

RESOLUTION OF APPRECIATION

WHEREAS, K. Chad Campbell has served as the President of Bridgerland Technical College since 2015, providing steadfast leadership and institutional knowledge throughout his tenure; and

WHEREAS, President Campbell began his career at Bridgerland Technical College in 1985, served for three decades as the institution's chief financial officer before being appointed president, and is concluding a distinguished 41-year career dedicated to advancing technical education in the state of Utah; and

WHEREAS, throughout his 11 years as president, he remained committed to students, employees, and industry partners, while guiding the college through significant growth, campus expansion, governance changes, and evolving workforce needs; and

WHEREAS, under his leadership, the college expanded instructional capacity, strengthened partnerships with employers, enhanced transfer and articulation pathways with Utah's degree-granting institutions, and increased student access to high-demand workforce training programs; and

WHEREAS, President Campbell advanced the college's teaching and learning capabilities by investing in online and hybrid instruction, helping minimize disruption during the COVID-19 pandemic and establishing long-term flexibility to better serve students; and

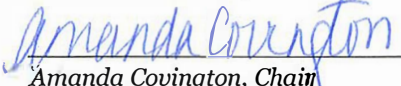

WHEREAS, he played a key role in securing funding for major capital development projects, including the Health Sciences Building, advancing strategic campus planning through property acquisitions, and establishing the college's first chief development officer position to strengthen partnerships and expand resource development efforts; and

WHEREAS, President Campbell's extraordinary leadership went beyond the college through service on numerous boards and leadership committees, including the Cache Valley Chamber of Commerce, the Northern Utah Chamber Coalition, and legislative and higher education committees focused on workforce and facilities planning; and

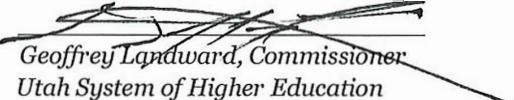

WHEREAS, his vision, dedication, and commitment to technical education have strengthened Bridgerland Technical College's capacity to serve students, employers, and communities throughout northern Utah and the state;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Utah Board of Higher Education, joined by the Commissioner of Higher Education and his entire staff, and institution presidents, faculty, staff, students, and community partners, hereby extend sincere expressions of appreciation and gratitude to K. Chad Campbell for his exemplary leadership and decades of dedicated service to Bridgerland Technical College and the state of Utah and wish him, and his wife, Lisa, continued success and fulfillment in his retirement and future endeavors.

Dated this 11th day of June 2026.

Amanda Covington, Chair
Utah Board of Higher Education

Geoffrey Landward, Commissioner
Utah System of Higher Education