Utah dreamers and DACA recipients:

Utah House Bill 144 allows in-state tuition for Utah high school graduates who are Utah residents and either U.S. citizens, U.S.永久居民, or DACA recipients. The students must have lived in Utah for at least 14 of the past 20 years. The law was signed by Governor Gary Herbert.

FAFSA

The application process for financial aid includes completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Pell grants are included in FAFSA, along with work-study and other financial aid for students who meet eligibility requirements.

For students who meet eligibility requirements, the process includes entering Alien Registration Number (ARN) on the FAFSA application.
