School counseling or guidance office

• Ask: “Who can I talk to about scholarships in high school?”
• Set up a time to meet and be prepared with questions:
  • Where can I find a list of scholarships and deadlines?
  • Are there any scholarships specific to our school?
  • Where have students received scholarships from our school scholarships in the past?
  • What tips or workshops are available to teach me to be a better applicant?
  • What resources should I use?
• Apply to as many scholarships as possible.
• Scholarships upon admission
  • Many Utah colleges have automatic scholarship opportunities when students apply
  • Some colleges do have separate scholarship applications

• Departmental scholarships
  • Such as band, dance, sciences, social sciences, STEM, etc.

• Leadership scholarships
  • Both externally and internally

• Private scholarships
  • Some private donors provide opportunities through the college

Apply through your college or university
Explore employer-sponsored tuition

• Tuition reduction
  • Employer benefits that provide reduced tuition

• Tuition reimbursement
  • Employer benefits that reimburse employees for tuition costs

• Employee scholarships
  • Award opportunity for an employee

• Both parents’ or students’ employers may offer this benefit
Community scholarships

Many community organizations and local businesses provide scholarship opportunities.

• Inquire at your credit union
• Check with local businesses
• Ask community organizations

National scholarships vs. local scholarships

• Local scholarships can increase chances of earning the award due to smaller applicant pools

Apply for small scholarships, too, $250-1,000 scholarships can reduce out-of-pocket costs
Search for scholarships online

An online search for scholarships can go a long way.

Some websites and apps we recommend are:

• USHE.edu/state-scholarships-aid
• Key to Success app – KTSutah.org
• Myscholly.com
• Bigfuture.collegeboard.org/scholarships
• Unigo.com
• Chegg.com/scholarships
• Goingmerry.com
• Fastweb.com
• Scholarships.com
• Cappex.com
• Niche.com
• Careeronestop.org

*Be aware of scams and fraudulent applications. Never pay to apply for a scholarship. If a website looks sketchy, then just leave and move on to an official site.
File the FAFSA

Although the FAFSA doesn’t give scholarships, it may be required to qualify for scholarships.

• Examples of scholarships that could require the FAFSA:
  • State scholarships (e.g. Opportunity Scholarship and Utah Promise Scholarship)
  • Technical college, community college, and university scholarships
  • Private scholarships

Commonly, scholarships requiring the FAFSA are based on need. However, that isn’t always the case.

• The best example is the Opportunity Scholarship which is merit-based.

FAFSA Required
What will the FAFSA ask?

The FAFSA attempts to calculate a family’s ability to pay for college
The FAFSA will ask for:

- Demographic information like age and family size
- High school information and college interests
- Tax information, income, and assets for the student and parent(s)
Create an FSA ID and complete the FAFSA (Fall)

Receive, complete, and return offer letter (Winter/Spring)

If eligible for Work-Study, apply for jobs on campus (Summer/Year-Round)

Complete FAFSA verification (if selected, Winter/Spring)

Complete entrance counseling & sign Master Promissory Note (Federal Loans only)

Aid is disbursed to the college (happens each term or semester)
What is the Student Aid Index (SAI)?

• Colleges use your SAI to calculate what aid a student qualifies for
  • Need = Cost of Attendance (COA) – Student Aid Index (SAI) – Other Financial Assistance (OFA)
• Completing the FAFSA generates your SAI
• A lower SAI demonstrates a higher need and offers access to need-based aid
• With higher SAI, aid options may still be available
• Research alternative ways to pay for college
• Note: most financial resources require FAFSA completion
What is FAFSA Verification?

- The process of confirming the information provided on the FAFSA
- Not everyone is selected
- In most cases, verification is processed by the college or university
- Verification does not mean that a student is in trouble.
What is a financial aid offer letter?

• A letter sent by the college or university, usually via email or student portal
• The letter outlines types and amounts of aid offered:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Federal aid</th>
<th>State aid</th>
<th>Institutional aid</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Same amount between colleges</td>
<td>Varies between colleges</td>
<td>Varies between colleges</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Use these offers to “shop around”
Student Loans

- All students who complete the FAFSA will be awarded a student loan
- Loans are not automatically disbursed to a student’s college account
- Students must either accept or decline their loan
- Exhaust all financial resources before accepting a student loan

If you borrow federal student loans, Entrance Counseling is required before loans are disbursed for use.

Online modules explain loan terms and conditions:
  • Interest
  • How to remain eligible for aid
  • Repayment
What is work-study?

• A part-time job, usually on-campus, that is federally funded
• Positions are usually flexible with class schedules
• Not all students qualify. If they do, an amount will be included in the offer letter
• Students must apply for work-study jobs
• Earning does not go against aid for future years in college
• Other benefits

Consider Working While in College

Work-study jobs, part-time employment, seasonal roles, and internships all offer opportunities to learn and grow outside of the classroom while earning a degree.

Click the icons to watch the video
Federal Work-Study Programs

Work study is a part-time position, usually offered on campus. Many work-study jobs offer flexible schedules around classes and exam calendars and can help build connections with faculty and peers.

Work-Study Job Opportunities:
- Student Center Role
- Research Assistant
- Off-Campus Position
- Fitness Center Position
- Library Support Role
Here are some questions to ask when looking for employment and earning your degree at the same time:

- Will this job bring me closer to my goal of graduation?
- Will I be able to manage the work-load along with school?
- Is this job getting me experience and networking opportunities in my field of study?

Part-Time Employment

Students can be more successful in education when working part-time compared to working full-time.

Balancing work and academics can be a challenge, but it’s important to make studying a priority.

Seek opportunities that align with your interests and career goals! They may provide valuable experiences and connections.
Summer and Seasonal Jobs

One of the best ways to save for school is by taking advantage of working full-time during seasonal breaks, during the summer or winter.

Explore seasonal employment opportunities, like:

• Summer programs
• Become a lifeguard, camp counselor, or outdoor guide
• Retail opportunities
• Hospitality positions in restaurants, hotels, etc.
• Check local listings for options in the community.
Internships are professional learning experiences that give students exposure to a business or organization related to the student’s field of study.

Internships can be a good way to gain:
• Hands-on experience
• Resume-building assets
• Networking opportunities
• Credits to graduate (required by some programs)
• Monetary compensation (sometimes)

Creative Ways to Cut Costs
Creative Ways to Cut Costs
Plan ahead and save more

It’s possible to lower out-of-pocket costs for college by planning ahead and learning about higher education options available in Utah. It can be as simple as earning good grades to qualify for scholarships, or volunteering in the community.
Increase GPA by earning good grades. Stay focused, and study

Take the ACT/SAT exams more than once to earn a higher score

• Pro-Tip: Focus on a different subject each time to increase the score in each category. The highest score of each category is used for what colleges are looking for, not the best score from one exam.

Volunteer

• Volunteer in the community, or participate in school leadership, clubs, or extracurriculars like intermural sports or performing arts

1, 2, 4, or more (right college fit)

• Not all college degrees require a four-year commitment or more. There are technical certifications and associate degrees offered by Utah colleges that can equate to one to two-year programs, depending on the field of study.
High School Students

Earn college credit in high school by participating in these programs:

• Concurrent Enrollment (CE)
• Advanced Placement (AP)
• International Baccalaureate (IB)
• Dual Enrollment classes at a technical college
Housing: To reduce housing expenses, consider living at home or with roommates to save on on-campus housing.

Textbooks: Save on textbooks by renting or buying used copies. Students can also use the library reserve as an alternative to brand-new textbooks.

Take advantage of plateau tuition

- Plateau tuition – or “banded” tuition – is a set tuition price for undergraduate students within a set range of credits. In other words, at almost all Utah colleges, it is the same tuition and fees for students to take 15 credits a semester as it is for them to take 12.

Earn credits to graduate on time.
College Students

Become a resident assistant for on-campus housing and save on tuition or consider running for student leadership positions that offer scholarships. Becoming a presidential ambassador can also be beneficial for some students.

Research and ask about student discounts out and around town.

See if your college provides transportation benefits which can reduce transportation and commuter expenses.

Consider the Western Undergraduate Exchange (WUE) by WICHE if attending college out-of-state.

- Through the WUE program, students enroll in colleges or universities outside their home state and pay no more than 150% of that institution’s resident tuition rate. Since nonresident tuition can cost 300% (or more) of resident rates, the WUE discount saves students $9,000 a year on average.

Deferment

The option to postpone or delay college enrollment and scholarships for a period of time.

• What reasons do students have to defer college?
  • Military service
  • Religious services
  • Humanitarian service
  • Personal circumstances such as illness, family responsibilities, or financial constraints
  • Research, internships, or other educational experiences

• Some reasons for deferment may not be eligible depending on the college. Contact the college for eligible reasons to defer attendance.

• Make sure to inform the college or university about plans to defer admission and scholarships.
Most colleges require that students apply, be admitted, and be accepted before they can defer. In short, students usually have to decide on a college before being able to defer attendance.

Federal financial aid such as grants, work-study, and student loans CANNOT be deferred. However, we recommend that students still complete the FAFSA and apply for scholarships. Why?

- Backup plan
- Some deferrable scholarships require FAFSA completion, such as the Opportunity Scholarship
- The form auto-fills information the next time, making it easier to complete upon return
- More resources and assistance are available while students are still in high school. So, learning and understanding how to apply to college and file the FAFSA are skills students can rely on later when they return to college after

*Each college has different policies and procedures. The examples above may not be or could be deferred depending on the institution.

FAFSA FAQs: Ineligible Students

Question:

• If a student is ineligible for federal student aid (grants, work-study, student loans), what options do they have to pay for college?

Answer:

• Private scholarships are always an option.
• If a student needs to do the FAFSA to qualify for a scholarship, work with their college’s financial aid office or Dream Centers (UofU/SLCC).
• In-state tuition may also be an option – have the student ask their college or university if they qualify under House Bill 144.

• Attended a Utah high school for at least 3 years
• Has a Utah high school diploma or Utah GED
  • Submit a high school transcript with graduation date listed
• Signs and submits an HB 144 affidavit.

House Bill (HB) 118
• For students who are foreign nationals or legally admitted into the United States with F-1, H-4, or J-1 visas.

House Bill (HB) 102

Students with Disabilities
Modifications vs. Accommodations

Modifications: K-12

• Modifications are made to assignments and the curriculum to meet the Free Access to Publication Education, also known as FAPE, requirements in secondary education.
  • E.g., reduced number of questions on assignments, reduction topics covered in class, use a word list or list of math formulas

Accommodations: Higher Education

• Accommodations are made on college campuses to create accessibility for students with disabilities, but adjustments aren’t made to the course requirements or the curriculum
  • E.g., specialized tutoring, recorded/audiobooks, class notetakers, preferential seating, lecture notes, study guides, etc.

FERPA form - Student Information Release Form

“FERPA gives parents certain rights with respect to their children's education records. These rights transfer to the student when he or she reaches the age of 18 or attends a school beyond the high school level.” – U.S. Department of Education

- The student needs to request the FERPA form. A parent cannot.
  - The student must agree to who is listed as the recipient in order to release records if it’s an individual other than the student with access to records.

- This can be beneficial if the student is deferring enrollment or taking a gap year.
  - e.g., military service, ecclesiastical mission, humanitarian service, etc.

Remember that if you want a trusted adult involved in your college information, meetings, and conversations, you should want this form signed.
