-----------------	---------------------------------

102.1 Purpose

This policy addresses the need for clarity in delegation of responsibilities and effective consultation among the UTech Board of Trustees and technical college boards of directors, college presidents, the Commissioner of Technical Education, the Governor, and the Utah State Legislature. It is based on the recognition that students and employers in Utah are best served by a strong, unified system of technical education, with vital and excellent institutions which make up its individual parts. It is the intent of the Board of Trustees to delegate certain responsibilities of an institutional nature to college boards of directors and presidents, and retain all other functions and responsibilities, particularly those having systemwide implications.

102.2 Approval

102.4 Relationships

- 4.1 Relationship between the System of Technical Colleges and the Governor: The Governor appoints the members of the Board of Trustees and the boards of directors, except for those directors appointed to represent local educational institutions. The Board of Trustees, Commissioner of Technical Education, technical college presidents, and boards of directors provide budget and other information needed by the Governor to make recommendations to the Legislature, and otherwise cooperate, as appropriate, with the Governor. Technical colleges are subject to executive branch actions under certain specific statutes such as the State Money Management Act, the State Procurement Code, and the Administrative Rulemaking Act. However, the authority of the Board of Trustees, Commissioner of Technical Education, college presidents, and boards of directors to govern and administer the Utah System of Technical Colleges derives from the Legislature.

4.2 Relationship between the System of Technical Colleges and the Legislature: The Legislature has authority under the Utah Constitution to structure the Utah System of Technical Colleges as it deems appropriate. By statute, the Legislature has delegated authority to the Board of Trustees, Commissioner of Technical Education, technical college presidents, and boards of directors to govern and administer the system and its technical colleges. Certain statutes provide for some direct legislative oversight of system operations such as approval of new construction on a college campus and the approval of certain bonds. The State Senate approves the appointment of members of the Board of Trustees and college boards of directors, except for those directors appointed to represent local educational institutions.

4.3 Relationship between the Board of Trustees and College Presidents: The Board of Trustees, after consulting with boards of directors, appoints college presidents who serve at the pleasure of and at salaries fixed by the Board of Trustees. A president is the chief executive officer for a college and reports to the Trustees. The Board of Trustees has delegated administrative responsibilities for institutional operations to college presidents.

4.3.1 Relationships between the Commissioner of Technical Education, the Board of Trustees, and College Presidents: The Commissioner of Technical Education serves as the Chief Executive Officer of the Board of Trustees. The functions of the Commissioner are described in UTech Policy 105, and include coordinating the execution of Board of Trustees policies and master planning efforts, spokesperson for the System of Technical Colleges, providing statewide leadership in activities affecting the System of Technical Colleges, chairing the Council of Presidents, providing advice and consultation as sought by technical college presidents, preparing the agenda for Board of Trustees meetings after consultation with the Board of Trustees and Council of Presidents, identifying policy considerations and making appropriate recommendations thereon to the Board of Trustees, and administration of statewide support programs subject to applicable Board of Trustees policies. It is the intent of this policy to reaffirm the statewide role of the Commissioner and that college presidents, reporting directly to the Board of Trustees and working cooperatively with their boards of directors, hold the front-line operating responsibilities of managing the states' technical colleges.

4.4 Relationship between a Technical College President and the Board of Directors

4.4.1 Technical College Presidents' Statutory Responsibilities: Utah law provides a technical college president with specific duties to:

- (a) Serve as the executive officer of the technical college board of directors
- (b) Administer the day-to-day operations of the technical college;
- (c) Consult with the technical college board of directors; and

On such matters, it is the duty of the president to prepare initiatives for response by the board of directors. Except for consultation and advice as provided in 4.4.2(a) and for responsibilities specifically delegated by statute or by the Board of Trustees, the actions of a board of directors, as they affect institutional policies and operations, are limited to approval or disapproval of initiatives brought to them by the college president.
- (c) Board of Trustees Delegation to the President with Directors' Approval: The Board of Trustees may identify certain matters for which it delegates authority and responsibility to a college president, with the approval of the board of directors.
- (d) Approval of President's Policy Initiatives to be Submitted to the Board of Trustees: The Board of Trustees may identify certain matters that must be recommended or approved by a board of directors before the president submits them to the Board of Trustees for approval.

4.5 Relationship between a Board of Directors and the Board of Trustees: Other than the statutory powers and duties provided by law, including those duties outlined below, all responsibilities of and authority exercised by boards of directors are delegated by the Board of Trustees. As provided in 4.5.6, if a board of directors concludes that additional consultation between the two boards is needed, the board of directors may petition the Board of Trustees to arrange for more extended communication to discuss the matter.

- 4.6.3 Master Planning: Development, implementation, and maintenance of up-to-date facility master and strategic plans for the System of Technical Colleges, including the definition of institutional missions and roles, the determination of related operating and capital budgetary needs, the approval of new technical programs, program reviews involving systemwide or multiple institution issues, distance and outreach education, and ensuring articulation of courses and programs.
