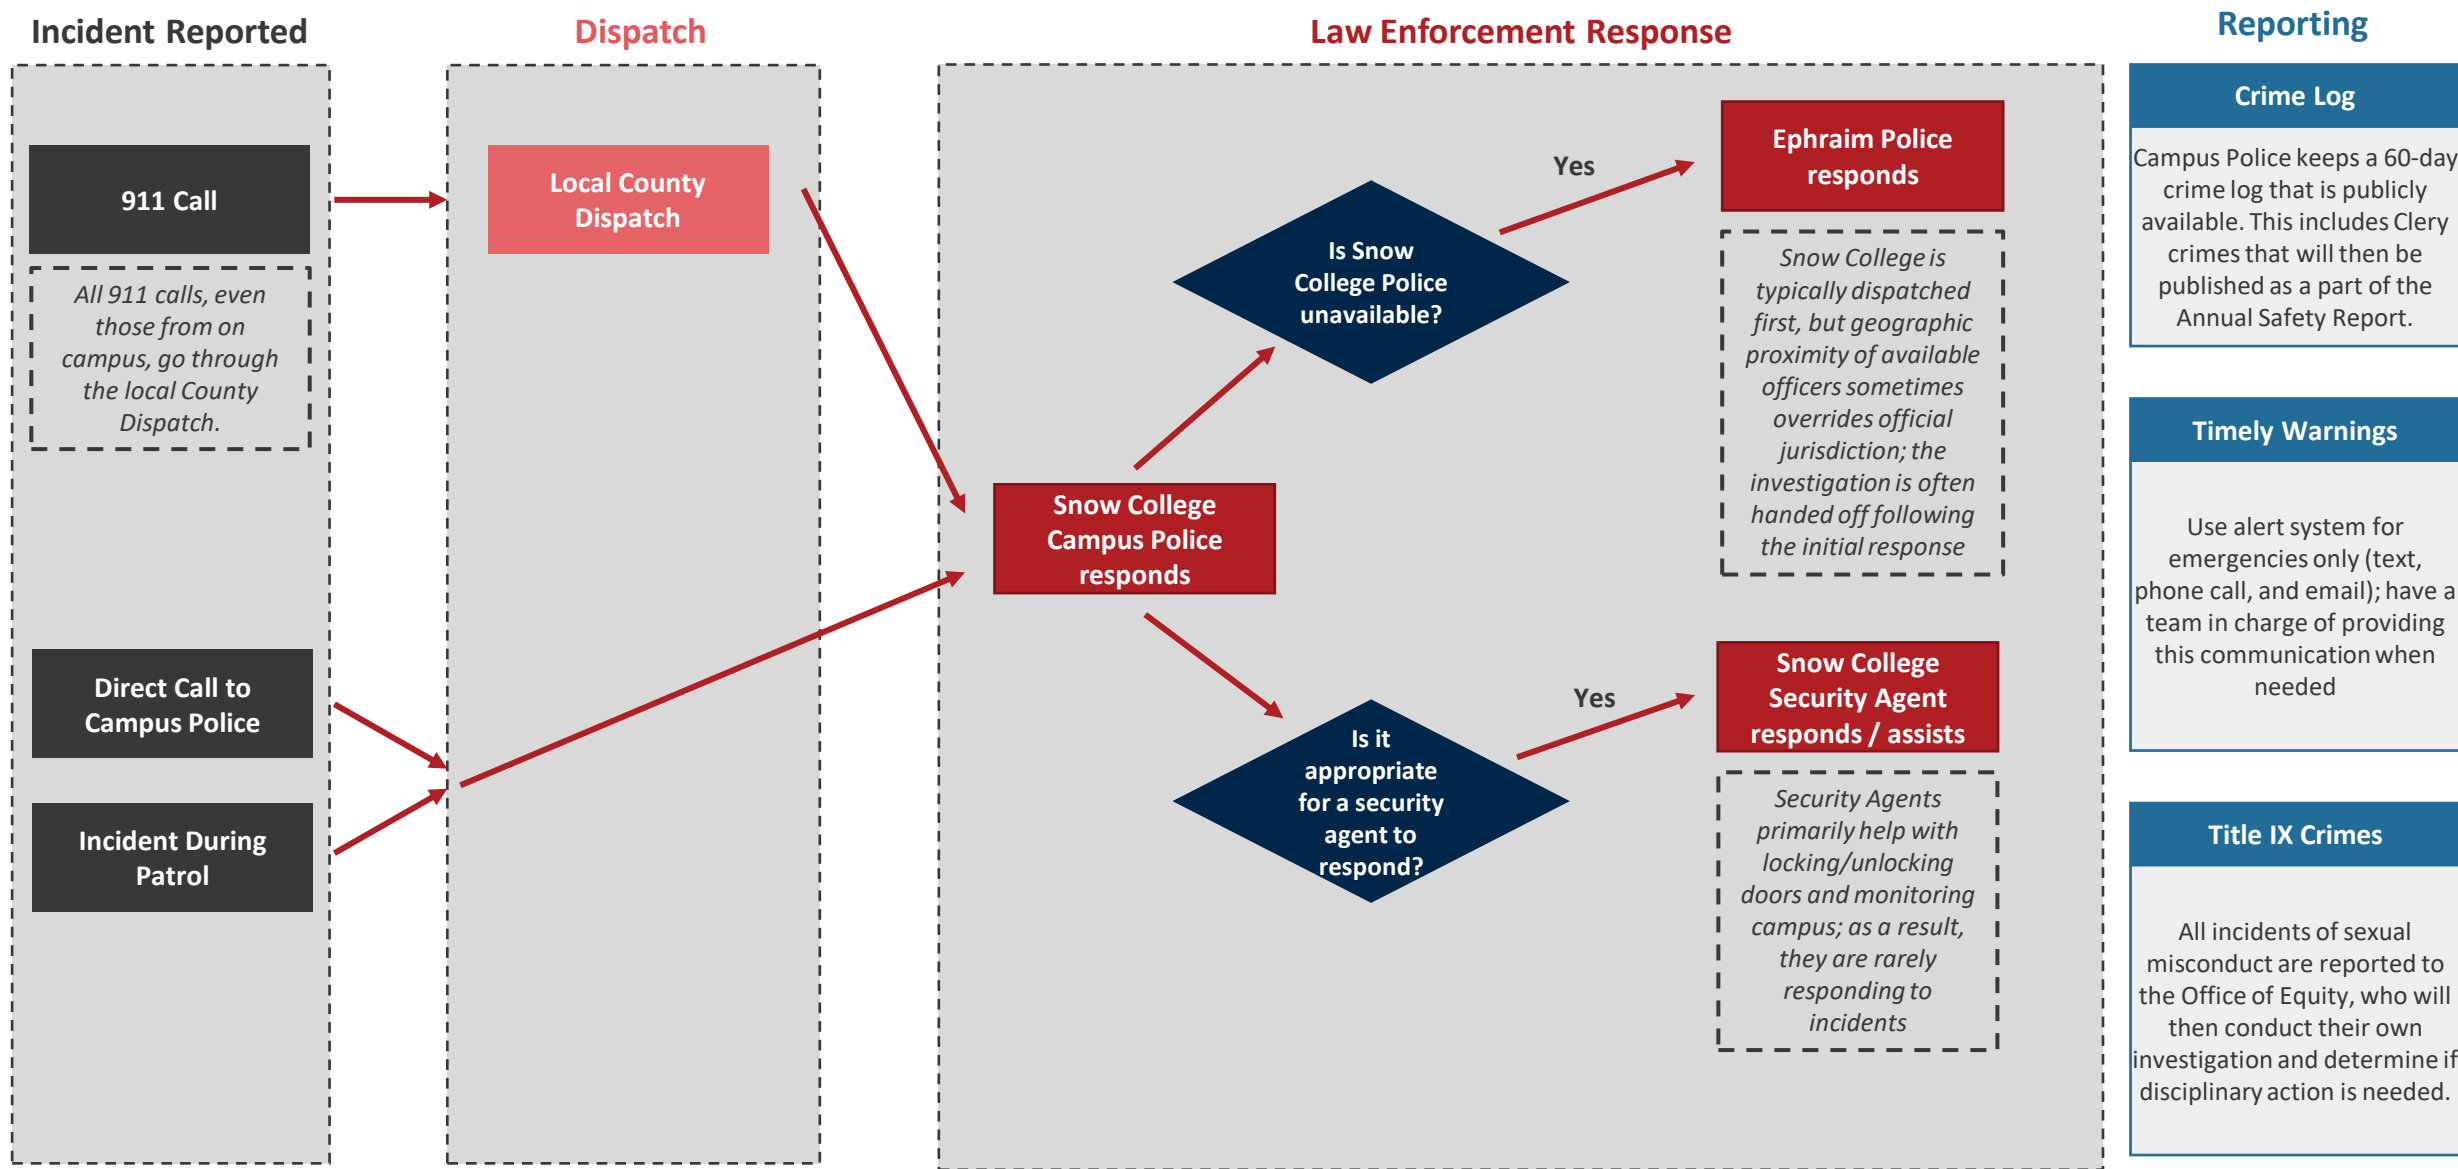

Snow College students are encouraged to call directly to the local county dispatch given the guaranteed quick response time and the ability of the dispatch team to connect students to campus contacts

FOCUS ON INCREASED TITLE IX OFFICE AWARENESS TO IMPROVE REPORTING

Student awareness of Title IX reporting options and support was historically low, which led to a focus on improved messaging and communication efforts with students (ultimately increasing reporting frequency)

Reporting & Incidence Response – Process Map

Hiring / Onboarding / Training – Key Learnings

FOCUS ON HIRING A FOURTH OFFICER

Snow College currently has 3 police officers, including the police chief; given the challenges of covering the campus with only 3 officers, the college is looking to expand its force

TRAINING OTHER OFFICERS IN CLERY

The police chief is responsible for Clery reporting, and will train his other officers in order to pass on some of that responsibility; this will allow for more focus on other administrative duties and will create redundancy for continuity of operations

TITLE IX TRAINING FOR A VARIETY OF STUDENT TYPES

Snow College has Title IX training for all students, including training opportunities for student groups such as athletes, student leaders, and foreign students

LOOK TO PROVIDE POLICE TRAINING WELL BEYOND THE REQUIRED 40 HOURS

While 40 hours of police officer training is mandated, Snow College looks to go well beyond that requirement through a mix of online trainings, in-person trainings, and traveling to trainings provided elsewhere

KEY INITIATIVES

Student Relationships: SLCC is placing a heavy emphasis on building relationships with students based on trust and transparency, especially given the current environment

Restructured Title IX Office: a new Title IX Coordinator was hired several months ago with this role now falling outside of the Dean of Students (where Title IX used to live). While it’s not currently in place, SLCC is hoping to have a deputy Title IX coordinator at each campus and then in each student organization.

LEADERSHIP

- Shane Crabtree – Executive Director of Public Safety
- Ken Stonebrook – Assistant VP and Dean of Students
- Andy Campbell – Deputy Director of Public Safety
- David Jensen – Director of EEO & Title IX

Org Structure – Key Learnings

CAMPUS POLICE CONTRACTED OUT TO UTAH HIGHWAY PATROL

The Utah Highway Patrol provides dedicated officers to the main SLCC campuses, while the local municipal police provides support for the remaining campuses. There is 24/7 police coverage at the 4 main campuses

DEDICATED DIRECTOR OF CAMPUS SAFETY

While policing is contracted out to the municipal police, SLCC still has an in-house executive director of public safety who is a sworn police officer and oversees the team of security officers as well as Clery Act compliance

BEHAVIORAL INTERVENTION TEAM

The majority of the coordination that takes place with campus safety occurs during a bi-monthly meeting with the Behavioral Intervention Team. This team includes dean of students, public safety, health and counseling, legal, disability resource center, faculty, and other representatives across the college

RESTRUCTURED TITLE IX OFFICE

SLCC recently filled a Title IX position (Title IX Coordinator) to provide students with a more consistent and dedicated resource; as part of this, Title IX moved from the Dean of Students to the office of People and Workplace Culture

Campus Safety Team– Organizational Structure

Role and Responsibilities

Clery Safety Committee

10+ certified Title IX Investigators

- The Director of Public Safety serves as the Clery officer for the college
- The college reaches out to UHP, municipal police forces, UTA, etc. to get Clery statistics
- The Deputy Director of Public Safety supports with Clery reporting

- Compliance office for handling issues of discrimination and sexual misconduct
- 10 Title IX investigators who all have obtained level 1 certification

Reporting & Incidence Response – Key Learnings

USE EXTERNAL VICTIM ADVOCACY RESOURCE

SLCC doesn't employ any victim advocates, but rather works through an external partner who provides advocates (many of whom are available 24/7)

SECURITY OFFICERS ARE LIMITED PRIMARILY TO MINOR INCIDENTS

Security officers help with minor things like service calls (flat tires, locked cars, etc.) and security escorts; the college prefers to involve law enforcement for all other incidents since they are better trained

TRAINING STUDENTS TO REACH OUT TO THE RIGHT RESOURCE

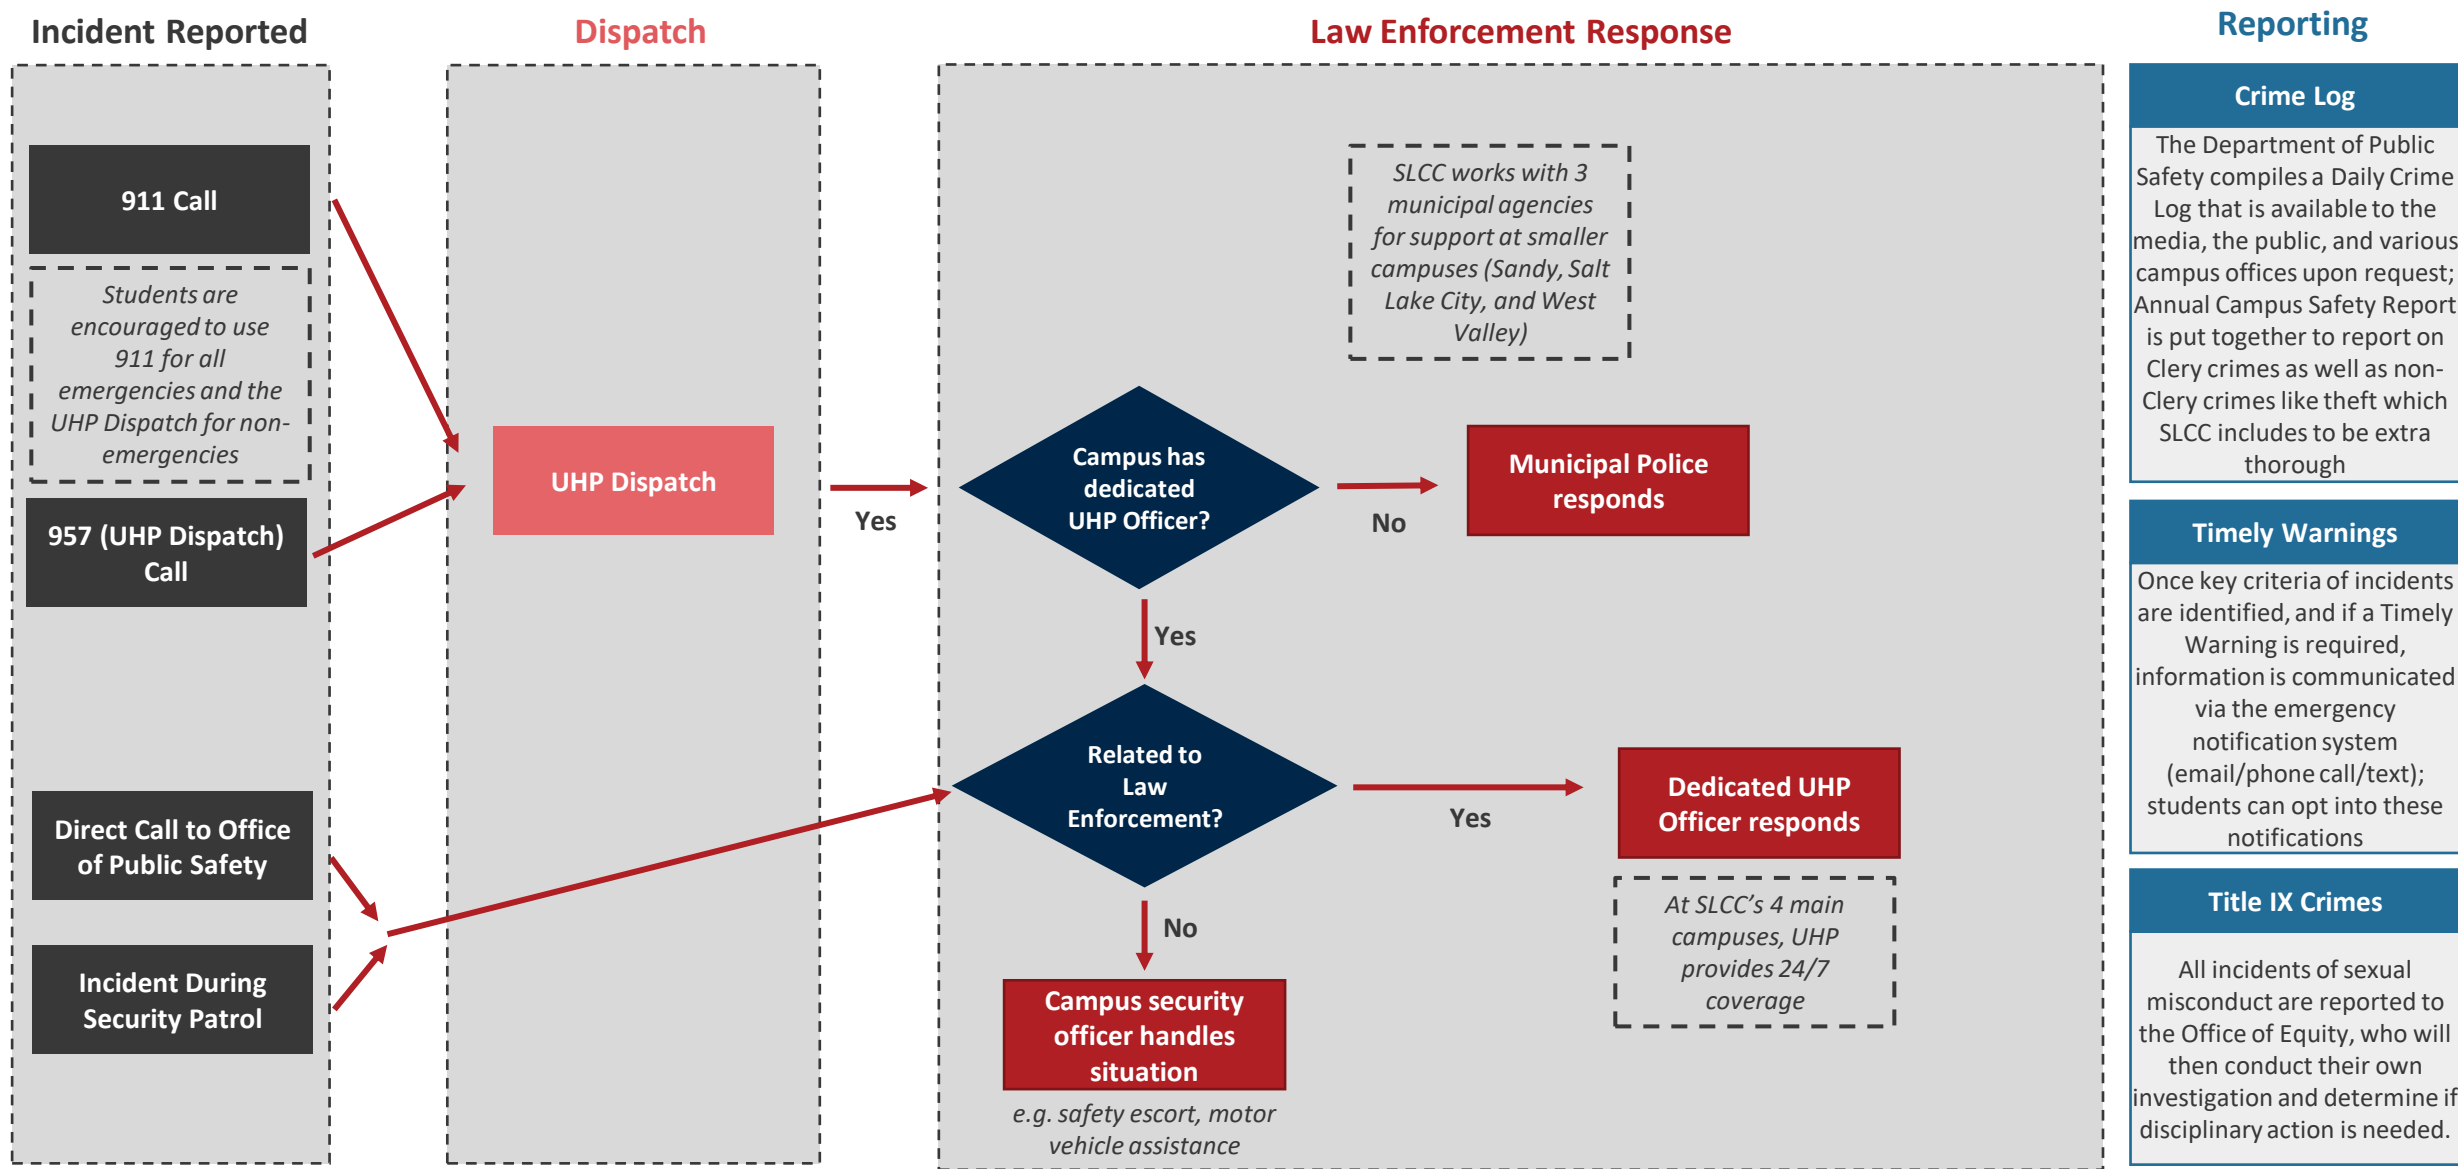

Many students are accustomed to calling the director of Public Safety directly, but the college is working to train students to use 911 as the first line of contact

TWO DISPATCH CENTERS ARE USED

SLCC receives support from both the local county dispatch center and the UHP Dispatch center; the college advertises 911 as well as the UHP number

Reporting & Incidence Response – Process Map

Hiring / Onboarding / Training – Key Learnings

SPECIALIZED TRAINING REQUIRED FOR POLICE OFFICERS

Given that UHP officers are coming from a highway setting, SLCC provide additional specialized training on topics like domestic violence, lethality assessment, Title IX, Clery, and Crisis Intervention

PARTICULARLY STRONG FOCUS ON DEESCALATION TRAINING

Based in part on feedback from the governor, SLCC has placed particular focus on training officers with de-escalation skills

PROVIDE REGULAR TITLE IX AND CLERY TRAINING TO STAFF MEMBERS

Clery trainings are provided to relevant individuals through online resources, while the Dean of Students and Title IX Director provide regular Title IX trainings

TWO FORMER POLICE OFFICERS IN DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY LEADERSHIP

SLCC has hired two former police officers to fill the Executive Director of Public Safety role and the Deputy Director of Public Safety role; this helps with managing relationships with contracted police forces

Reporting & Incidence Response – Process Map

Hiring / Onboarding / Training – Key Learnings

STUDENTS, STAFF, AND FACULTY RECEIVE SELECTED, ANNUAL TRAININGS

All relevant parties receive emergency response drilling; students are required to complete EverFi and specialty training contingent on industry of choice i.e. welding, construction etc.

MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES ARE A RECOGNIZED AREA OF GROWTH

Currently the college does not have a counselor or a dedicated mental health professional on staff, which is an area of opportunity going forward

THE COLLEGE PREFERS TO HAVE A SECURITY PRESENCE ON CAMPUS IN THE FUTURE

Defining roles and providing services effectively to students has been a pain-point for faculty and staff; providing law enforcement services through a dedicated security guard would ease others' burdens

THE COLLEGE'S SIZE ALLOWS LESS STRUCTURED ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

While the college aspires to grow, they recognize that currently there is not a necessity for a large staff to serve students effectively

KEY INITIATIVES

Racism and Bias: The college recently filled a new diversity officer position and school-wide diversity and inclusion training is a high priority; the college has also hired a 3rd party to conduct a racism/bias related assessment of the school

Security Upgrades: All security cameras were recently updated and efforts are being made to develop key card access to all the doors

LEADERSHIP

- Dean Wilson – VP of Student Services
- Cody Peterson – Facilities Manager
- Karen Secrest – Head of Financial Aid

Org Structure – Key Learnings

CAMPUS SAFETY FALLS UNDER VP OF STUDENT SERVICES

Anything on the student side of campus safety falls under student services (including managing the relationship with the municipal police) while physical safety (facilities, IT, security) falls under the VP of Fiscal Services under the Facilities Manager

CLERY COLLABORATION ACROSS MULTIPLE DEPARTMENTS

The Facilities Manager handles the safety report creation, while the head of financial aid helps with data collection, compliance, and other coordination efforts

HEALTH AND SAFETY COMMITTEE IS LED BY FACILITIES MANAGER

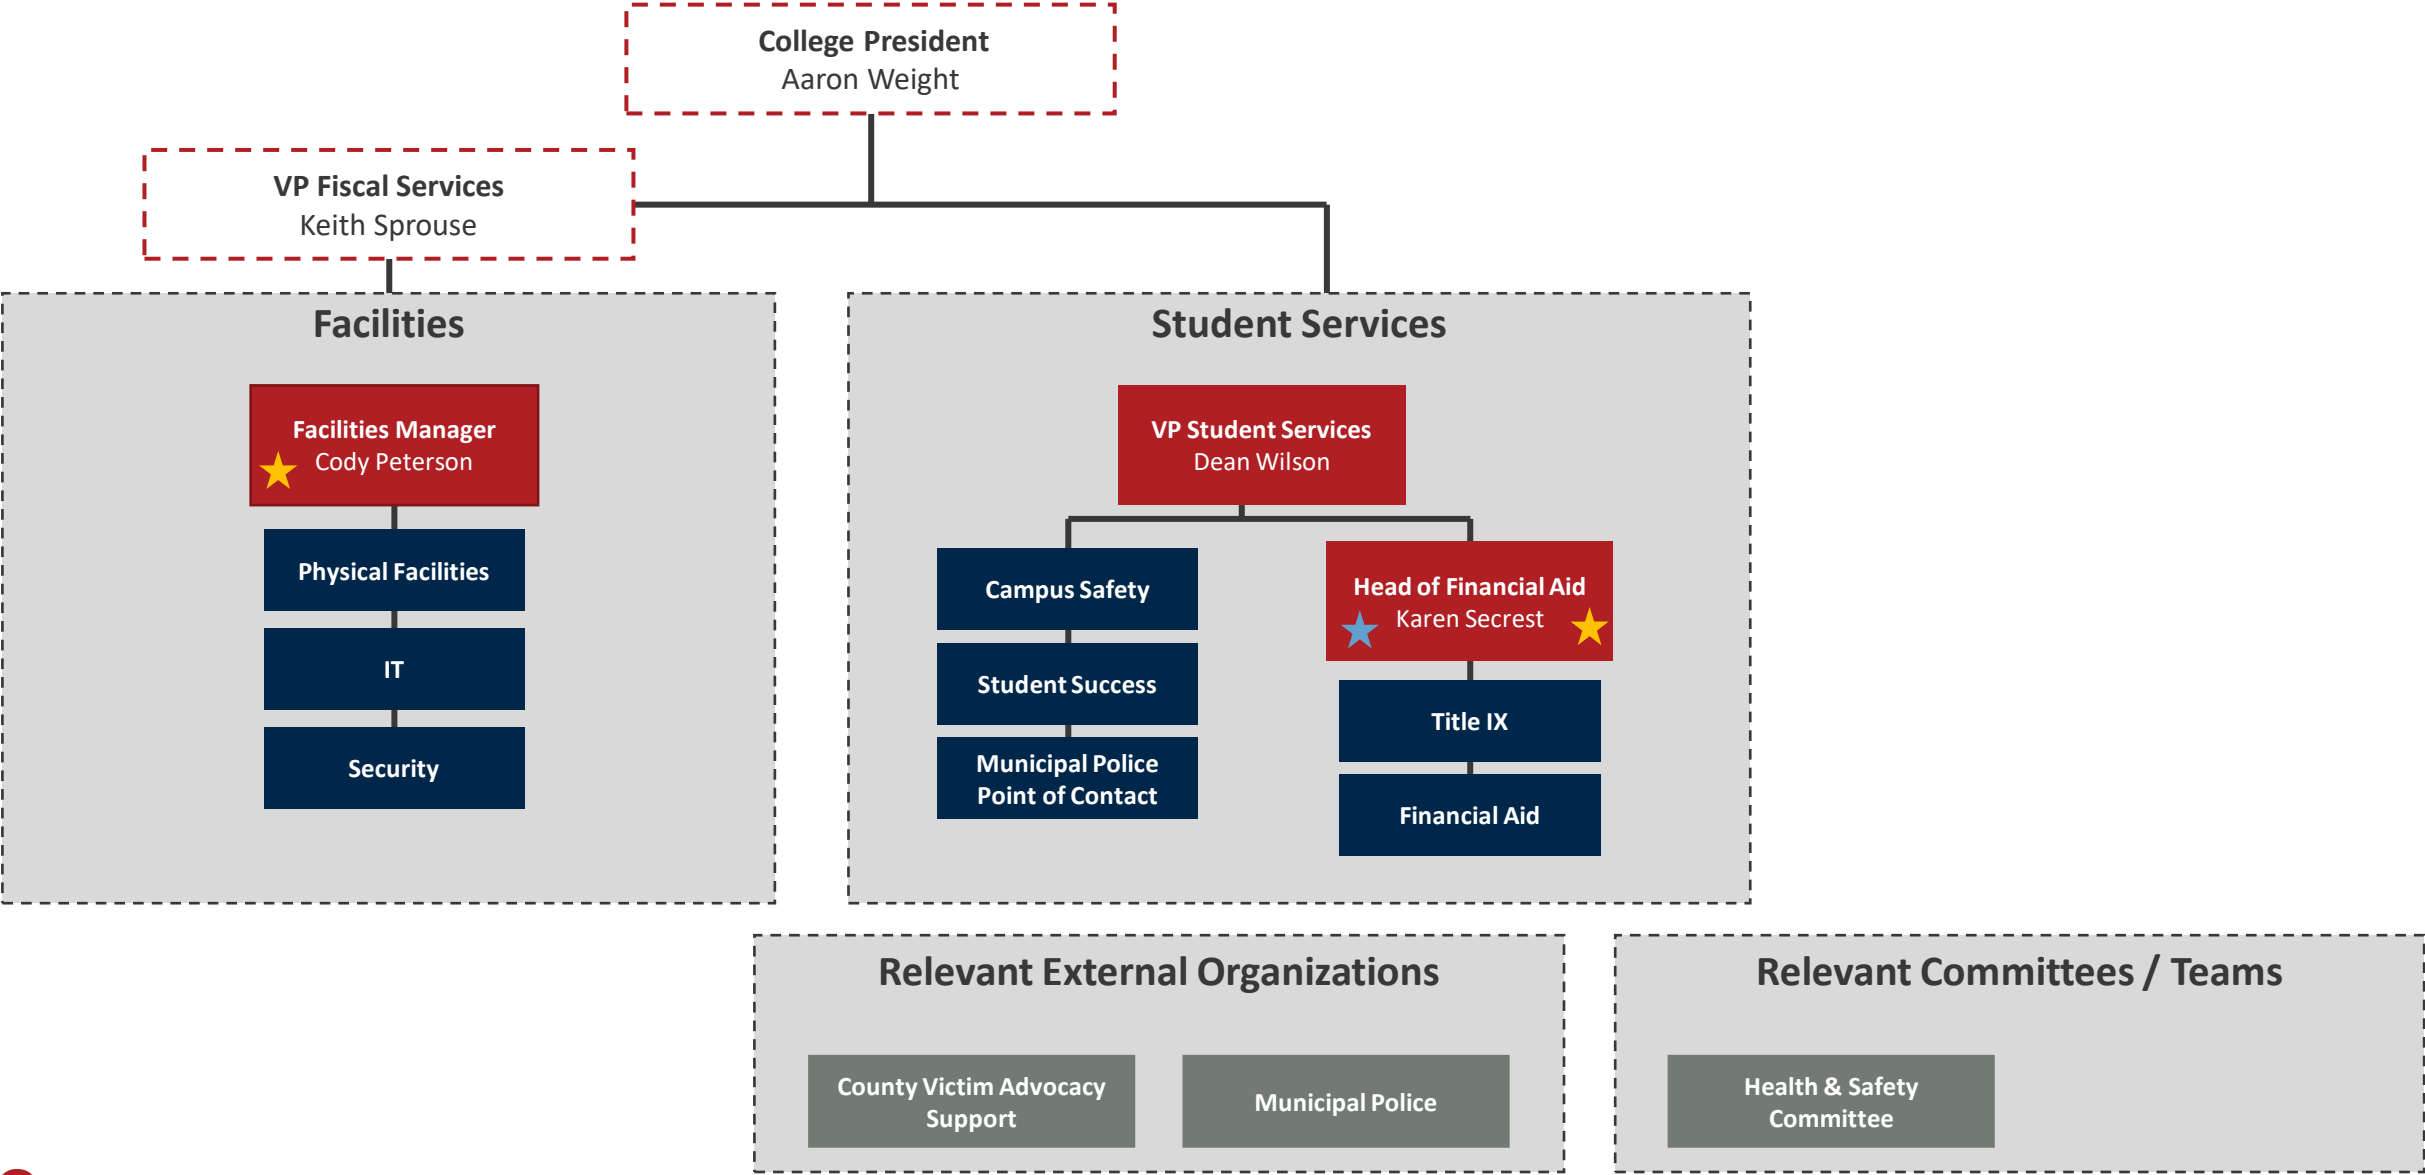

UB Tech's facility manager and student success officer were recently made co-chairs of a health and safety committee that reviews the health and safety plan, does different drills, reviews incidents, discusses training topics, etc.

EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT RESPONSIBILTIES FALL UNDER FACILITIES MANAGEMENT

The facilities manager oversees emergency management, with the direct input of the health and safety committee

Campus Safety Team – Organizational Structure

Reporting & Incidence Response – Key Learnings

ASSIGNED, ON-SITE MUNICIPAL POLICE OFFICERS

UB Tech contracts with local police agencies to provide a police officer on campus throughout the week from 7am – 4pm. An MOU is in place that describes the nature of the agreement and officers have dedicated office space at each school

COUNTY DISPATCH CONNECTS DIRECTLY TO ON-SITE OFFICERS

Both UB Tech campuses use the local county dispatch; the dispatch systems direct calls right to on-site officers based on geographical jurisdiction

VICTIM ADVOCATE SUPPORT COMES FROM EXTERNAL PARTNER

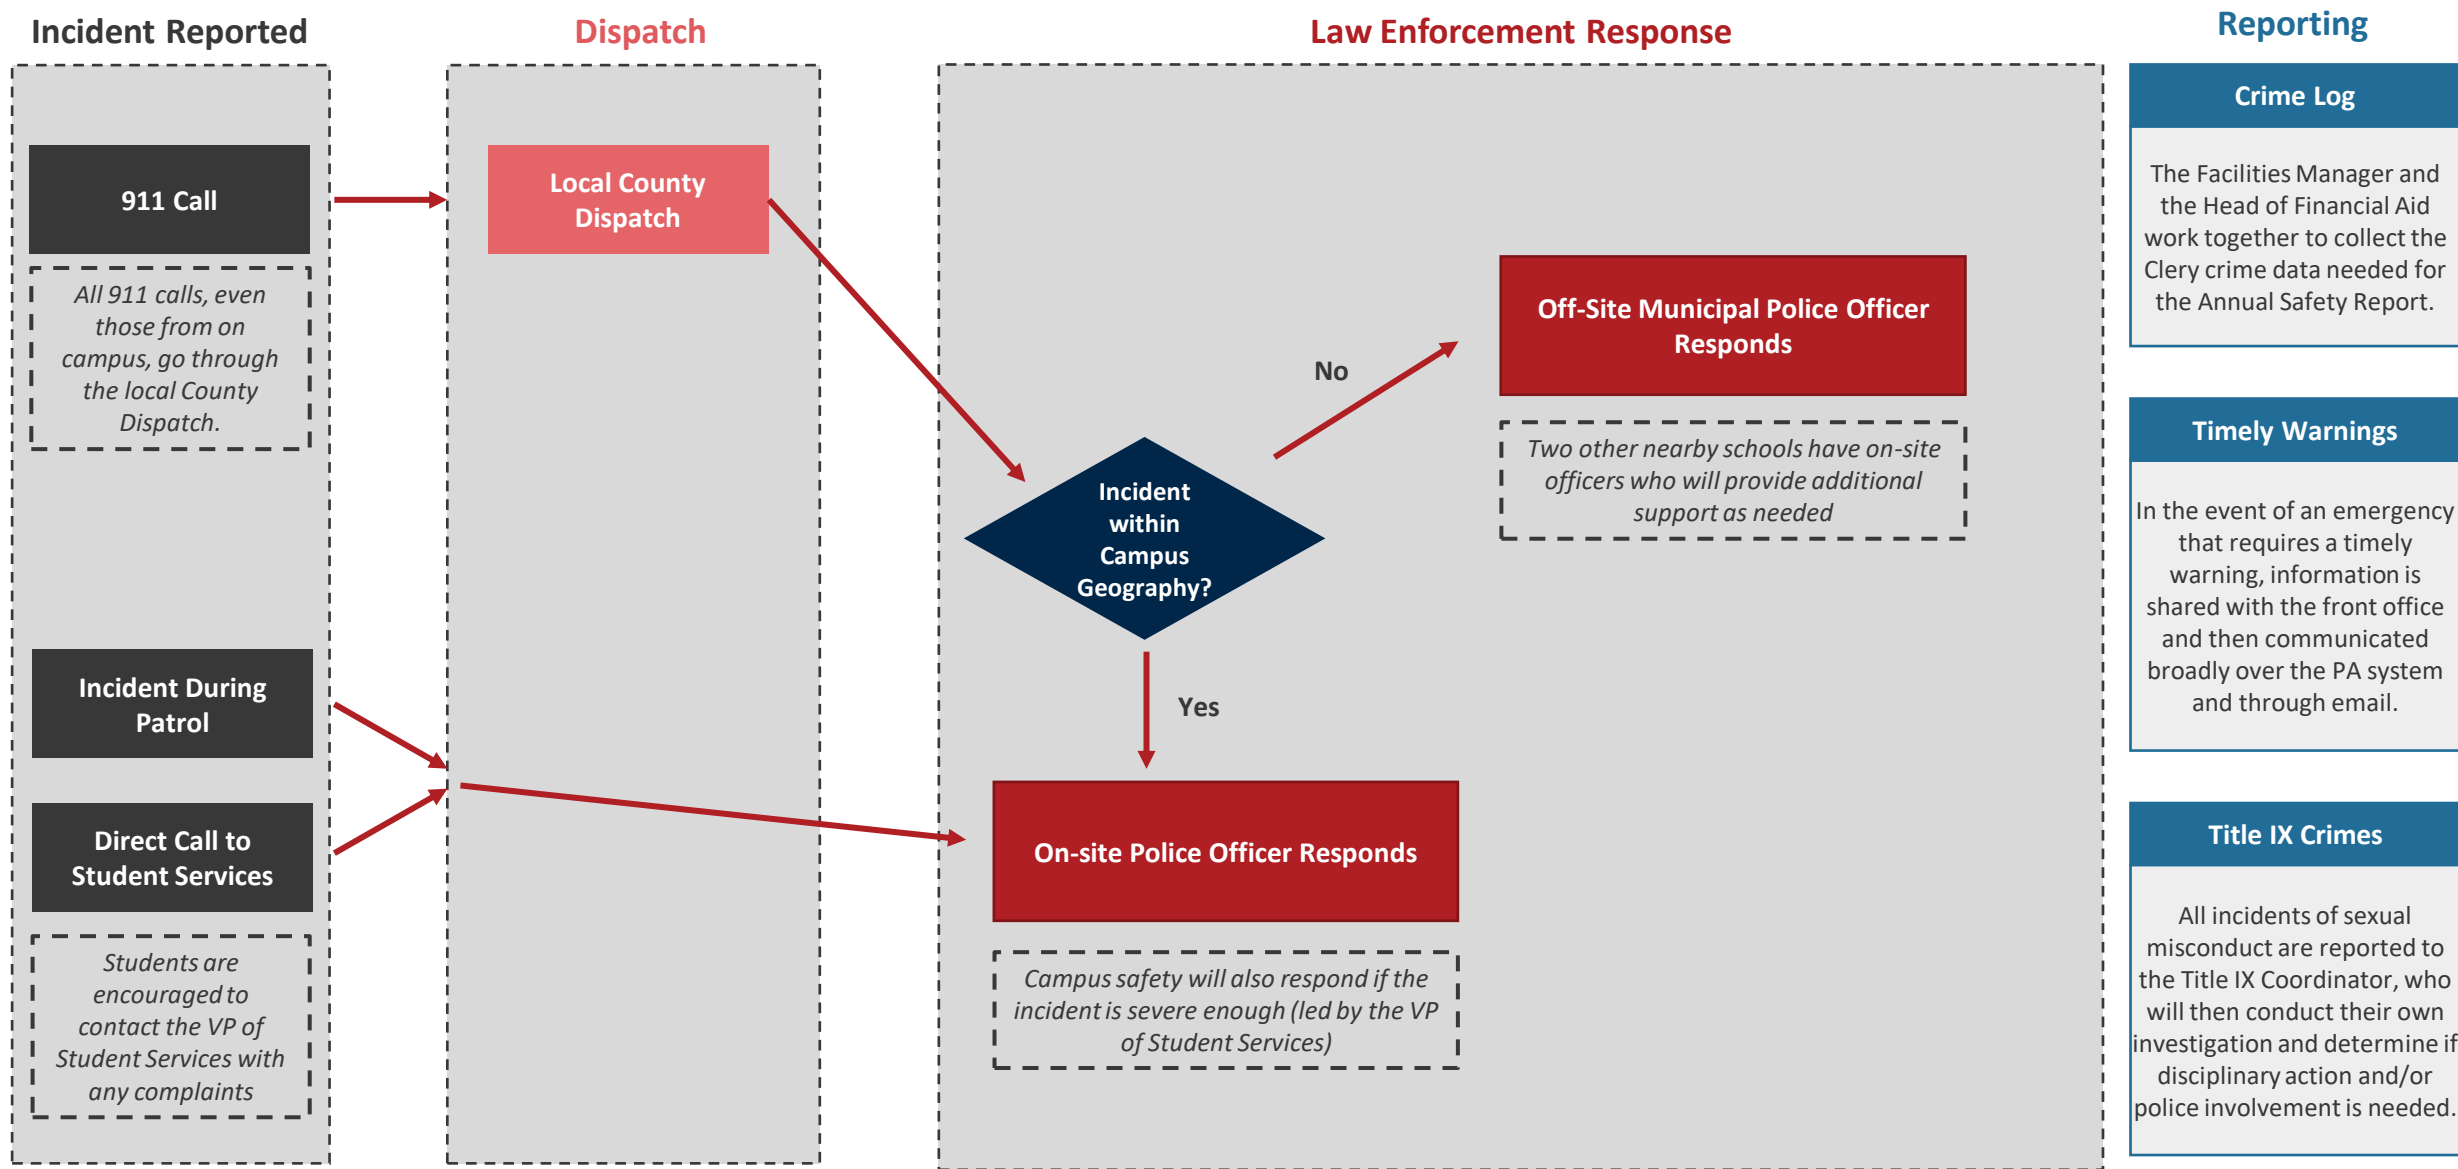

UB Tech uses external resources at the county level for victim advocacy and counseling support; the justice system provides additional help for students under 18 given that many minors are on campus

STUDENT SERVICES HANDLES ALL OTHER COMPLAINTS

Any other safety-related calls that don't go to the police go directly to the VP of Student Services. In the student handbook, students are directed to go to the VP of Student Services with any complaints.

Hiring / Onboarding / Training – Key Learnings

USE EVERFI FOR TITLE IX AND OTHER TRAININGS

Online training presentations covering Title IX, alcohol use, and other topics are provided through EverFi to students across campus. These trainings are only required for students who will be in Skills USA or off-campus representing the school for any other reason.

HEALTH AND SAFETY COMMITTEE OVERSEES SAFETY RELATED TRAINING

The Health and Safety Committee has a training schedule with active shooter, fire, and lockdown drills covered every year; other topics are rotated into the schedule based on needs and committee input

POLICE TRAINING DETERMINED BY THE MUNICIPALITY

UB Tech does not require any additional training for on-site officers on top of what is provided and required by the municipality

NEW DIVERSITY OFFICER

The college recruiter was recently made the diversity officer. As this role is brand new, the responsibilities of that role are still being decided.

Campus Safety Organizational Considerations

1

ELEVATING DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY TO THE CABINET

Many campus safety departments report through business affairs rather than directly to the president; how deep within the organization the department lives can be indicative of its relative importance

2

MOVING CLERY ACT OUT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY

As long as the Clery Act lives in the department of public safety, it will be treated like a police issue; in reality, the Clery Act requires involvement from a number of different departments

3

UNIQUE LEADERSHIP REQUIREMENTS FOR HEAD OF PUBLIC SAFETY

Leaders must be able to navigate complex organizations and build relationships with stakeholders across multiple departments; the traditional skillset of a Chief of Police may not be fit for this role

4

STANDARDIZING CAMPUS SAFETY ACROSS THE SYSTEM

Many university systems (e.g., UT System) have systemwide leadership, policies, trainings, reporting procedures, meetings, etc.*

Trends in Systemwide Standardization

Key Areas of Standardization

Leaderships Positions

Systemwide leadership roles across policing, risk management, compliance, etc.

Hiring and Applications

Candidates apply through a system-level application and hiring process

Policies and Procedures

Documented policies and procedures at the system level regarding various aspects of campus safety

Cross-campus Meetings

Regularly occurring meeting cadence with campus safety leadership across different campuses

Training

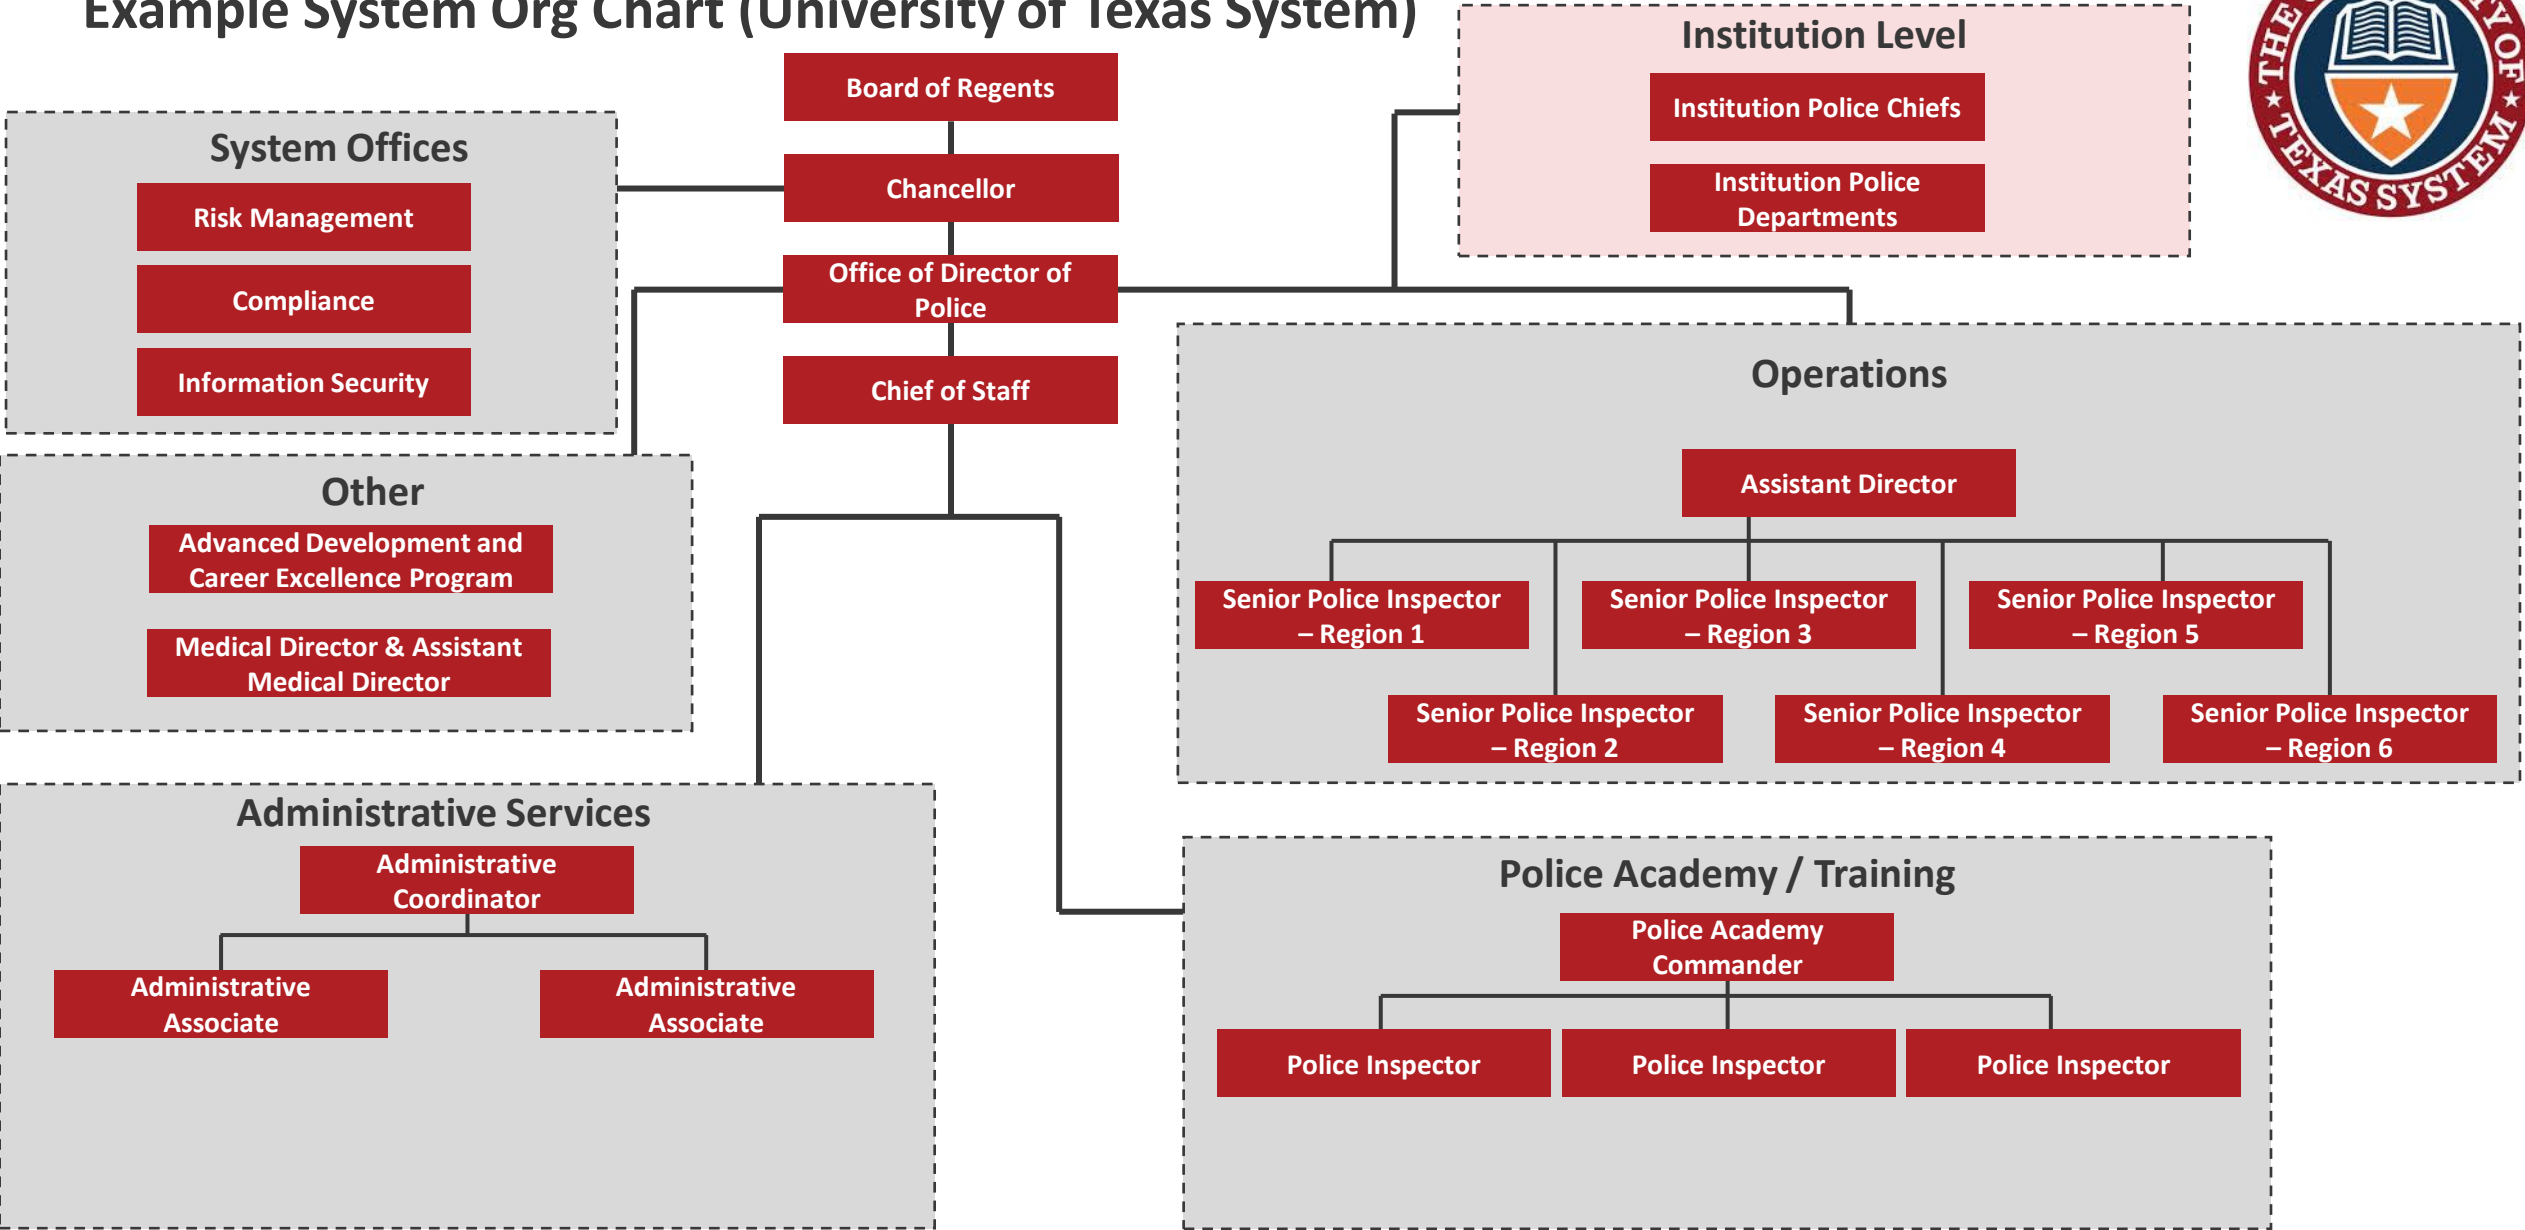

Content creation, scheduling, and training delivery provided by the system

Award Programs

Opportunities for recognition and notoriety at the system level through a standardized awards program
