INTRODUCTION

THE ANNUAL CAMPUS SECURITY AND FIRE SAFETY REPORT is provided to students, faculty, staff, and the public as part of Utah State University's commitment to safety and security on campus, and in compliance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (Clery Act). This report is also USU's Campus Safety Plan in compliance with Utah Code (section 53B-28-401). Campus crime, arrests, and referral statistics include those reported to the USU Police Department (USUPD), the Logan City Police Department (LCPD), other local law enforcement agencies, and designated campus security authorities (CSAs). The information contained in this report is intended to educate all campus community members, prospective students, and the public about the policies, procedures, and programs that exist to assist in protecting the safety and wellbeing of campus constituents. This report contains current information as of Oct. 1, 2019.

THE CLERY ACT

THE CLERY ACT IS NAMED FOR JEANNE CLERY, a 19-year-old Lehigh University student who was raped and killed in her dorm room in 1986. The law was originally enacted in 1990 as the Crime Awareness and Campus Security Act (Title II of Public Law 101-542), which amended the Higher Education Act of 1965 (HEA). The Clery Act requires all postsecondary educational institutions participating in Title IV student financial aid programs to disclose campus crime statistics and security information. Specifically, higher education institutions subject to the law must do the following:

- Collect, report, and disseminate crime data in a daily crime log.
- Develop policies, policy statements, and procedures regarding campus safety.
- Prepare and distribute an annual security and fire safety report.
- Issue timely warnings and emergency notifications to the campus community.
- Submit crime statistics to the U.S. Department of Education.

The Clery Act was amended by the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013 (VAWA) to address incidents of sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking. VAWA requires certain policies and procedures to be in place to reduce these crimes and meet the needs of victims. This information is included in this report.

PREPARING THE ANNUAL SECURITY REPORT

The report is prepared on an annual basis by the USU Clery Compliance Committee, which includes representatives from USUPD and USU Public Safety, Legal Affairs, the Office of Equity (Title IX), and University Marketing and Communications. Information is gathered from a variety of sources, including USUPD, Residence Life, Office of Student Conduct, the Title IX Coordinator in the Office of Equity, and law enforcement agencies that have jurisdiction over non-campus properties. For additional information or to submit changes and corrections, please contact Earl Morris, Executive Director of Public Safety, at (435) 797-1939 | earl.morris@usu.edu.

1. Daily Crime Log

USUPD and USUEPD keep a daily crime log in accordance with the Clery Act. The daily crime log includes the date, time, general location, nature of the incident, and the status (arrest, active, inactive). Entries do not include personally identifying information or specific enough information that could reveal a victim's name.

USU Eastern (Price) daily crime log: usueastern.edu/campus-safety/police/disclosure

2. The Annual Security Report (ASR)

In order to comply with the Clery Act, the USU Public Safety executive director or appointed designee will fill the role of Clery compliance officer and collects crime statistics, disciplinary referrals, and other information required by the Clery Act for the three most recent calendar years. The Clery compliance officer carefully analyzes all crimes reported, and all crimes subject to the Clery Act are accurately reported and published on an annual basis in the ASR.

3. Collection of Statistics from Local Law Enforcement Agencies

Prior to the preparation of the ASR, the Clery compliance officer will undertake a good faith effort to collect crime statistics from any law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over any property subject to reporting under the Clery Act (Clery Geography). This includes any criminal activity on public property adjacent to university or at non-campus locations owned by student organizations officially recognized by the university, including fraternities and sororities. USUPD also uses the same software to track crime reports as other local police departments near the Logan campus in order to facilitate coordination and collaboration, as well as collect crime information. Reports made in this system that include known USU students or fraternity or sorority housing are flagged for USUPD.

4. Distribution of the Annual Security Report (ASR)

The Clery compliance officer shall distribute the ASR and Annual Fire Safety report annually in accordance with the requirements of the

CAMPUS LAW ENFORCEMENT AUTHORITY

UTAH STATE UNIVERSITY has a Department of Public Safety that includes the USUPD and USUEPD, a fire marshal and four deputy fire marshals, and the director of USU Emergency Management along with two emergency management coordinators. While Public Safety works with other statewide campuses on safety concerns, only the campuses in Logan and Price have law enforcement provided by USU Public Safety.

All officers receive ongoing training under regulatory guidelines established by the Utah Department of Public Safety. This training includes such areas as crime prevention, domestic violence, active shooter, criminal investigation, first-aid, firearms, defensive tactics, crowd control, traffic accident investigation, and constitutional and statutory law, etc. The primary objective of the USU Public Safety is to provide a campus environment where students, faculty, and staff feel safe to pursue the academic mission of the university without the fear of crime.

Dispatch Non-Emergency: (435) 797-1939

LOGAN CAMPUS

USUPD HAS JURISDICTION OVER AND INVESTIGATES ALL LAW ENFORCEMENT RELATED ISSUES occurring on the contiguous Logan campus. On the Logan campus, Public Safety has twelve full-time and five part-time state-certified police officers, with full officer status including the authority to enforce criminal statutes and make arrests (Utah Code section 53B-3-105). Seven part-time security officers help keep the campus safe, but they do not have authority to make arrests. Public Safety has two full-time and five part-time dispatchers who take emergency and safety calls on campus. In addition the Logan campus has one fingerprint technologist and an administrative assistant.

Crimes in progress, suspicious circumstances, medical emergencies, and other campus emergencies should be immediately reported to the USUPD. A university officer will respond to investigate and will initiate an incident report. In the event of an emergency you should dial 911 to report the incident. If you are on a campus phone, your call will be received by USUPD. If you are on a cell phone your call will be received by the Logan City Emergency Dispatch Center, which will forward information you provide to USUPD for response.

USU EASTERN (PRICE) CAMPUS

USUEPD HAS TWO FULL-TIME AND SIX PART-TIME STATE-CERTIFIED POLICE OFFICERS who have full peace officer status under state statute, including the authority to make arrests (Utah Code section 53B-3-105). USUEPD has jurisdiction over and investigates all law enforcement related issues occurring on the USU Eastern campus. Crimes in progress, suspicious circumstances, medical emergencies, and other campus emergencies should be immediately reported to the USUEPD. REPORTING CRIMES AND OTHER EMERGENCIES

1. Reporting Crimes and Emergencies

Students and others who become aware of criminal actions or other emergencies on campus should report these activities for assistance, to prevent crime, to help the University make timely warning reports, to improve safety, and for purposes of including the activities in the ASR. Reports may be in any form desired, including via phone, in writing, or in person. The university encourages accurate and prompt reporting of all crimes to USUPD and other appropriate police agencies. Reports of crimes should be made by phone, in person or online using the contact information for the campuses above or by using any of the 28 blue emergency phones located strategically in parking lots and public areas on the Logan campus.

USUPD and USUEPD respond to reports in accordance with law enforcement protocol and may make informational and/or disciplinary referrals to other university offices when appropriate

Criminal actions and other prohibited conduct may also be reported to the offices listed below.

- Office of Student Conduct in the Division of Student Affairs.
- Department of Human Resources.
- USU Residence Life on the Logan Campus.

- An employee designated as a Campus Security Authority (CSAs).
- The Office of Equity, which has Title IX oversight.

Reports made to these persons or offices and not made to USUPD may be included in the crime statistics section in the ASR, but may not necessarily be investigated by the police. Although the university strongly encourages all members of the campus community to report crimes to law enforcement, it is ultimately the victim's choice whether or not to make such a report and the victim has the right to decline involvement with the police or other campus officials, subject to the reporting requirements in section 4.1.2 of USU Policy 533. University staff members at the offices listed above will assist any victim with notifying the police, if the victim so desires.

Anyone concerned about the wellbeing of a student may also inform the university, which may forward reports of distressed or disruptive students to the Behavioral Intervention Team. This team includes representatives from the Office of Student Conduct, Counseling and Psychological Resources, Residence Life, and USUPD.

2. Campus Security Authority's Responsibility to Report

Any CSA who becomes aware of an alleged or actual crime that is required to be reported under the Clery Act and that occurred on Clery-designated geography must report all information known about the crime to USUPD. A CSA is anyone who is:

- A member of the campus police or security department.
- Responsible for campus security, but not a campus police officer.
- An individual designated by the institution as someone to whom crimes should be reported.
- Someone with significant responsibility for student and campus activities.

3. Reporting Crimes on a Voluntary, Confidential Basis

To the extent possible, the university wants to support individuals who have been the victim of or witnessed a crime. In particular, the university encourages those who have been the victim of sexual violence or dating/domestic violence to talk to someone about what happened in order to get needed support. However, certain policies and laws prevent the university from guaranteeing complete confidentiality, as more fully described below (Policy 533, section 4.1.3).

- Under USU Policies 305 Discrimination Complaints and 339 Sexual Harassment, unless specifically exempted, all employees are Responsible Employees and are required to report information to the Office of Equity regarding discriminatory harassment, which includes reports of sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, stalking, etc.
- All employees who are Campus Security Authorities, as defined herein, must report criminal activities in accordance with this policy and the Clery Act.
- University Police, the Office of Equity, and other university authorities must comply with applicable law in determining whether certain crimes must be investigated or disclosed further to others. The university may be required to disclose information beyond the University under federal law, state law, or court order.
- Disclosure of information is always limited to those who need to know in order to keep the campus community safe and to comply with applicable law.
- Individuals who witness or are the victim of a crime, but who are concerned about identifying information being shared with others should make those concerns known prior to reporting to a University employee. Employees responsible for reporting such information should alert individuals of their reporting responsibilities as soon as possible. If the employee is required to make a report to other university officials, such employees should communicate the desires of the witness or victim regarding confidentiality.
- Even if confidentiality or no action on a report of crime is requested, the occurrence of the crime (but not identifying information) will be included in the university's ASR and the information available will be evaluated to determine if there is a pattern of crime with regard to a particular location, method, or suspect. In appropriate circumstances, USU Public Safety will alert the campus community of the occurrence of the crime (but not identifying information) pursuant to section 4.7 of USU Policy 533.
- Individuals may file an anonymous report of a crime. However, such anonymous reports are not considered notice by the university and may limit the ability of the police or others to provide specific assistance, or to investigate, or solve a crime. Students may make an online anonymous report at title.usu.edu. These crimes will be reported in the university's ASR in accordance with the Clery Act.
- Professional and pastoral counselors are not required to report crimes disclosed to them for inclusion in the annual disclosure of crime statistics. However, professional and pastoral counselors are encouraged, if and when they deem it appropriate, to inform the persons they are counseling of how to report crimes on a voluntary, confidential basis for inclusion in the annual disclosure of crime statistics.

4. Preservation of Evidence

It is important to preserve evidence that may assist in proving the alleged criminal offense occurred or for obtaining a protection order. As time passes, evidence may dissipate, become lost, or unavailable, thereby making investigations, possible prosecutions, disciplinary proceedings, or obtaining orders for protection from abuse related to the incident more difficult. If a victim chooses not to make a complaint regarding an incident, he or she nevertheless should consider speaking with the University Police or other law enforcement to preserve evidence in the event that the victim changes her/his mind at a later date and moves forward with making a complaint. (USU Policy 533, section 4.1.4)

5. False Accusations

Individuals who intentionally and knowingly make false accusations of criminal activity or provide false information to university officials in connection with an accusation and/or investigation of criminal activity, are subject to discipline under university policy as well as criminal and/or civil penalties under applicable law (USU Policy 533, section 4.1.5)

LOCAL LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES

LOGAN

USUPD HAS A CLOSE WORKING RELATIONSHIP with the Logan City Police Department (LCPD), Cache County Sheriff's Office, North Park Police Department, Smithfield City Police Department, and other law enforcement agencies throughout the State of Utah. Personnel from USUPD attend monthly meetings with other law enforcement agencies in the valley to exchange ideas and discuss problems that may be of concern to the university community. Because USUPD has full police authority by state statute, there is no memorandum of understanding with local police departments regarding the investigation of alleged criminal offenses on university property. USU does have agreements with local police departments regarding mutual aid and interlocal cooperations.

LOGAN CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT

Students may report crimes that occur off campus to LCPD, whose jurisdiction includes all off-campus student housing facilities within the Logan city limits. Specifically, housing facilities of fraternities and sororities are not university property. LCPD provides law enforcement services for these locations, and provides USUPD with statistics of crimes covered under the Clery Act included in the non-campus column in the crime statistics included in this report.

CRIME AWARENESS AND PREVENTION PROGRAMS

USUPD and USUEPD offer several crime prevention programs to educate campus groups about ways to protect themselves and their property and encourage the immediate reporting of all crimes or suspicious incidents. These programs are provided upon request to campus groups and on a scheduled basis to staff in Residence Life before the beginning of each academic year. Programs offered include: Alcohol awareness: effects, impairment, laws, and USU's rules; Theft: identify and document belongings, how to secure belongings; Workplace violence/active shooter: warning signs, what to do, how to protect yourself; Crime prevention: overall crime prevention practices and tips; and Bicycle safety: rules of the road, helmets, right-of-way to pedestrians.

Security or police officers provide a 24-hour walking escort to students and employees to and from campus destinations on both the Logan and Eastern (Price) campuses. Students can call the non-emergency dispatch number for the appropriate campus to schedule a safety escort.

Additionally, information about crime prevention and reporting to police is included in the online orientation for new students at all statewide campuses. Prevention programs provided by other campus partners and targeting sexual violence are described later in this document.

LOGAN

IN 2017 THE USUPD CONDUCTED 213 CRIME PREVENTION PROGRAMS. Most programs are offered toward the beginning of the semesters.

- USUPD offers Rape Aggression Defense every semester as a 1-credit class through the Department of Kinesiology and Health Science. RAD is also offered by request, as well as other seminars and workshops about rape risk reduction and awareness, self-defense technique, and general self-protection awareness.

- At the beginning of each academic year the university student newspaper, the Utah Statesman, publishes a full-page add about USUPD services.
- Information about risk reduction, USUPD services, and how to report are provided through: the student handbook, the new student parent handbook, the new student online orientation, and the on-campus student orientation.
- USUPD provides multiple workshops during the first-year student success class, Connections, taken by the majority of new students on the Logan campus each fall semester. USUPD also participates in the International Student Orientation program during fall, spring, and summer semesters.
- USU Public Safety offers the Utah State Safe mobile security app to improve security on the Logan campus. The app includes safety tools that allow anyone on campus to request that USUPD dispatch “watch” them walk to destinations late at night or to “chat” via the app with a dispatcher, as well as find campus resources quickly for those in crisis.

IMPROVING CAMPUS SAFETY

USU HAS MADE GREAT STRIDES in the last three years in improving campus safety and educating students about the prevention of crimes. Much of this work has been facilitated through the Implementation and Coordinating Committee, which has provided collaboration on all sexual misconduct prevention and response efforts since fall 2016. This committee is chaired by the Vice President for Legal Affairs and includes representatives from offices across campus: The Office of Equity, the Office of Student Conduct, SAAVI, CAPS, Student Involvement, Fraternity and Sorority Life, Statewide Campuses, the Student Health Center, Marketing and Communications, and Public Safety.

Through campus-wide collaborations, USU has accomplished the following important milestones during the last 18 months:

- Title IX oversight at Utah State was overhauled, resulting in several new staff members: a new sexual misconduct prevention coordinator, Title IX Coordinator, executive director of the Office of Equity (formerly Affirmative Action and Equal Opportunity), and more recently, a new supportive measures coordinator and a new investigator to focus on USU’s statewide campuses.
- More than $100,000 was invested to add 50-plus new security cameras across campus in strategic locations.
- Fraternity and Sorority Life was reorganized to provide better oversight and accountability, and USU hired a new fraternity and sorority life coordinator.
- A new advisory board was convened to engage community members, alumni and sexual violence experts in USU’s efforts to prevention and response efforts.
- The Sexual Assault and Anti-Violence Information office was moved from Student Affairs to the Department of Sociology, Social Work and Anthropology to increase internship opportunities in the program and provide expert oversight. Two additional staff members were hired through university funds and two were hired through federal grant funding.
- USU implemented a second sexual misconduct survey for student participation in order to gauge changes in student experiences and attitudes since 2017.
- USU launched the Upstanding bystander intervention program on campus in fall 2017, and in the last academic year (2018–19), 3,977 students and employees were trained.
- For the 2018–19 academic year, 8,392 first-year students across the state completed an online sexual assault prevention course. Students new to USU fall 2019 have not all had the chance to complete it.
- Since spring 2018, USU has also launched several social marketing campaigns to increase awareness about how to respond to survivor disclosures (Start by Believing), how to be an active bystander—or Upstander—and how to date safely online.
- Utah State began using a new vendor for the Code Blue alert system in order to improve how the university provides information about emergencies and safety to the campus community. In conjunction with that, USU also launched a new mobile safety app that provides numerous tools to campus community members to ensure their safety and help them find resources when needed.
- Created a new position in public safety to lead emergency management, doubling the staff resources in this area.
- Utah State University named a new executive director over Public Safety during summer 2019. Earl “Torch” Morris has extensive experience in law enforcement, emergency management, assessing security risks. He most recently served in a similar position at Brigham Young University—Hawaii.

Over the course of the next 24 months, USU is planning the following to improve campus safety:

- Implementing a safety training for the leaders of all clubs and organizations recognized by USU fall 2019. This training will include the Upstanding bystander intervention training, and five prescheduled sessions will provide options for all leaders to attend. Attendance will be tied to the ability of the club or organization to maintain its affiliation with the university.
- Run a marketing campaign to promote the Utah State Safe mobile safety app for the Logan campus.
- Extend the mobile safety app to Eastern and Blanding.
- Utilize current Blue emergency phones to install cameras and to connect the speaker system to Police dispatch for campus broadcasts in the event of an emergency.
- Establish a robust security corps that includes bike patrol and foot patrol.
- Develop an electronic crime map that allows for all crimes to immediately be placed on the map. This will identify areas for select patrol and - increased crime prevention.

- Increase the number of security cameras on campus.
- Increase training and education efforts by developing USU-specific training videos.

This information is provided in accordance with Utah System of Higher Education Rule 262.

TIMELY WARNING NOTIFICATION PROCESS

IN THE EVENT THAT A CLERY ACT CRIME IS REPORTED TO A CSA, USUPD OR USUEPD; occurred on Clery geography; and poses a serious or continuing threat to students or employees, USU will issue a timely warning notice to the applicable campus or campus location. Timely warnings may be sent for criminal homicide, sex offenses, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, motor vehicle theft, arson, hate crimes, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking, as well as other crimes if they present a serious and ongoing threat to the campus community.

Timely warnings are sent through the Code Blue alert system, and may be sent by text and/or email, and for the Logan campus, by push notification to the Utah State Safe app, on the USU homepage, and via the USU main Twitter account. Additional information about campus alerts can be found in USU Policy 533, section 4.7.

The executive director of Public Safety (or a designee), in consultation with University Marketing and Communications and Legal Affairs, will determine if a timely warning should be sent and the content and target audience for the warning. Decisions are made on a case-by-case basis. Timely warnings exclude information that would reveal personal identifying information of the victim or information that may jeopardize an investigation. USU will work to send a timely warning as soon as possible, and sometimes this may be before all the facts surrounding a criminal incident have been collected or verified. Learn more at dps.usu.edu/clery.

Anyone with information for any statewide campus warranting a timely warning notice should report the circumstances to the USU Public Safety by calling (435) 797-1939.

MISSING PERSON PROCESS

THE CLERY ACT requires institutions that maintain on-campus housing facilities to establish a missing student notification policy and related procedures. The term “missing student” refers to any USU student residing in on-campus student housing who is reported missing from a residence.

USU maintains on-campus student housing on three campuses: Logan, Eastern (Price), and Blanding. Every student who resides in on-campus housing may confidentially register one or more individuals to be a contact strictly for missing person purposes. Students provide this information in their housing application, and are again asked during room check in. The contact person can be anyone. Only authorized campus officials and law enforcement officers in furtherance of a missing person investigation may have access to this information. This information will not be disclosed outside of a missing person investigation. Even if a resident does not register a contact person, law enforcement will be notified if the resident is reported missing.

If a member of the university community has reason to believe that a student who resides in on-campus housing is missing, regardless of how long they may be missing, he or she should immediately notify USU Public Safety at (435) 797-1939. Public Safety will generate a missing person report and initiate an investigation or refer the report to the appropriate local authority. If someone believes that a student living in off-campus housing is missing, they should notify the law enforcement agency with jurisdiction in that area (USU Policy 533, section 4.8).

The USUPD will immediately initiate an investigation of a missing person report. Should the investigation result in the conclusion that the student is missing, and has been missing for 24 hours, the student's missing person contact shall be notified within 24 hours of the determination. If the missing student is under the age of 18, and not an emancipated individual, the student's parent or legal guardian will be notified within 24 hours of a determination that the student is missing. In addition, notification will be made to any other contact person(s) designated by the student.

ALCOHOL AND DRUG POLICIES

USU HAS A STRONG COMMITMENT TO THE WELLBEING OF ITS FACULTY, STAFF, AND STUDENTS. USU policy supports an alcohol-free and drug-free environment. Possession, use, and sale of alcoholic beverages by students and employees are addressed in USU Student Code V-3.B and USU Policy 313. These policies specifically prohibit the possession, use, or sale of alcoholic beverages or drugs on campus, including at athletic events. Utah law prohibits the consumption of alcohol inside any public arena or stadium. Anyone found in violation of these regulations is subject to being ejected from the facility and/or arrest. Students and employees found to violate USU policy will face sanctions varying from warning to expulsion/dismissal depending on the circumstances.

LEGAL SANCTIONS

UTAH LAW PROHIBITS THE PURCHASE, POSSESSION, OR CONSUMPTION OF ALCOHOL BY A MINOR (anyone under the age of 21.) It is unlawful for anyone to provide alcohol to a minor. USUPD and other local law enforcement agencies enforce state underage drinking laws.

The following enforcement options are used:

- Warning.
- Referral to the student conduct officer.
- Referral to Housing and Residence Life staff.
- Citation (also referred to the student conduct officer).
- Physical arrest (also referred to the student conduct officer).

Utah and federal law prohibit possessing, using, or selling hallucinatory, narcotic, or other controlled substances. USUPD works closely with the Cache/Rich Drug Strike Force to enforce state and federal laws regarding these substances. Violation of the law could lead to serious legal penalties, from 5 years to life in prison.

HEALTH RISKS

THE USE OF ANY ILLICIT DRUG OR ABUSE OF ALCOHOL IS POTENTIALLY HAZARDOUS, and faculty, staff and students should evaluate the health risks associated with the use of illicit drugs or abuse of alcohol. Synthetically-produced drugs may contain impurities and the true amounts of ingredients are rarely known. For this reason, the effects of an illicit drug may be significantly different with each use. Some of the major health risks of alcohol abuse and illicit drug use include lasting detrimental effects on the brain, aggressive behavior and sexual assault, suicide, death, psychosis, hallucinations, altered perceptions of time and distance, insomnia, paranoia, fatigue, relaxed inhibitions, as well as others.

DRUG AND ALCOHOL PROGRAMS

THE USUPD PROVIDES SEMINARS BY REQUEST about driving under the influence to educate the university community about the effects of alcohol and drugs in the human body as it relates to driving.

The USU Health and Wellness Center offers students in Logan several programs, including:

- Annual new student orientation education about university policies and the legal and health consequences of substance abuse.
- Campus referral system to provide assessment, education and/or referral for treatment.
- Up to 10-hour alcohol/drug education class.
- Annual alcohol and drug awareness week.
- Alcoholedu—an online educational program offered to all new undergraduate students.
- Educational workshops and/or presentations on alcohol or other drug-related issues upon request.
- Life Skills Center to teach life skills that prevent substance abuse through enhancing one's ability to function personally, socially, emotionally, educationally, and economically.

USU Eastern Residence Life offers the following through wellness programming:

- An annual student orientation dealing with policies and the legal and health consequences of substance abuse.
- A campus referral system provides assessment, education and/or referral for treatment.
- An alcohol/drug education class.
- An annual alcohol and drug awareness week.
- Educational workshops and/or presentations on alcohol or other drug-related issues upon request.

Though counseling is available for both employees and students, USU does not offer addiction-related services. Local health departments and other organizations throughout the state of Utah provide addiction treatment and counseling. Resources for all areas of Utah can be found by visiting the Utah Department of Human Services: Substance Abuse and Mental Health.

SECURITY OF AND ACCESS TO USU FACILITIES

USU'S BUILDING ACCESS CONTROL POLICY has the goal to provide a reasonable level of security for the university and, at the same time, allow as much freedom of building access as possible to the campus community (USU Policy 520).

USU Public Safety is responsible for securing buildings on both the Logan and Eastern (Price) campuses, including more than 60 buildings on the Logan campus. Each building has a scheduled time to be secured. In Logan, part-time, unarmed student security officers secure buildings. Security officers begin locking buildings at 6:30 p.m. each day. The last buildings are scheduled to be secured by 12:30 a.m. Lockup times for some buildings may vary depending upon class schedules and other reservations. Several buildings are equipped with automated electronic locking and unlocking devices that operate according to a prescribed schedule. This is controlled through University Access Control and USUPD dispatch.

Graduate students who have been issued keys to a building are allowed to remain in the building after hours.

USU has established a well-defined access control policy. Only select administrators are authorized to approve the issuance of keys to individuals within their assigned areas. The executive director of the Department of Public Safety, or designee, must approve all master key requests. Periodic surveys and audits of campus departments are conducted to determine the status of keys issued to department personnel. It is against USU policy for individuals to duplicate any USU key.

The USUPD provides a service to individuals who need access to an area after hours. Individuals may be allowed into an area when prior written approval has been given by an appropriate dean, vice president, department head, or instructor. In cases where written approval has not been received, a student may gain access if the responsible dean, vice president, or department head calls the USUPD and gives verbal approval. Under special circumstances an officer may escort an individual into an area to retrieve his or her personal property.

USU manages building access according to the building type and purpose and considers security in construction of and maintenance of campus facilities. Residence halls are locked 24 hours per day except for some common areas. Access to the residence halls is restricted to residents, their guest(s), and other approved members of the campus community (USU Policy 533, section 4.3). Persons not authorized to be in a residence hall are subject to arrest for trespassing. All Housing maintenance personnel wear name badges identifying them as staff. Maintenance personnel only enter rooms or apartments to respond to work orders for needed repairs requested by the residents or for identified emergencies.

Academic buildings and buildings with ancillary services (e.g., USU Bookstore, Parking, Publication and Design and Production) are open to the public during business hours. While these are public areas, Utah law gives USU the right to remove individuals from campus who violate the law, rules, and regulations of the university, or who disrupt the peaceful conduct of the institution.

All USU students and employees are issued USU identification cards and are encouraged to carry the cards while on campus

SECURITY CONSIDERATIONS RELATED TO MAINTENANCE PROGRAMS

USU FACILITIES HAS A REGULAR PREVENTIVE MAINTENANCE PROGRAM for the outside lighting system on all campuses. Periodic light surveys are completed, and lights that are out or in need of repair are taken care of in a timely manner. In addition, as USUPD and USUEPD officers make their regular rounds and find lights out or other problems that need attention, they complete a work order to have the necessary repairs made.

Access points to buildings are well maintained. When a broken lock, door, or window is found, on-call locksmiths and other USU Facilities workers are available 24 hours a day to come in and make repairs to maintain the security of our buildings. Each spring, trees and shrubbery around campus are trimmed to keep pathways throughout the campus as safe as possible.

EMERGENCY RESPONSE

WHEN A SERIOUS INCIDENT OCCURS that causes an immediate threat to the campus, law enforcement and emergency medical services will be summoned. First responders, the first responders' on-duty supervisor, and/or university communications are responsible for carrying out the university's emergency operation plan.

The first responders to emergencies on the Logan and Eastern (Price) campus are typically USU Public Safety, local law enforcement and the local fire department, and these agencies work together to manage an incident. Though USU Public Safety is not a first responder to emergencies on other statewide campuses, the department will be involved in supporting local responders as needed. Depending on the nature of the incident, other USU departments and other local or federal agencies could also be involved in responding to and managing the incident.

Resources that may be called upon include:

- USU Environmental Health and Safety.
- USU Facilities.
- USU Risk Management.

USU's Emergency Operations Plan includes information about the university's response to any natural or man-made disaster or hazard that affects campus and poses an actual or potential threat to public health and safety, as well as the response to a regional or national crisis that affects the university. The USU Department of Public Safety has the responsibility of responding to and summoning the necessary resources to mitigate, investigate, and document any situation that may cause a significant emergency or dangerous situation.

EMERGENCY CONFIRMATION PROCESS

IN THE EVENT OF A SIGNIFICANT EMERGENCY OR DANGEROUS SITUATION ON CAMPUS involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or employees, those with immediate information regarding the event ("first responders") will contact the executive director of USU Public Safety or designee, who will confirm the existence of the emergency situation. If needed, the executive director will consult with campus partners, including Environmental Health and Safety or Facilities (USU policy 533, section 4.6).

EMERGENCY NOTIFICATIONS

UPON CONFIRMATION OF A SIGNIFICANT EMERGENCY OR DANGEROUS SITUATION involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or employees occurring on campus, the University will utilize multiple avenues for alerting the campus community. These may include Code Blue texts and emails, push notifications through the university's mobile safety app, USU's main social media accounts (primarily Facebook and Twitter), posting alerts on the University homepage (usu.edu) contacting media, electronic bulletin boards on campus, posting flyers on bulletin boards in areas affected, reverse broadcast through campus emergency phones, PA systems in USU Police vehicles, and through local radio stations and the media. (USU Policy 533, section 4.6.2).

The University Emergency Team, without delay, and taking into account the safety of the community, will determine the content of the notification and initiate the campus alert systems, unless issuing such a notification will, in the professional judgment of responsible authorities, compromise efforts to assist a victim or to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency. The team will consider technology and communications tools available at the time and will select those that would deliver a message to the campus community in the quickest way possible. This may depend on the scope of the emergency and if it affects power, Internet connection, etc. Likewise, the team will target the notification to those who are affected or threatened by the emergency. Learn more at dps.usu.edu/clery.

DISSEMINATING INFORMATION TO THE LARGER COMMUNITY

The University may disseminate emergency information to the larger community in a variety of ways. Some non-university organizations located in close proximity to the university may receive notifications sent via the Code Blue alerts. Additionally, information received by USU Public Safety may be shared with local emergency managers, dispatchers and authorities. University Marketing and Communications may disseminate information to various news media outlets. Information affecting the larger community may then be distributed via Wireless Emergency Alerts and through local emergency alerting systems (USU Policy 533, section 4.6.3)

FOLLOW-UP MESSAGES/NOTIFICATIONS

Follow-up messages/notifications will be disseminated in the same manner the original message/notification was administered. Follow-up notifications will take place during the emergency and when the emergency is terminated (USU Policy 533, section 4.6.4).

EMERGENCY PROCEDURES

EMERGENCY RESPONSE AND EVACUATION PROCEDURES for the Logan campus are published in the Public Safety procedures contained in the Public Safety building. Each statewide campus maintains its own evacuation procedures.

TESTING EMERGENCY RESPONSE AND EVACUATION PROCEDURES

On at least an annual basis, the university tests the emergency response and evacuation procedures. The university publicizes its emergency response and evacuation procedures in conjunction with this test, and documents, for each test, a description of the exercise, the date and time of the exercise, and whether the exercise was announced or unannounced. The documentation is published in the ASR. The table below shows exercises and tests completed on the Logan campus.

SHELTER-IN-PLACE

Shelter-in-place is a precaution aimed to keep you safe while remaining indoors. It refers to taking refuge in a designated area of safety within a building such as a small, interior room with no or few windows. It does not mean sealing off your entire residence or building. If you are told to shelter-in-place, follow these instructions:

- Stop classes, work, or close business operations.
- Share the notification with others in the building if possible, but do not leave the area where you were instructed to shelter-in-place.
- Close all windows, exterior doors, and any other openings to the outside.
- Select interior room(s) above the ground floor with the fewest windows or vents.
- Gather essential disaster supplies if possible.
- Under certain circumstances (criminal activity) it may be necessary to lock the door to the area where you are located.
- Monitor Code Blue messages and emergency.usu.edu for follow-up instructions. In some events, further information may be delivered through local radio, television, or other emergency alerting systems. University and local officials are the best source of information for your particular situation. Be cautious of rumors passed through social media.

LOCKDOWN

Lockdown is appropriate for threats posed from outside or inside the building. These threats could include a violent person attempting to enter the building, a perpetrator already inside, or nearby criminal or terrorist activity. If you are told to implement lockdown procedures, follow these instructions:

- Check outside of the room or office for nearby individuals and move them into a room.
- Close and lock all doors and windows, and barricade any entrance.
- Cover any door windows and close window blinds if available.
- Get to a position out of the line-of-sight of doors and windows.
- Turn off room/office lights and remain quiet.
- Silence cell phones.
- If there is a group, spread throughout the room.
- Make a plan to protect yourselves in the event that the perpetrator enters the room.
- Anyone outdoors should move away from the danger to an appropriate, safe location.
- Anyone in common areas should proceed immediately to the nearest room and follow the lockdown procedures.
- Let roommates or family members know where you are and if you are safe.
- Remain in your location until an all-clear message is received

EVACUATION

In the event of a serious threat, evacuations may be ordered from a building, a group of buildings, or the entire campus. Though fire is the most common reason to initiate an evacuation, it is not the only reason. Some of the more prevalent reasons are:

- Biohazards (release of biologically hazardous materials).
- Chemical hazards (dangerous chemical spill, dangerous gas releases).
- Radiation hazards (spill of radioactive material, release of a radioactive gas).
- Fire hazards (smell or sight of smoke or flames).
- Terrorist threat, active shooter, or criminal activity.
- Natural disaster.

BUILDING EVACUATION

If you come upon a situation that calls for an evacuation of the building you are occupying, either from a fire alarm or an emergency notification, proceed as follows:

- Exit the building through the nearest exit.
- Follow the direction of evacuation team leaders if present.

- Do not use elevators.
- Do not re-enter the building until USUPD, Logan City Fire Department, the fire marshal or other university official (e.g., Environmental Health and Safety representative) gives an all-clear.
- The silencing of the alarm bells is not an all-clear to re-enter the building.
- If you suspect someone was not evacuated or you have any information on the incident that prompted the alarm, report to an emergency responder in the area.
- Let roommates or family members know where you are.
- Instructors should ensure the evacuation of their classes.

CAMPUS-WIDE EVACUATION

If a serious threat to the entire campus is determined by the USUPD to be legitimate, a campus-wide evacuation will be ordered. If such an order is given, proceed as follows:

- Stop classes, work, or close business operations.
- Secure offices and workplaces.
- Whether by vehicle, bus, riding, or walking, immediately take the nearest route off of campus and away from the threat.
- Follow the directions of public safety officials regarding direction of travel when coming out of parking lots. They may not let you take the quickest route to your destination, but they will provide a more orderly flow of traffic

If an on-campus emergency is determined to be a threat to the larger community, the local police department or fire department will determine the information that will be distributed. Information can be distributed through media alerts to local radio stations and newspapers, and through social media. Follow-up messages will be distributed through the USU Code Blue alert system to email or text messaging, through the university's mobile safety app, as well as on the USU homepage.

All members of the USU community are encouraged to notify USU Public Safety of any situation or incident on campus that involves a significant emergency or dangerous situation that may involve an immediate or ongoing threat to the health and safety of students and/or employees on campus. You can use any of the following methods to make the notification:

- Call 911—If you are using a campus phone on the Logan campus, you will be connected to USU Public Safety dispatch. At other statewide campuses, you will be connected to your local dispatch center so you can make a report.
- On the Logan campus, you may use one of the emergency blue light phones located at various locations around the Logan campus. You will be connected to the USUPD dispatch.
- From any campus, you may call (435) 797-1939 to reach USU Public Safety. You should report emergencies by dialing 911 in order ensure the quickest response.

EMERGENCY EVACUATION EXERCISES

USU conducts at least one test of the university's emergency response and evacuation procedures each year. In conjunction with that, USU's emergency response and evacuation procedures are available through Public Safety. In addition, other emergency response tests are conducted each year, such as tabletop exercises, field exercises, or tests of the emergency notification system. These tests are designed to assess and evaluate the emergency plans and capabilities of the institution. The following exercises or tests were conducted in 2018:

DATING VIOLENCE, DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, SEXUAL ASSAULT, AND STALKING POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

PROCEDURES FOR REPORTING A COMPLAINT

Reports of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking may be reported to law enforcement for an investigation and/or to the university as outlined in the previous section “Reporting Crimes and Emergencies.” Information about reporting options for sexual assault, dating/domestic violence and stalking, as well as seeking confidential advocacy and counseling, is available at sexualassault.usu.edu.

Incidents of on-campus dating violence, domestic violence, sex offenses, or stalking may be reported to USUPD on the Logan campus, USUEPD on the USU Eastern (Price) campus, or to the local law enforcement agency for other statewide campuses. Off-campus incidents should be reported to appropriate local law enforcement officials. If asked by the victim, advocates in the SAAVI office will assist in notifying law enforcement, regardless of the location of the incident.

A victim of these offenses has the option to decline to notify law enforcement, but may still report the incident to the Title IX Coordinator in the Office of Equity. Prompt reporting helps the victim receive medical assistance, counseling, or other supportive measures (e.g., housing relocation, change in classes, etc.), and allows for the collection and preservation of crucial evidence. It is important to preserve evidence that may assist in proving that the alleged criminal offense occurred.

Victims of sexual assault should do the following:

- Escape and go to a safe place as soon as possible.
- Find a trusted individual to provide moral support and company. Trained advocates are available through SAAVI to help students navigate their reporting and support options. Advocates at other statewide campuses can be found at usu.edu/sexual-assault/regional-campus.
- Use the campus and community resources listed in this publication or online at sexualassault.usu.edu to aid in recovery.
- Seek medical attention if needed.
- Report the offense immediately to the police. If the victim lives in an on-campus residence hall, the resident director or resident assistant can help contact the proper authorities. USU Public Safety can help identify which police department to report to if it is unclear.
- Whether or not the victim contacts the police, they are encouraged to contact an advocate at SAAVI or through a local community-based organization.
- Depending upon circumstances, a perpetrator of a sexual assault may be charged with crimes ranging from a class B misdemeanor to a first degree felony. USUPD and USUEPD vigorously work to prosecute anyone who commits a sexual assault.

USUPD and USUEPD refer sexual misconduct reported to the USU Title IX Coordinator who also reaches out to the victim with resources and options to file a complaint with the university.

PRESERVATION OF EVIDENCE

It is important to preserve evidence that may assist in proving that the alleged criminal offense occurred or may be helpful in obtaining a protective order. As time passes, evidence may dissipate, become lost, or unavailable, thereby making investigations, possible prosecutions, disciplinary proceedings, or obtaining protection from abuse orders related to the incident more difficult. If a victim chooses not to make a complaint regarding an incident, he or she nevertheless should consider speaking with law enforcement to preserve evidence in the event that the victim changes her/his mind at a later date (USU Policy 533, section 4.1.4).

In order to preserve importance evidence, save all text messages and emails received from the suspect, as well as all text messages and emails sent to others in reference to the incident.

SEXUAL ASSAULT FORENSIC (CODE R) EXAMS

If a victim would like to have a sexual assault forensic (Code R) exam performed, the following actions are recommended to preserve evidence: try not to bathe, shower, use the restroom, change clothes, comb hair, or clean up. If the victim must use the restroom, use a clean jar to collect any urine. If a sexual assault forensic exam is done, certain information must be given to the law enforcement agency with jurisdiction according to Utah law, but a victim is not required to pursue an investigation. The exam is free for victims in the state of Utah in accordance with state rule 270-1-23. Victims are also treated for injuries and infections during the exam. Locations that provide Code R exams in Logan and Price are below. For all other statewide campuses, visit USU.edu/sexual-assault/regional-campus to find the hospital nearest you that provides a forensic exam.

WRITTEN EXPLANATION OF PROCEDURES

When dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking is reported to the University, whether the offense occurred on-campus or off campus, the Office of Equity provides the student or employee a written explanation of the reporting options, services, and supportive measures that may be available for victims and procedures for university disciplinary action, if applicable. USU provides a “Sexual Misconduct Resource Guide” to all university offices who may serve victims and distributes it to partners within the community.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES AND PROCESSES

Acts of violence, including sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, stalking, and other violent, threatening, or destructive acts may violate one or more university policies, including USU policies 303, 305, 339, 342, 407, and Article V of the Student Code. These policies set standards of conduct for students, faculty, and staff. USU policies 305, 407, and Article VII of the Student Code describe the processes for responding to claims that violate these standards.

Where it is complained that acts are motivated by discriminatory intent (animus based on sex/gender/sexual orientation/gender identity, race/ethnicity, religion, age, disability, and other “protected classifications”), rights and processes described in USU policies 303, 305, 339, 342, 407, and Article VII of the Student Code are applied regardless of the status of the accused as staff, faculty, or student, with appeal rights through the policies described above.

Information about proceedings, standards of review, time-frames, protective measures and supportive measures, individual protective orders, resources, and procedures related dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, and retaliation are found within USU Policies 303, 305, 339, 342, and 407.

SUPPORTIVE MEASURES FOR VICTIMS

Victims of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking who report to the Office of Equity will be given written notification of options for protective measures as well as how to request changes to on-campus academic, living, transportation, and employment situations. When reasonably available, regardless of whether the victim chooses to pursue a formal complaint with the university or local law enforcement, the following accommodations can be requested by the victim:

- Access to academic accommodations, including classroom changes, extensions, rescheduling exams, and withdrawals.
- Change in campus housing.
- Change in on-campus work schedule, including being placed on administrative leave.
- Implementation of a “no contact order” or trespass letter shielding a victim from ongoing contact with an individual.
- Change in parking assignment.

To request supportive measures, including a “no contact order,” a victim should contact the Office of Equity. In appropriate cases, USU will issue no contact orders as part of the campus judicial process. An individual also has the option to request safety escorts from USUPD or USUEPD. The Office of Equity will provide written notification to victims of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking regarding resources for counseling, health, mental health, victim advocacy, legal assistance, visa and immigration assistance, student financial aid assistance, and other services for victims both on campus and in the community.

The privacy of victims and other parties is maintained to the greatest extent possible. Supportive measures are coordinated by the supportive measures specialist in the Office of Equity. Information about the victim’s experience is kept private and the specialist only shares what is necessary to help the victim receive appropriate accommodations. Only those individuals who must know in order to provide the requested accommodations will be advised of the victim’s identity. Personally identifying information is not included in Clery Act reporting and disclosures.

PROTECTIVE ORDERS

Victims have a right to seek a protective order from the courts against an aggressor. To seek a protective order, a victim should contact the SAAVI office at (435) 797-7273. Students on the Logan campus may also contact CAPSA at (435) 753-2500 to seek help in obtaining protective orders. Preserved evidence may be helpful in obtaining a protective order. If a victim obtains a protective order, a copy of that order should be provided to USU Public Safety so that it can be distributed to the university campus to which it may apply. Protective order violations will be enforced when they occur on the USU campus.

FILING A FORMAL COMPLAINT

Conversations and the information shared with those listed below is treated as private as possible, but other university employees may need to be consulted with in handling the complaint. An action may need to be taken in the interest of campus safety, such as an administrative investigation of the reported incident or issuing a timely warning notice. In planning any response, the wishes of the complainant are given full consideration. Reporting to university employees is not the same as reporting to the police; the university process is an administrative procedure, not a criminal/legal procedure.

Office of Equity

Phone: (435) 797-1266

In person: Old Main 161 on the Logan campus

Online: titleix.usu.edu.

Serves all statewide campuses through investigations into policy violations and providing supportive measures.

Victims may seek assistance from campus employees, either faculty or staff. University employees are required to report any information they receive about sexual misconduct to the Title IX Coordinator.

To report to law enforcement, contact USUPD for crimes that occurred on the Logan campus, USUEPD for crimes that occurred on the Eastern (Price) campus, or local law enforcement for crimes that occurred on any other statewide campus. Law enforcement information for many local agencies is provided at the beginning of this ASR.

Reporting to law enforcement is not the same as reporting to campus authorities; reporting to law enforcement is a criminal/legal procedure, not an administrative one. Conversations and the information shared with law enforcement are treated as privately as possible (according to state law), but police may need to consult with others (including campus authorities) if an action needs to be taken in the interest of public safety, including the issuance of a timely warning notice. When police reports become public records, the personally identifiable information of the victim is redacted before the report is released in accordance with state law.

UNIVERSITY DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS AGAINST THOSE WHO COMMIT DATING VIOLENCE, DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, SEXUAL ASSAULT, AND STALKING

IF A STUDENT OR EMPLOYEE is accused of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, the Title IX Coordinator, or a designee, gathers information from the reporting party to determine the nature of the incident, identify the individuals involved, and assess whether the university has authority to address the report. The Title IX Coordinator assesses the safety of the complainant and the university community. At this point, the complainant may request that the report remain confidential or that no investigation occurs. These requests are evaluated within the context of the university's obligation to maintain a safe and non-discriminatory environment.

If the complainant declines involvement in the process, the university's ability to pursue sanctions may be limited, including the ability to remove a respondent from campus. In this case, the university will also consider the need for other interventions such as targeted training and education.

If the complainant requests an investigation and disciplinary action against the respondent, or if the university determines an investigation is necessary due to safety concerns, an investigator from the Office of Equity notifies the respondent of the accusation and investigates the incident consistent with office procedures. At the conclusion of the investigation, the investigator sends the findings and conclusions to the Title IX Coordinator who provides a draft report to the Complainant and Respondent and allows 10 days for Complainant and Respondent to submit written responses to the draft report. After reviewing the written responses, the Title IX Coordinator issues a final report, which includes a finding of whether the respondent violated USU policy. The standard of evidence that will be used in any disciplinary proceeding arising from an allegation of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking will be a preponderance of the evidence.

This written final report is provided to both the complainant and the respondent at the same time. At that point, either party may appeal the finding within 10 days. Appeals are sent to an appeals committee, which can modify or accept the finding. The decision is then sent to the university president for a final decision.

If the respondent is found to be responsible for violating USU policies, then an appropriate disciplinary action will be imposed by the Office of Student Conduct (students/Student Code Article V, section 4), Human Resources Office (staff/Policy 305), or appropriate academic department (faculty member/Policy 407). The sanction is provided in writing to the complainant and respondent and either can appeal within 10 days. If the sanction is appealed, a conduct hearing may be called together. All disciplinary procedures will be conducted with a prompt, fair, and impartial process from the initial investigation to the final result.

Any disciplinary hearing will be conducted by officials who do not have a conflict of interest or bias for or against the accuser or the accused, and who receive annual training on issues related to dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking and on how to conduct an investigation and hearing process that protects the safety of victims and promotes accountability.

The complainant and respondent in a case can expect these rights:

- Respectful treatment by university officials.
- Notification of available services both on and off campus.
- Necessary supportive measures, including academic accommodations and changes in living arrangements and work schedules on campus.
- To be free of any form of retaliation. Retaliation is against USU policy and should be reported.
- To have an advisor or support person of your choosing accompany you through the process.
- An equal opportunity to present evidence and access to evidence used in determining the finding.
- An equal opportunity to be heard and identify witnesses.
- A reliable, impartial and prompt investigation of the allegations, conducted within a reasonable time frame.
- Updates on the investigation and process.
- To receive a copy of the finding at the end of the investigation (only the complainant and respondent).

Victims of sexual misconduct receive amnesty for student code violations involving drugs and alcohol. Sanctions for students found to have been in violation of the student code are imposed based on the severity of violation. For example, a student who is found to have engaged in sexual assault—penetration will face harsher sanctioning, from suspension to expulsion. For less severe policy violations, possible sanctions may include a warning, community service, or probation, or some combination thereof. If the respondent is suspended, conditions may be placed on a student's readmission. Possible sanctions for employees include verbal warning or reprimand, written warning, probation, suspension, reduction in rank and dismissal.

The decision of a hearing board may be appealed by the student or employee who was found to have committed a misconduct violation. In sexual misconduct cases, both the complainant and the respondent may appeal the sanctioning decision of the hearing board. The appeal must be made in writing within 10 days from the date the copy of the hearing board's report is mailed or delivered to the students. The university will provide an explanation of these procedures to the complainant and the respondent.

VICTIM NOTIFICATION

USU WILL DISCLOSE to an alleged victim of a crime of violence, non-forcible sex offense or policy violation, the report on the results of any disciplinary proceeding conducted by the institution against a student who is the alleged perpetrator of such crime or policy violation. If the alleged victim is deceased as a result of such crime or offense, the next of kin of such victim shall be treated as the alleged victim for purposes of this paragraph.

PREVENTION PROGRAMS

EDUCATION AND PREVENTION PROGRAMS

The university makes available educational programs and campaigns regarding campus security that are designed to prevent sexual harassment, domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking, in accordance with the Clery Act, on a regular basis, annually at a minimum. USU's educational programming consists of awareness and primary and secondary prevention programs for all incoming students and new employees and ongoing awareness and prevention social marketing campaigns. In accordance with USU Policy 533, section 4.11, these programs and campaigns are designed to:

- Inform students and employees about campus security procedures and practices and to encourage students and employees to be responsible for their own security and the security of others.
- Inform students and employees about the prevention of crimes.
- Identify and promote awareness of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking as prohibited conduct.
- Define what behavior constitutes domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking according to federal and state law.
- Define what behavior and actions constitute consent to sexual activity.
- Describe safe and positive options for bystander intervention that may be carried out by an individual to prevent harm or intervene when there is a risk of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking against a person other than the bystander.
- Provide information on risk reduction so that students and employees may recognize warning signs of abusive behavior and know where to get help if they are in an unhealthy or abusive relationship.
- Provide an overview of information contained in the Annual Security Report in compliance with the Clery Act; and
- Describe procedures the university will follow when dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking are reported; the rights and options regarding procedures victims should follow; confidentiality and supportive measures that may be available for victims, and procedures for university disciplinary action, if applicable.

PRIMARY PREVENTION PROGRAMS

SEXUAL ASSAULT PREVENTION TRAINING

All incoming students are required to participate in a sexual assault prevention online course during their first semester. Those who do not complete the course by the deadline receive a hold that prevents them from registering for future semesters until they finish the course.

The one-hour online courses are tailored to specific student populations (graduate students, international students, undergraduates under 25, and undergraduates over 25) and they provide inclusive and evidence-based education about:

- University policies and Utah laws on consent, sexual harassment, dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking.
- Information about reporting VAWA crimes to local police and the university, as well as how to seek confidential help.
- Safe and effective bystander intervention strategies.
- Gender socialization.
- Aspects of (un)healthy relationships.

The courses collect survey data to track how perceptions of sexual violence are changed as a result of the course. In 2018-2019, 8,392 students completed the online courses.

New and existing employees participate in either an online or in-person sexual harassment awareness and prevention training covering bystander intervention, responsible employee obligations, and sexual harassment, gender-based discrimination, dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking. The in-person trainings are provided through the Office of Equity.

In 2018-2019, 2,347 employees completed the online course and 1,231 employees participated in an in-person training session at the Blanding, Brigham City, Eastern, Logan, Moab, Salt Lake City, Southwest Region, Tooele, and Vernal campuses.

“UPSTANDING” BYSTANDER INTERVENTION TRAINING

The Upstanding bystander intervention program is an audience-led, interactive training that covers the signs of a mental health concern, bias and discrimination, alcohol and drug misuse, consent for sexual activity, the definition of sexual violence, safe and effective intervention techniques, and USU policies on sexual misconduct. University resources, including CAPS, SAAVI, and the Office of Equity, as well as how to report a student of concern, are also addressed during the program. The program's content is tailored to each audience group through the use of relevant scenarios. Upstanding is delivered throughout the year to faculty and staff and students in fraternities and sororities, student leaders, student event volunteers, international student leaders, and student-athletes. Logan campus students enrolled in the first-year student success class, Connections, participate in a modified version of the program.

In the 2018–2019 academic year, 3,977 students, faculty, and staff participated in the Upstanding program from the Blanding, Eastern, Logan, and Moab campuses.

ONGOING PREVENTION AND AWARENESS EFFORTS

RED ZONE

The SAAVI office hosts an annual Red Zone Awareness Day in September. Students, faculty, and staff are invited to visit a variety of exhibits aimed at building awareness of the heightened risk for sexual assault during the first few months of the fall semester (called the “Red Zone”) and drawing attention to campus and community resources for sexual assault victims.

CLOTHESLINE PROJECT

SAAVI organizes the Clothesline Project, held in October. It is a visual display of shirts with messages and illustrations that have been designed by male and female survivors of domestic violence, their friends, or their families. The purpose of this project is to increase awareness of the impact of domestic violence, to celebrate an individual's strength to survive, and to provide another avenue to courageously break the silence.

HEALTHY RELATIONSHIPS EVENT

The Healthy Relationships event held in February partners SAAVI with Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) and alcohol prevention specialists to sponsor a “dating game” often involving a panel of experts to talk about dynamics of healthy relationships. Experts include a marriage and family therapist; a counselor from CAPS; a representative from the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, questioning, and allied community; and married and single students.

WALK A MILE IN HER SHOES

Walk a Mile in Her Shoes is an annual fundraiser and awareness event for SAAVI. It is an international men's march to stop rape, sexual assault, and gender violence. Men gather together and march around campus in high-heeled shoes to take a stand by walking a mile in her shoes. Community agencies share information about services available for survivors. The time between the walks is used to educate event participants about ways they can help reduce sexual assault on our campus.

HEROES NOT VICTIMS PANEL

A partnership between SAAVI and the USU Student Association. Students who have survived violence share their stories and answer questions that are tweeted to moderators. Responses are then live tweeted so that students, faculty and staff who are unable to attend still receive the valuable information.

TAKE BACK THE NIGHT

Each year SAAVI partners with the community to host a Take Back the Night march. This event provides the opportunity for campus and community members to unify in order to bring awareness to sexual violence and show support for survivors.

“CONSENT IS” AND “I ASK” CAMPAIGNS

These are ongoing social marketing efforts to educate students about the meaning of consent for sexual activity. These campaigns have included videos and print, digital, and social media messages. Additionally, various student leadership groups, including Fraternity and Sorority Life, receive a comprehensive consent workshop each academic year.

SAFE ONLINE DATING CAMPAIGN

Coordinated by SAAVI, various infographics are shared through social media messaging and digital signage to educate the campus community on how to navigate online dating safely. More information about this campaign can be found at safedating.usu.edu.

PRESENTATIONS UPON REQUEST

SAAVI provides presentations to various campus groups and classes on trauma-informed response, online dating, healthy relationships, sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. Participants are given information on the reporting process and the different campus and community resources available to primary and secondary survivors.

RAPE AGGRESSION DEFENSE

USUPD offers the Rape Aggression Defense program on a scheduled basis. The class is also taught for one credit as PE 1407 through the Department of Kinesiology and Health Science.

START BY BELIEVING

Coordinated by SAAVI, various offices across campus and organizations from the community come together in April with the message that supporting victims of sexual violence increases reporting and leads to holding offenders accountable, thereby preventing future crimes. More information about the campaign and Start by Believing Day is available at startbybelieving.usu.edu.

RISK REDUCTION

USU uses the following risk reduction information in all education, training, outreach, and timely warnings about sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence and stalking. Risk reduction is defined as options designed to decrease perpetration and bystander inaction, increase empowerment for victims in order to promote safety, and help individuals and communities address conditions that facilitate violence. Note that it is never possible to completely eliminate the risk of becoming the target of a crime, and a crime is never the fault of the victim.

BE AN UPSTANDER

- When you go to a social gathering, go with a group of friends. Arrive together, check in with each other throughout the evening, and leave together.
- Be aware of your surroundings and people's behaviors. If you notice a problematic situation, be an Upstander by directly addressing the issue, creating a distraction, and/or delegating to others to help.
- Address demeaning, discriminatory, and/or violence-supporting language if you hear it.
- Talk to friends who you know or who you think are in unhealthy relationships. Encourage them to get help from a campus and/or community advocate.
- Support and believe friends if they tell you they have experienced sexual misconduct. Encourage them to seek help from campus and/or community resources.
- If you see something suspicious, contact law enforcement immediately by calling 911.
- If you see someone with a gun or weapon on campus, immediately call 911 to report it.

ALWAYS GET CONSENT FOR SEXUAL ACTIVITY

- Exercise self-control and respect the boundaries of others. Expect the same of your friends, sexual partners, and acquaintances.
- Make sure you and your sexual partners understand the university's definition of consent. Learn more at sexualassault.usu.edu.
- Clearly communicate intentions to your sexual partners and give them a chance to clearly relate their intentions to you. Never make assumptions about consent, about someone's sexual availability, about whether they are attracted to you, about how far you can go, or about whether they are physically or mentally able to consent. If you are uncertain whether someone can or has given their consent, stop what is happening and check in with them.
- Understand that crime victims are never responsible for the behavior of perpetrators. If you've been sexually assaulted or victimized, there are resources available to help. Learn more at sexualassault.usu.edu.

PROTECT PERSONAL SAFETY

- Stay alert to your surroundings. Use headphones in only one ear to stay aware of activity around you. This also promotes safety from accidents.
- Be careful about posting your location on social media or sharing it with people you do not completely trust.
- Keep the doors to your home and car locked, and never prop open residence hall doors. Lock your windows at night.

- If you feel uncomfortable walking across campus, USU Police provides safety escorts from one campus destination to another. Call 435-797-1939 to request a safety escort, and allow for a 20-minute wait.
- Never leave your belongings unattended, even for a few minutes. Record the serial numbers on valuable items in case they go missing.

IF YOU DRINK ALCOHOL, DRINK RESPONSIBLY

- Know your limits when drinking. Keep track of how many drinks you've had and recognize when you or your friends have had too much. If you or a friend has had too much alcohol, find a way to safely leave the party or situation.
- Know the signs of an alcohol emergency and if you are concerned for the life of another, always call 9-1-1.
- Do not pressure others to drink or use drugs and be alert to people pressuring you or others. Each individual has the right to make their own decisions about drinking. No one should be pressured to consume more than they want to. If you notice someone being pressured to drink more than they want to, be an Upstander by directly addressing the issue, creating a distraction, and/or delegating to others to help.
- Some sex offenders target people by using drugs or alcohol as weapons. Get your own drinks; don't leave your drink unattended or let someone continually fill your cup.

SEX OFFENDER REGISTRY

THE FEDERAL CAMPUS SEX CRIMES PREVENTION ACT, enacted on October 28, 2000, and the Adam Walsh Child Protection and Safety Act of 2006 requires convicted sex offenders to register with the jurisdiction in which they reside. Offenders are required to submit to the registry if they are working, volunteering or attending USU. Additional information about the sex offender registry provided by the Utah Department of Correction is available at: dps.usu.edu/police/sex-offender-registry.

CRIME DEFINITIONS

THE CRIME STATISTICS TABLE reflects specific crimes and arrests reported to the sources identified in the section on Collecting Crime Reports and Statistics Procedures. In accordance with the Clery Act, these crimes are classified based on the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) UCR Handbook. For sex offenses only, the definitions are from the FBI's NIBRS edition of the UCR. Hate crimes are defined according to the FBI's Hate Crime Data Collection Guidelines and Training Guide for Hate Crime Data Collection.

Although the law states that institutions must use the UCR for defining and classifying crimes, it does not require Clery Act crime reporting to meet all UCR standards.

USU DEFINITION OF CONSENT

USU Policy 339: Sexual Harassment defines consent. This policy applies to all statewide campuses and compliance is enforced by the Office of Equity, which has Title IX oversight on the USU campus.

Consent must be informed, freely given and mutual among all participants involved. If coercion, intimidation, threats, and/or physical force is used, there is no consent. A person cannot give consent if he or she lacks the ability to understand the decision because of disability, is sleeping and/or unconscious, consumption of alcohol or drugs or if he or she is unwillingly restrained. The use of alcohol or drugs does not justify or excuse sexual harassment/misconduct and never makes someone at fault for experiencing sexual harassment/misconduct. Consent must be ongoing, throughout each instance of sexual activity, and for each form of sexual contact. Consent to one form of sexual contact does not constitute consent to all forms of sexual contact. For example, an individual may agree to kiss but choose not to engage in touching of the intimate parts or sexual intercourse. Consent may be withdrawn at any time. An individual who seeks to withdraw consent must communicate through clear words or actions a decision to cease the sexual activity. Once consent is withdrawn, the sexual activity must cease immediately. In the state of Utah, a 16 or 17 year-old cannot consent to sexual activity if the other person is ten (10) or more years older than the minor. The University offers the following guidance on assessing consent and incapacitation:

- Consent consists of an outward demonstration indicating that an individual has freely chosen to engage in sexual activity. Consent is demonstrated through mutually understandable words and/or actions that clearly indicate a willingness to engage freely in sexual activity. Relying on non-verbal communication can lead to misunderstandings. Consent may not be inferred from silence, passivity, lack of resistance or lack of active response alone. In the absence of an outward demonstration, consent does not exist. If at any time it is reasonably apparent that either party is hesitant, confused or uncertain, both parties should stop and obtain mutual verbal consent before continuing sexual activity.
- A current or previous dating or sexual relationship, by itself, is not sufficient to constitute consent. Even in the context of a relationship, there must be mutually understandable communication that clearly indicates willingness to engage in sexual activity each time such activity occurs.
- Consent does not exist if it results from the use or threat of physical force, intimidation, or coercion, or any other factor that would eliminate an individual's ability to exercise their own free will to choose whether or not to have sexual contact.
- A person who is incapacitated is not able to make informed decisions or be aware of their consequences and therefore is incapable of giving consent. Incapacitation is the inability, temporarily or permanently, to give consent because the individual is mentally and/or physically helpless due to drug or alcohol consumption, either voluntarily or involuntarily, or the individual is unconscious, asleep or otherwise unaware that the sexual activity is occurring. In addition, individuals are incapacitated if they demonstrate that they are unaware of where they are, how they got there, or why or how they became engaged in a sexual interaction. Some indicators of incapacitation may include, but are not limited to, lack of control over physical movements, lack of awareness of circumstances or surroundings, or the inability to communicate for any reason. An individual may experience a blackout state in which they appear to be giving consent, but do not actually have conscious awareness or the ability to consent. It is especially important, therefore, that anyone engaging in sexual activity be aware of the other person's level of intoxication or impairment. Being intoxicated or impaired by drugs or alcohol is never an excuse for sexual misconduct and does not excuse one from the responsibility to obtain consent. It is not an excuse that the party initiating sexual contact was intoxicated and therefore did not realize the incapacity of the other.
- Inducing incapacitation for sexual purposes includes the use of drugs, alcohol or other means with the intent to affect or having an actual effect on the ability of an individual to consent or refuse to consent to sexual contact. A person who is incapacitated is not able to make informed decisions or be aware of his/her consequences and therefore is incapable of giving consent. Incapacitation is the inability, temporarily or permanently, to give consent because the individual is mentally and/or physically helpless due to drug or alcohol consumption, either voluntarily or involuntarily, or the individual is unconscious, asleep or otherwise unaware that the sexual activity is occurring. In addition, individuals are incapacitated if they demonstrate that they are unaware of where they are, how they got there or why or how they became engaged in a sexual interaction. Some indicators of incapacitation may include, but are not limited to, lack of control over physical movements, lack of awareness of circumstances or surroundings, or the inability to communicate for any reason. An individual may experience a blackout state in which they appear to be giving consent, but do not actually have conscious awareness or the ability to consent. It is especially important, therefore, that anyone engaging in sexual activity be aware of the other person's level of intoxication or impairment. Being intoxicated or impaired by drugs or alcohol is never an excuse for sexual misconduct and does not excuse one from the responsibility to obtain consent.

In evaluating consent cases of alleged incapacitation, the University considers information around two questions: (1) Did the person initiating sexual activity know that the other party was incapacitated? and if not, (2) Should a sober, reasonable person in the same situation have known that the other party was incapacitated? If the answer to either of these questions is YES, consent was absent and the conduct is likely a violation of policy.

Incapacitation is a state beyond drunkenness or intoxication. A person is not necessarily incapacitated merely as a result of drinking or using drugs. The impact of alcohol and other drugs varies from person to person. One is not expected to be a medical expert in assessing incapacitation.

One must look for the common and obvious warning signs (see above) that show that a person may be incapacitated or approaching incapacitation. One should be cautious before engaging in sexual activity when either party has been drinking alcohol or using other drugs. The introduction of alcohol or other drugs may create ambiguity for either party as to whether consent has been sought or given. If one has doubt about either party's level of intoxication, the safe thing to do is to forego all sexual activity.

CAMPUS CRIME STATISTICS

THE FOLLOWING STATISTICS are compiled in accordance with definitions used in the Uniform Crime Reporting System of the Department of Justice and the FBI as modified by the Hate Crime Statistics Act. These statistical tables include the number of all offenses reported to law enforcement, without regard to the findings of a court, coroner or jury, or the decision of a prosecutor. Under VAWA, effective March 7, 2014, colleges and universities are required to report domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking, beyond crime categories the Clery Act already mandates.

CRIME STATISTICS

THIS CRIME STATISTICS REPORT accurately represents the number of the following defined crimes that were reported to USU Police directly or to campus security authorities. Crimes are reported according to geography, not whether a crime involved students, staff, or faculty. Crime statistics included in this report do not include crimes that occurred off campus that involved students. For more information about the experiences students have had with sexual misconduct, both on and off campus, please see the USU Sexual Misconduct Student Survey.

The following geographical categories are defined below: “on-campus,” “non-campus,” and “public property.”

- The “on-campus” category includes crimes that occurred anywhere on campus, including those that occurred in on-campus housing.
- The “non-campus” category includes off-campus property owned or controlled by officially recognized or registered student organizations, such as fraternities and sororities, as well as property located off campus but owned or controlled by USU, such as remote classrooms or facilities regularly used by statewide campuses, athletic teams, and study abroad students during the time of USU use.
- “Public property” includes public property that is adjacent to on-campus property, such as sidewalks, and at the Logan campus, the Logan Cemetery.
- If a reported crime is investigated by law enforcement authorities and found to be false or baseless, the crime is “unfounded.” Only sworn or commissioned law enforcement personnel may find that a crime is unfounded.

Statistical tables are broken out by statewide campuses. The first three are USU’s residential campuses (Logan, Eastern, and Blanding). Several additional statewide campuses have a building and facility owned by USU, but most are a room or classroom to serve a population in rural Utah.

HATE CRIMES

HATE CRIMES are those crimes that manifest evidence that the victim was intentionally selected because of the perpetrator's bias against race, gender, religion, sexual orientation, ethnicity, disability, national origin, or gender identity. Hate crimes are reported for the following crimes: murder, non-negligent manslaughter, negligent manslaughter, sex offenses (rape, fondling, incest and statutory rape—beginning in 2014), robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, motor vehicle theft, arson, larceny-theft, simple assault, intimidation, destruction or damage or vandalism of property, and any other crime involving bodily injury.

In 2016, there was one hate crime based on sexual orientation in on-campus housing on the Logan campus. In 2017 and 2018, no hate crimes were reported at USU campuses throughout the state.

USU encourages anyone who has experienced discrimination based on a protected class to report it to the Office of Equity, which enforces USU's non-discrimination policy. Visit equity.usu.edu to learn more. USU has a Bias Response Team that addresses incidents of bias, regardless of whether an incident violates USU's non-discrimination policy. The team ensures members of the campus community who experience bias receive support and services to help them retain resilience and continue to thrive. The team does not investigate reports, but may refer reporting parties to university authorities or law enforcement for incidents the team believes violate the law or university policy. Learn more at bias.usu.edu.

ANNUAL FIRE SAFETY REPORT

IN ACCORDANCE WITH FEDERAL LAW, USU is required to annually disclose statistical data on all fires that occur in on-campus student housing facilities. The USU Fire Marshal in Logan serves all residential campuses: Logan, Eastern and Blanding. Listed below are the non-emergency numbers to call to report fires that have already been extinguished in on-campus student housing. These are fires for which you are unsure whether the USU Public Safety Department may already be aware. If you find evidence of such a fire or if you hear about such a fire, please contact one of the following.

USU POLICY ON PORTABLE ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES, SMOKING, AND OPEN FLAMES IN STUDENT HOUSING FACILITIES

PROHIBITED ITEMS

The following items or actions can represent a potential fire hazard and are therefore prohibited. A minimum $25 fine may result for each prohibited item discovered by staff, with fines escalating for repeat offenses.

- Incense and incense burners.
- Candles and other open flame items campus-wide unless authorized by the university fire marshal. Decorative candles may be displayed but are strongly discouraged. Wicks must remain white and unburned. The use of candle warmers was banned in 2007 by the Utah Risk Manager's office for all state property.
- Campus community members may request the use of candles to the university fire marshal for:
 - Theatrical or other entertaining arts performances.
 - Dining Services areas.
 - Special religious ceremonies.
 - Other purposes as may appear necessary.
- All coiled resistance units (such as hot-plates).
- Halogen bulbs.
- Space heaters or other portable-heating units, unless provided by Housing and Residence Life.
- Inappropriate indoor storage of flammable liquid.
- Installing plastic or paper liners in and around apartment stoves.
- Taping or hanging material from smoke detectors or fire extinguishers.
- Grilling on BBQs within 25 feet of any on-campus residence hall. Additionally, if your grill uses propane, the tank cannot be stored on a porch or in a room/apartment.
- Smoking in all USU academic building and residence halls.

All electrical appliances and cords must meet UL (Underwriters Laboratory) safety standards. UL-approved power strips must be used when more than two electrical items share an outlet. The USU fire marshal highly recommends purchasing extension cords that sense damage caused by overload, overheating, pinching, or aging and shut off the power in 25/1,000 of a second if a dangerous condition is detected.

Mini-refrigerator, freezers, and air conditioners that require 1,500 watts of power use or less are allowed and must be plugged directly into a wall. All appliances, including microwaves, must be plugged directly into a wall outlet, not a surge protector or extension cord as required by state fire code. This policy will be enforced by Housing and Residence Life staff.

SPACE HEATERS

Approved space heaters are ceramic and oil filled heaters and MUST have the following:

- Ceramic element and oil filled.
- Cannot exceed 1000 watts at its highest setting.
- A self limiting element temperature setting for the ceramic elements.
- A tip-over safety device.
- Built-in timer for hours of operation (time not to exceed 8 hours per setting).
- Programmable thermostat built into the space heater.
- Overheat protection (Thermal limiter).

No open-element or metallic-element heaters will be allowed in USU-owned and -leased property, and no fuel-fired heater, kerosene or propane, will be allowed in USU-owned and -leased property. It is important to note that the Fire Code does not permit space heaters to be plugged into extension cords or breakered-outlet strips/surge protectors. They should be plugged directly into a wall receptacle. Propane- and kerosene-fueled heaters are prodigious heat producers. But because of their open flames, the risk of carbon-monoxide poisoning, and the hazard associated with handling the fuel, it's best not to use fuel heaters indoors.

DAILY FIRE LOG

A daily fire log for the most recent 60-day period is available for review 24 hours a day at the USUEPD. Logs older than 60 days will be made available within two business days of a request for public inspections. This log can also be found at dps.usu.edu/fire-log.

FIRE DRILLS

Fire drills or fire safety programs are conducted by the USU fire marshal and Housing and Residence Life to ensure that residents are familiar with emergency evacuation procedures and general fire safety. Two fire drills were conducted in the Logan and Eastern campus residential facilities and one fire drill was conducted in the residential facilities in Blanding. When requested or mandated, all occupants must immediately evacuate a residence hall. Interference with or noncompliance will result in disciplinary action, including a $100 fine. Residents are also required by the fire marshal to keep hallways, stairwells, and balconies clear of obstructions at all times to facilitate proper access and egress.

FIRE EXTINGUISHERS

A fire extinguisher is located in all apartments on the kitchen wall. In traditional housing the extinguisher is located in the hallways on each floor. If the extinguisher is discharged while putting out a fire, promptly notify Housing Facilities at during business. If it occurs after-hours or on weekends, immediately notify the USU Public Safety. The extinguisher will be replaced immediately at no cost. The extinguisher must not be re-hung or relocated after discharge.

Fire extinguishers or other equipment can only be discharged in an actual fire emergency. Starting fires, tampering with or misuse of fire safety equipment, or falsely reporting a fire may result in criminal prosecution.

Fire extinguishers are checked by the university fire marshal at least annually. If an extinguisher is found to be empty, tampered with, relocated, or missing, the student apartment will be charged $75 for recharging and/or replacement. Periodically inspect the fire extinguisher gauge to be certain it is properly charged. If the needle indicates that it is undercharged or overcharged, call Housing Facilities immediately for a replacement.

SMOKE DETECTORS

Smoke detectors are located in all Housing and Residence Life facilities. When the detector is activated, it will make a loud, piercing sound. When the detector beeps intermittently, the batteries need to be replaced. It is the resident's responsibility to report to Housing Facilities whenever the smoke detector is inoperable or batteries need to be replaced.

Excessive amounts of smoke from cooking, or steam from the bathroom, may activate a smoke detector. If the smoke detector is overly sensitive notify Housing Facilities.

Any smoke detector problems after 4:30 p.m. or on weekends can be directed to on-call maintenance staff, and will be handled as quickly as possible. Calls can also be left after-hours on the dispatch voicemail for Housing Facilities and will be handled the next morning.

Residents should leave their name, apartment number, time of call, and current problem with the detector. If Housing and Residence Life staff determine that the smoke detector or battery has been removed, tampered with, or is inoperable and has not been reported, the student will be charged $75. If there is a second violation, the student will be charged $100 and appropriate restorative measures imposed.

FIRE SPRINKLERS

Many Housing and Residence Life buildings have been retrofitted with fire sprinklers. It is critical that residents not tamper with the sprinkler systems, especially the sprinkler heads. The water in the sprinkler systems is under tremendous pressure and a damaged sprinkler head or pipe can lead to significant damage to both the building and resident's property.

The resident will be responsible for all damages caused to facilities by breaking/or tampering with a sprinkler head. Housing and Residence Life is not responsible for any damage or losses that occur because of sprinklers being activated for any reason and strongly recommends residents seek insurance for their personal property.

IN CASE OF FIRE

Before a fire:

- Know the escape route and meeting location your resident assistant has designated for your area. A smoke detector can wake you, but only an escape plan can save you.
- All residents should recognize the alarm signal and how to respond. In the event that you hear a neighbor's smoke detector ringing for an extended period of time, contact the fire department first and Housing Facilities next. After hours, call USU Public Safety.
- If a fire occurs:
 1. Grab your keys (if possible) and walk to the nearest exit. Most smoke and dangerous gases rise so keep your body low and move quickly. If necessary, crawl so you do not breathe the smoke.
 2. If you suspect a fire, touch the door or handle with the back of your hand before opening it, with your hand covered for protection. Intense heat, deadly smoke, or gas may be on the other side. If it is not hot, open it cautiously a few inches to check the other side for heat, smoke, or flames. Keep your body out of the opening doorway and be ready to slam it shut if any heat or smoke appears.
- Do not waste time getting dressed or gathering valuables. Get out of the building immediately. Call the fire department from OUTSIDE the building. Dial 911 and report the location of the fire. Stay on the telephone until instructed to hang up. If possible, alert other room/apartment occupants.

USU FIRE SAFETY TRAINING AND SAFETY EDUCATION PROGRAMS

The USU fire marshal conducts an annual fire training class for resident directors, resident advisers, and Housing Facilities employees at the beginning of fall semester each year. The training covers emergency procedures, review of building fire safety systems, evacuation planning, and hands-on fire extinguisher training. This training is also provided to students, faculty, and staff upon request.

PLANS FOR FUTURE FIRE SAFETY IMPROVEMENTS

Utah State University continues to work to upgrade fire panels across the campus.
